25 * For vnto him that hath, shall it bee giuen, and from him that hath not, shall be taken away, [h] euen that he hath.

26 ¶ Also he sayd, So is the [i] kingdome of God, as if a man should [k] cast seede in the ground, 27 And should sleepe, and rise vp night and day, and the seede shoulde spring and growe vp, he not knowing how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruite of her selfe, first the blade, then the eares, after that, full come in the eares.

3 *And his raiment did b shine, and was very white as snowe, so white as no fuller can make vpon the earth.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moles, and they were talking with Iesus.

5 Then Peter answered, and said to Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs make also three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moles, and one for Elias.

6 c For he knewe not what he sayde: for they were afraide.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them, and a voyce came out of the cloude, saying, * This is my beloued Sonne: d heare him.

8 And suddenly they looked rounde about, and sawe no more any man saue Iesus onely with them.

9 * And as they came downe from the mountaine, he charged them, that they should tell no man what they had seene, saue when the Sonne of man were risen from the dead againe.

10 So they kept that matter to themselues, & demanded one of another, what the rising from the dead againe should meane.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, that * Elias e must first come?

12 And he answered, and said vnto them, Elias verily shall first come and restore all things: and * as it is written of the Sonne of man, he must suffer many things, and bee set at nought.

17 And one of the company answered, and saide, Master, I haue brought my sonne vnto thee, which hath a dumme spirit:

18 And whersoeuer hee taketh him, he h teareth him, and hee foameth, and gnasheth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 Then he answered him, and sayd, i O faithlesse generation, how long now shall I be with you? how long now shall I suffer you? Bring him vnto me.

20 So they brought him vnto him: and assoone as the spirite sawe him, hee tare him, and hee fell downe on the ground, wallowing and foming.

21 Then hee asked his father, How long time is it since hee hath bene thus? And hee sayd, Of a childe.

22 And oft times hee casteth him into the fire, and into the water to destroy him: but if thou canst doe any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus sayde vnto him, If k thou canst beleeue it, all things are l possible to him that beleeueth.

24 And straightway the father of the childe crying with teares said, Lorde, I beleeue: helpe my m vnbeliefe.

35 ¶ * Then James and John the sonnes of Zebedeus came vnto him, saying, Master, wee would that thou shouldest doe for vs that that we desire.

36 And he sayd vnto them, What would ye I should doe for you?

37 And they sayd to him, Graunt vnto vs, that wee may sit one at thy right hand, and the other at thy left hand in thy glory.

38 But Jesus sayd vnto them, Yee know not what yee aske. Can ye m drinke of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptisme that I shall be baptized with?

39 And they said vnto him, We can. But Jesus sayd vnto them, Yee shall drinke in deede of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptisme wherewith I shall be baptized:

40 But to sit at my right hand, & at my left, is not n mine to giue, but it shall be giuen to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard that, they began to disdaine at James and John.

42 But Jesus called them vnto him, and sayd vnto them, * Ye know that they which delite to beare rule among the Gentiles, haue domination ouer them, and they that be great among them, exercise authoritie ouer them.

43 But it shall o not bee so among you: but whosoeuer will be great among you, shall be your seruant.

44 And whosoeuer will be chiefe of you, shalbe the seruant of all.

45 For euen the Sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ransome of many.

46 ¶ * Then they came to Jericho: and as hee went out of Jericho with his disciples, and a great multitude, p Bartimeus the sonne of Timeus, a blinde man, sate by the wayes side begging.

47 And when hee heard that it was Jesus of Nazaret, hee began to cry and to say, Jesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on mee.

48 And many rebuked him, because hee should holde his peace: but hee q cryed much more, O sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

49 Then Jesus stood still, and commanded him to bee called: and they called the blind, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort: arise, he calleth thee.

50 So he threwe away his cloke, & rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered, and sayd vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And the blind sayd vnto him, Lorde, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Jesus sayd vnto him, Goe thy way: thy faith hath saued thee. And by and by, he receiued his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

13 And ſeeing a figge tree afarre off, that had leaues, hee went to ſee if hee might finde any thing thereon: but when hee came vnto it, he found nothing but leaues: for the time of figs was not yet.

14 Then Jeſus anſwered, and ſaid to it, f Neuer man eate fruite of thee hereafter while the world ſtandeth: and his diſciples heard it.

f This was to declare how much they diſpleaſe God, which haue but an outward ſhew and appearance without fruite.

15 ¶ And they came to Jeruſalem, and Jeſus went into the Temple, and began to caſt out them that ſolde and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrewe the tables of the money changers, and the ſeates of them that ſolde doues.

Iſa.5.1. iere.2.21. matt.21.33. luke 20.9.

AND he began to ſpeake vnto them in parables, * A certaine man planted a vineyard, and compaſſed it with an hedge, and digged a pit for the * winepreſſe, and built a towre in it, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a ſtrange countrey.

a The Greeke worde ſignifieth the veſſel or fat, which ſtandeth vnder the wine preſſe to receiue the iuyce or liquor.

2 And at a time, hee ſent to the husbandmen a ſeruant, that hee might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruite of the vineyarde.

3 But

3 But they tooke him, and beat him, and sent him away emptie.

4 And againe, he sent vnto them another seruant, and at him they cast stones, and brake his head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And againe hee sent another, and him they slewe, and many other, beating some, and killing some.

6 Yet had he one sonne, his deare beloued: him also he sent the last vnto them, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

7 But the husbandmen sayde among themselues, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shalbe ours.

8 So they tooke him, & killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall then the Lord of the vineyard doe? He [b] will come and destroy these husbandmen, and giue the vineyard to others.

10 Haue yee not read so much as this scripture? * The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner:

11 This [c] was done of the Lord, and it is marueilous in our eyes.

12 Then they went about to take him, but they feared the people: for they perceiued that hee spake that parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ * And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharises, and of the Herodians that they might take him in his talke.

14 And when they came, they sayd vnto him, Master, wee knowe that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou considerest not the [d] person of men, but teachest the [e] way of God truely. Is it lawfull to giue tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Should wee giue it, or should wee not giue it? But he knew their hypocrisie, & said vnto them, [f] Why tempt yee me? Bring me a peny, that I may see it.

16 So they brought it, and hee sayd vnto them, * Whose is this image and superscription? and they sayd vnto him, Cesars.

17 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, * Giue to Cesar the things that are Cesars, and to God, those that are Gods: and they marueled at him.

18 ¶ * Then came the Sadduces vnto him, (which say, there is no resurrection) and they asked him, saying, 19 Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue his wife, and leaue no children, that his [g] brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

20 There were seuen brethren, & the first tooke a wife, and when he died, left no issue.

21 Then the second tooke her, and he died, neither did he yet leaue issue, & the third likewise.

22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.

23 In the resurrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall shee be of them? for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Are yee not therefore deceiued, because yee know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marry, nor wiues are married, but are [h] as the Angels which are in heauen.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue yee not read in the booke of Moses, how in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I * am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the [i] liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceiued.

28 ¶ * Then came one of the Scribes, that had heard them disputing together, and perceiuing that hee had answered them well, he asked him, Which is the first commandement of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the commandements is, * Heare, Israel, the Lord our God is the onely Lord.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy ‖ minde, & with all thy strength: this is the first commandement.

31 And the second is [k] like, that is, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. There is none other commandement greater then these.

32 Then the Scribe said vnto him, Well Master, thou hast said the trueth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he.

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more then all burnt [l] offerings and sacrifices.

34 Then, when Iesus saw that he answered discreetely, he sayde vnto him, Thou [m] art not farre from the kingdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

35 ¶ * And Iesus answered & sayde teaching in the Temple, How say the Scribes that Christ is the Sonne of Dauid?

36 For Dauid himselfe said by the [n] holy Ghost, * The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole.

37 Then Dauid himselfe calleth him Lord: by what meanes is he then his sonne? and much people heard him gladly.

38 * Moreouer he said vnto them in ‖ his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes, which loue to goe in long [o] robes, and loue salutations in the markets, 12 ¶ * Now the first day of vnleauened bread, when they sacrificed the Passeouer, his disciples sayde vnto him, Where wilt thou that wee goe and prepare, that thou mayest eate the Passeouer?

13 Then hee sent foorth two of his disciples, and sayde vnto them, Goe yee into the citie, and there shall a man meete you bearing a pitcher of water: followe him.

14 And whithersoeuer hee goeth in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master sayeth, Where is the lodging where I shall eate the Passeouer with my disciples?

15 And hee will shewe you an vpper chamber which is large, trimmed and prepared: there make it ready for vs.

16 So his disciples went forth, and came to the citie, and found as hee had sayd vnto them, and made ready the Passeouer.

39 And againe he went away, and prayed, and spake the same wordes.

46 Then they laid their handes on him, and tooke him.

47 And q one of them that stood by, drew out a sword, and smote a r seruant of the hie Priest, and cut off his eare.

48 And Iesus answered and said vnto them, Ye be come out as vnto a theefe with swordes and with staues to take me.

49 I was daily with you teaching in the Temple, and ye ſ tooke me not: but this is done, that the Scriptures should be fulfilled.

50 Then they t all forsooke him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certeine yong man, clothed in linen vpon his bare body, and the yong men caught him.

CHAP. XV.

1 Iesus iuled to Pilate. 15 Hee is condemned, reuiled, & put to death, 46 And is buried by Ioseph.

AND anon in the dawning, the hie Priests held a counsell with the Elders, and the Scribes, and the whole Councill, and bound Iesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate. Matth.27.1,2. luke 22.66. iohn 18.28.

a For the Romanes gaue them no authoritie to put any man to death.

2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered, and said vnto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the hie Priests accused him of many things.

4 * Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? Behold, howe many things they witnesse against thee. Matth.27.12. luke 23.3. iohn 18.35.

5 But Iesus answered b no more at all, so that Pilate marueiled.

b Hee would not defend his cause, but presented himselfe willingly to be condemned.

6 Now at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whomsoeuer they would desire.

7 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bound with his fellowes, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.

8 And the people cryed aloud, and began to desire that he would doe as he had c euer done vnto them.

c The people alwayes maintein their customes, although they be worth nothing.

9 Then Pilate answered them, and said, Will yee that I let loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

10 For he knew that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enuie.

11 But the hie Priests had mooued the people to desire that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto them, What will yee then that I doe with him, whom yee call the King of the Iewes?

13 And they cryed againe, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate said vnto them, But what euill hath hee done? And they cryed the more fercently, Crucifie him.

d When a iudge hath respect to men, he quite forgetteth iust ce-

15 So Pilate willing to content the people, ple, loosed them Barabbas, and deliuered Iesus when he had scourged him, that hee might be crucified.

16 Then the souldiers led him away into the hall, which is the ‖ common hall, and called together the whole band,

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, saying, Haile, King of the Iewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a ‖ reede, and spat vpon him, and bowed the knees, and did him reuerence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 *And they • compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the countrey, and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

22 *And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of dead mens ſkulles.

23 And they gaue him to drink wine mingled with myrrhe: but he receiued it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots for them, what euery man should haue.

25 And it was e the third houre, when they crucified him.

26 And the title of his cause was written aboue, THE KING OF THE IEVVES.

27 They crucified also with him two theeues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, *And hee was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, *Hey, thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes.

30 Saue thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the hie Priestes mocking, said among themselues with the Scribes, He saued other men, himselfe hee cannot saue.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel nowe come downe from the crosse, that wee may see, and beleeue. h They also that were crucified with him, reuiled him.

33 ¶ Now when the sixt houre was come, darkenesse arose ouer i all the land vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the k ninth houre, Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, saying, *Eloi, Eloi, lammasabechthani: which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, l Behold, hee calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a* sponge full of vineger, and put it on a reed, & gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone: let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 ¶ And the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Now when the m Centurion, which stood ouer against him, saw that hee thus crying gaue vp the ghost, hee said, Truely this was the Sonne of God.

40 ¶ There were also women, which beheld afarre off, among whom was Marie Magdalene, and Marie (the mother of Iames the lesse, and of Ioses) and Salome, 41 (Which also when hee was in Galile, *followed him, and ministred vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 ¶ * And now when night was come, (because it was the day of the preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an n honorable Counsellour, which also looked for the kingdom of God, came, ‡ went in o boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate marueiled if he were already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether hee had bene any while dead.

45 And when hee knew the trueth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph, 46 (Who bought a linnen cloth, and tooke him downe, and wrapped him in the linnen cloth, and laid him in a tombe that was hewen out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre.

47 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie Ioses mother beheld where hee should bee laid.

2 Therefore early in the morning, the first day of the weeke, they came vnto the sepulchre, when the sunne was ‖ yet rising,

3 And they said one to another, Who shall rolle vs away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away (for it was a very great one.)

5 *So they went into the sepulchre, and saw • a yong man sitting at the right side, clothed in a long white robe: and they were afraid.

6 But he said vnto them, Be not afraid: ye seeke Iesus of Nazaret, which hath bene crucified: he is risen: he is not here: behold the place where they put him.

7 But goe your way, and tell his disciples, and b Peter, that hee will goe before you into Galile: there shall yee see him, * as he said vnto you.

CHAP. I.

5 Of Zacharias & Elisabet. 11 The Angel shewed him of the nativity of Iohn Baptist. 20 His incredulity is punished. 28 The talke of the Angel, & Mary. 46 Her song. 57 The birth, circumcision, and graces of Iohn. 68 Zacharias giueth thanks to God, and prophesieth.

FOrasmuch as many haue taken in hand to set foorth the story of those things whereof wee are fully perswaded,

2 a As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning saw them their selues, and were ministers of the b word,

3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) allowne as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point,

4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certeinty of those things, wherein thou hast bene instructed.

5 ¶ In the time of c Herod king of Judea, there was a certeine Priest named Zacharias, of the d course of Abia: and his wife was of the e daughters of Aaron, & her name was Elizabet.

6 Both were f iust before God, and walked in all the commaundements and g ordinances of the Lord, without reproofe.

7 And they had no childe, because that Elisabet was barren: and both were well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe, as he executed the Priestes office before God, as his course came in order, 9 According to the custome of the priests office, his lot was to h burne incense, when he went into the i Temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, * while the incense was burning.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angell of the Lord standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and feare fell vpon him.

13 But the Angell said vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabet shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name k John.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnes, and many shall reioyce at his birth.

15 For he shalbe great in the sight of the Lord, & shal neither drinke wine, nor l strong drinke: and hee shall be filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 * And many of the children of Israel shall he turne to their Lord God.

17 * For hee shall go m before him in the spirite and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the n fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisedome of the iust men, to make readie a people prepared for the Lord.

18 Then Zacharias said vnto the Angel, Whereby shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angel answered, & said vnto him, I am o Gabriel that stand in the presence of God, and am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt bee dumme, and not be able to speake, vntill p the day that these things be done, because thou beleeuedst not my wordes, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

22 And when hee came out, he could not speake vnto them: then they perceiued that hee had seene a vision in the Temple: for hee made signes vnto them, and remayned dumme.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed q to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes, his wife Elisabet conceiued, and hid her selfe fiue moneths, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with mee, in the dayes wherein hee looked on mee, to take from me r my rebuke among men.

26 ¶ And in the first moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a citie of Galile, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgin affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Marie.

28 And the Angel went in vnto her, and sayde, ‖ Haile thou that art ‖ freely beloued: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she sawe him, she was troubled at his saying, and thought what maner of salutation that should be.

30 Then the Angel said vnto her, Feare not, Marie: for t thou hast found fauour with God.

32 Hee shall bee great, and shall be called the Sonne u of the most High, and the Lord God shall giue vnto him the throne of his father Dauid.

33 * And hee shall reigne ouer the house of Iacob for euer, and of his kingdome shall be none ende.

34 Then sayde Marie vnto the Angel, u Howe shall this bee, seeing I knowe not man?

35 And the Angel answered, and sayde vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the most High shall x ouershadow thee: therefore also that y holy thing which shall be borne of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.

36 And beholde, thy z cousin Elizabet, thee hath also conceiued a sonne in her olde age: and this is her first moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing be vnpossible.

38 Then Mary sayd, Behold, the seruant of the Lord: be it vnto mee according to thy word. So the Angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Marie arose in those dayes, and went into the hill countrey, with haste to a citie of Iuda, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabet.

41 And it came to passe, as Elizabet heard the salutation of Marie, the babe b sprang in her bellie, and Elisabet was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she cried with a loud voice, and sayd, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed the c fruit of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence commeth this to mee, that the mother of my Lorde should come to mee?

44 For loe, assoone as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my belly for ioy.

45 And blessed is shee that beleeued: for those things shall be performed, which were tolde her d from the Lord.

46 Then Marie sayd, My e soule magnifieth the Lord, 56 ¶ And Marie abode with her about three moneths: after, shee returned to her owne house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabets time was fulfilled, that she should be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours, and cousins heard tell how the Lord had shewed his great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so, vpon the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered, and said, Not so, but he shalbe called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kinred that is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he would haue him called.

63 So hee asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is Iohn, and they marueiled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediatly, and his tongue loosed, and hee i spake, and praised God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt neere vnto them, and all these wordes were noysed abroad throughout all the hill countrey of Iudea.

AND it came to passe in those dayes, that there came a commaundement from Augustus Cesar, that all the a world should be ‖taxed.

2 (This first b taxing was made when Cyrenius was gouernour of Syria.)

3 Therefore went all to bee taxed, euery man to his owne citie.

4 And c Ioseph also went vp from Galile out of a city called Nazaret, into Iudea, vnto the citie of * Dauid, which is called Beth-lehem (because hee was of the house and linage of Dauid,)

5 To be taxed with Marie that was giuen him to wife, which was with childe.

6 ¶ And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that shee should be deliuered.

7 And she brought forth her d first begotten sonne, and wrapped him in swadling clothes, and layde him in a e cratch, because there was no roume for them in the Inne.

8 ¶ And there were in the same countrey shepheards abiding in the fielde, and keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

9 And loe, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 Then the Angel sayd vnto them, Bee not afraid: for beholde, I bring you tidings of great ioy, that shalbe to all the people:

13 And straight way there was with the Angel a multitude of heauenly souldiours, praysing God, and saying, 14 Glory bee to God in the high heauens, and peace in earth, and towards men d good will.

15 And it came to passe when the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, that the shepheards said one to another, Let vs goe then vnto Beth-lehem, and see this thing that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

16 So they came with haste, and founde both Mary and Ioseph, and the babe laid in the cratch.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that childe.

18 And all that heard it, wondred at the things which were tolde them of the shepheards.

19 But Mary kept all those sayings, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepheards returned, glorifying and praising God, for all that they had heard & seene, as it was spoken vnto them.

21 Then hee beganne to say vnto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all i bare him witnesse, and wondred at the gracious words, which proceeded out of his mouth, and sayd, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then he sayd vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto mee this prouerbe, Physician, k heale thy selfe: Whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And he sayd, Verely I say vnto you, * No l Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of * Elias, when heauen was shut three yeeres and sixe moneths, when great famine was throwout all the land, 26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue into Sarepta, a citie of Sidon, vnto m a certeine widow.

27 Also many lepers were in Israel, in the time of * Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were filled n with wrath, 29 And rose vp, & thrust him out of the citie, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their citie was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But he passed o throwow the middes of them, and went his way, 31 ¶ * And came downe into Capernaum a citie of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 * And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his word was p with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a q spirit of an vncleane deuill, which cryed with a loud voice, 34 Saying, Oh, what haue wee to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? art thou come to destroy vs? I know who thou art, euen the holy one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselues, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spread abroad throwout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 ¶ * And hee rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house: and Simons wiues mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

39 Then hee stood ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatly she arose, and ministred vnto them.

40 Now when the Sunne was downe, all they that had sicke folkes of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and he layd his handes on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 * And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, r Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but hee rebuked them, and suffered them not to say that they knew him to be the Christ.

42 And when it was day, hee departed, and went foorth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that hee should not depart from them.

43 But he said vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdome of God to other cities: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

5 And hee sayde vnto them, The sonne of man is b also Lord of the Sabbath day.

7 And the Scribes and Pharises watched him, whether hee would e heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But hee knewe their thoughtes, and sayde to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, and stand vp in the mids. And he arose, and stood vp.

9 Then sayde Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath dayes to doe good or to doe euill? to saue ‖ life, or to destroy it?

10 And he beheld them all in compasse, and said vnto the man, Stretch foorth thine hand. And he did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnesse, and communed one with another, what they might doe to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went into a mountaine to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 * And when it was day, hee called his disciples, and of them hee chose e twelue, which also he called f Apostles.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and he healed them all.

3 And when hee heard of Ieſus, hee ſent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beſeeching him that he would come and heale his ſeruant.

34 The sonne of man is come, and s eateth and drinketh; and ye say, Beholde, a man which is a glutton, & a drinker of wine, a friend of Publicanes and sinners.

35 But wisedome is t iustified of all her children.

36 ¶ * And one of the Pharises desired him that he would eate with him: and hee went into the Pharises house, and sate downe at table.

37 And beholde, a woman in the citie, which was a sinner, when shee knew that Iesus sate at table in the Pharises house, she brought a box of ointment.

38 * And she stood at his feete behind him weeping, and began to wash his feete with teares, and did wipe them with the haires of her head, and kissed his feete, and anoynted them with the ointment.

39 Nowe when the Pharise which bade him, sawe it, hee spake within himselfe, saying, If this man were a prophet, hee would surely haue knowen who, and what maner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he sayd, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two debters: the one ought fiue hundreth pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, hee forgaue them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and sayd, I suppose that hee, to whome hee forgaue most. And hee sayd vnto him, Thou hast truely iudged.

44 Then hee turned to the woman, and sayd vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, and thou gauest me no water to my feete: but she hath washed my feete with teares, and wiped them with the haires of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but she since the time I came in, hath not ceassed to kisse my feete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou diddest not anoynt: but shee hath anoynted my feete with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, Many sinnes are forgiuen her: for she * loued much. To whome a little is forgiuen, he doeth loue a little.

48 And he sayd vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee.

49 And they that sate at table with him, began to say within themselues, Who is this that euen forgiueth sinnes? *

50 And he sayd to the woman, Thy faith hath saued thee: go in * peace.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ with his Apostles goe from towne to towne, and preach. 3 The woman minister vnto them of their goods. 5 He sheweth the parable of the seede. 21 He telleth who is his mother and his brother. 24 He stilleth the raging of the lake. 27 He deliuereth the possessed. 33 The deuils enter into the hearde of swine. 41 He healeth the sicke woman, and Iairus daughter.

AND it came to passe afterward, that hee himselfe went through euery citie and towne, preaching, and publishing the kingdome of God, and the twelue were with him.

2 And certaine women, which were healed of euill spirits, and infirmities, as * Mary which was called Magdalene, out of whome went seuen deuils.

3 And Ioanna the wife of Chuza Herods steward, and Sulanna, and many other which a ministred vnto ‖ him of their substance.

4 * Now when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all cities, he spake by a parable.

5 A sower went out to sow his seede, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden vnder feete, and the fowles of heauen deuoured it vp.

6 And some fell on the stones, and when it was sprong vp, it withered away, because it lacked moysture.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprang vp with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell on good ground, and sprang vp and bare fruit, an hundreth folde. And as hee sayde these things, he cryed, Hee that hath eares to b heare, let him heare.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demanding, what parable that was?

10 And hee sayd, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secrets of the kingdome of God, but to other in c parables, that when * they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not vnderstand.

11 * The parable is this, The seede is the worde of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterward commeth the deuill, and taketh away the worde out of their hearts, least they should beleeue, and be saued.

13 But they that are in the stones, are they which when they haue heard, receiue the worde with ioy: but they haue no rootes, which for a while d beleeue, but in the time of tentation goe away.

14 And that which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and e after their departure are choked with cares, and with riches, and voluptuous liuing, and bring foorth no fruit.

15 But that which fell in good ground, are they which with an honest and good heart heare

23 And as they sailed, he fell i asleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in k ieopardie.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, wee perish. And hee arose, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then hee sayde vnto him, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondered among themselues, saying, Who is this that commaundeth both the windes and water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ * So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.

27 And as hee went out to lande, there mette him a certaine man out of the citie, which had a deuill long time, and hee ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when hee saw Jesus, hee cryed out, and fell downe before him, and with a loud voyce sayde, What haue I to doe with thee, Jesus the sonne of God, the most high? I beseech thee l torment me not.

29 For hee commaunded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for ‖ oft times hee had caught him: therefore hee was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but hee brake the bandes, and was m caryed of the deuill into wildernesses.)

30 Then Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And hee sayde, n Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him, that hee would not command them to go out into the o deepe.

32 And there was there by, an heard of many swine, feeding on an hill, and the deuils besought him, that hee would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: ℞ the herde was caried with violence from a steepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the herdemen sawe what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they tolde it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Jesus, clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afrayde.

36 They also which sawe it, tolde them by what meanes hee that was possessed with the deuill, was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, besought him, that hee would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.

38 Then the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that hee might bee with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 * Returne into thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So hee went his way, and preached throughout all the p citie, what great things Jesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Jesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶ * And beholde, there came a man named Jairus, and hee was the ruler of the q Synagogue, who fell downe at Jesus feete, and besought him that he would come into his house.

43 And a woman hauing an issue of blood, twelue yeeres long, which had spent all her substance vpon physitions, and could not be healed of any:

44 Came behinde him, and touched the r hemme of his garment, and immediatly her issue of blood stanched.

45 Then Jesus said, Who is it that hath touched mee? When euery man denied, Peter sayde and they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and treade on thee, and sayest thou, Who hath touched me?

46 And Jesus sayd, Some one hath touched mee: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman saw that shee was not hidde, shee came trembling, and fell downe before him, and tolde him before all the people, for what cause shee had touched him, and how shee was healed immediatly.

CHAP. IX.

2 Hee sendeth out the twelue Apostles to preach. 7 Herode heareth tell of him. 12 Hee feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues, and two fishes. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 28 He transfigureth himselfe vpon the mount. 42 He deliuereth the possessed, 47 and teacheth his disciples to bee lowly. 54 They desire vengeance, but he reproueth them.

THen * called hee the twelue disciples together, and gaue them power & authoritie ouer all deuils, and to heale diseases.

2 * And he sent them to preach the kingdome of God, and to cure the sicke.

3 And he sayd to them, a Take nothing to your iourney, neither staues, nor scrippe, neither bread, nor siluer, neither haue two coates.

4 And whatsoeuer house yee enter into, there abide, and b thence depart.

5 And whosoeuer will not receiue you, when ye goe out of that citie, * shake off the very c dust from your feete for a testimonie against them.

6 And they went out, and went through euery towne preaching the Gospell, and healing euery where.

7 ¶ * Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and hee doubted, because that it was sayd of some, that John was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of some, that one of the olde Prophets was risen againe.

9 Then Herode sayde, John haue I beheaded: who then is this of whom I heare such things? and he desired to see him.

10 ¶ * And when the Apostles returned, they tolde him what great things they had done. * Then he tooke them, and went aside into a solitarie place, neere to the citie called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knewe it, they followed him: and hee receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had need to be healed.

12 * And when the day began to weare away, the twelue came, and said vnto him, Send the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But hee sayde vnto them, d Giue yee them to eate. And they sayde, Wee haue no moe but fiue loaues and two fishes, except wee should goe, and buy meate for all this people.

14 For they were about fiue thousand men. Then he sayde to the disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then he tooke the fiue loaues, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and e blessed them, and brake, and gaue to the disciples, to set before the people.

17 So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remayned to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

18 ¶ * And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answered, and sayde, John Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen againe.

20 And hee sayd vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and said, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned, & commanded them, that they should tell f that to no man, 22 Saying, * The sonne of man must suffer many things, and bee reproued of the elders, and of the hie Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the third day rise againe.

23 ¶ * And hee sayd to them all, If any man will come after me, let him denie himselfe, and take vp his crosse g dayly, and follow me.

24 For whosoeuer will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

25 For what aduantage is it a man, if he winne the whole world, and destroy himselfe, or lose himselfe?

26 * For whosoeuer shall be ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shal the Sonne of man bee ashamed when hee shall come in his glory, and in the glory of the Father, and of the holy Angels.

27 * And I tell you of a suretie, there bee some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the h kingdome of God.

28 * And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he tooke Peter and John, and James, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as hee prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment was white and glistered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias, 31 Which appeared in glory, and tolde of his i departing, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

42 And whiles hee was yet comming, the deuill rent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vncleane spirite, and healed the childe, and deliuered him to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mightie power of God: and while they all wondred at all things, which Iesus did, hee sayd vnto his disciples, 11 Euen the very * dust, which cleaueth on vs of your citie, wee wipe off against you: notwithstanding know this, that the i kingdome of God was come neere vnto you.

12 For I say to you, that it shall bee easier in that day for them of Sodom, then for that citie.

13 * Woe be to thee, Chorazin: woe bee to thee, Bethsaida: for if the miracles had beene done in Tyrus and Sidon, which haue beene done in you, they had a great while agone repented, sitting k in sackecloth and ashes.

14 Therefore it shall be easier for Tyrus, l and Sidon at the iudgement, then for you.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heauen, shalt bee thrust downe to hell.

16 ¶ * He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and hee that despiseth mee, despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seuenty turned againe with ioy, saying, Lord, euen the deuils are subdued to vs through thy name.

18 And he said vnto them, I sawe m Satan, like lightening, fall downe from heauen.

19 Beholde, I giue vnto you power to treade on serpents, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemie, and nothing shall hurt you.

20 Neuertheless, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heauen.

21 ¶ That same houre reioyced Iesus ‖ in the spirit, and said, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lorde of heauen and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the n wise and learned, and hast reuealed them to babes: euen so, Father, because it to pleased thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are o giuen mee of my Father: and p no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, saue the q Sonne, and hee to whome the Sonne will reuelle him.

23 ¶ And he returned to his disciples, and said secretly, * Blessed are the eyes, which see that ye see.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets and kings haue desired to see those things which ye see, and haue not seene them: and to heare those things which yee heare, and haue not heard them.

25 ¶ * Then behold, a certaine expounder of the Law stood vp, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I doe, to inherit eternall life? Matth.22.35. marke 12.28.

26 And he said vnto him, What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

27 And he answered, & said, * Thou shalt loue thy Lord God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy strength, and with all thy thought, * and thy neighbour as thy selfe. Deut.6.5. Leuit.19.18.

28 Then he said vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this doe, and thou shalt liue.

29 But hee willing to ‖ iustifie himselfe, said vnto Jesus, Who r is then my neighbour? ‖ Or, to approoue himselfe as iust.

30 And Jesus answered, and said, A certaine man went downe from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among theeues, and they robbed him of his rayment, and wounded him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by s chance there came downe a certaine t Priest that same way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And like wise also a Leuite, when hee was come neere to the place, went and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine u Samaritane, as hee iourneyed, came neere vnto him, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound vp his woundes, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and brought him to an Inne, and made prouision for him.

35 And on the morowe when hee departed, hee tooke out x two pence, and gaue them to the host, and sayde vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theeues?

37 And hee said, Hee that shewed mercie on him. Then sayde Jesus vnto him, Goe, y and doe thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to passe as they went, that hee entred into a certaine towne, and a certaine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And shee had a sister called Marie, which also sate at Jesus feete, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was combred about much seruing, and came to him, and sayde, Master, doest thou not care that my sister hath left mee to serue alone? bid her therefore, that she helpe me.

41 And Jesus answered, and said vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou carest, and art z troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needefull, Marie hath chosen the good part, a which shall not be taken away from her.

2 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 He driveth out a deuill, 15 and rebuketh the blasphemous Pharises. 28 He preferreth the spirituall cosinage, 29 They require signes and tokens. 37 He eateth with the Pharise, and reproueth the hypocrisie of of the Pharises, Scribes, and hypocrites.

AND so it was, that as hee was praying in a certeine place, when hee ceased, one of his Disciples said vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

Matth.6.9.

2 * And hee said vnto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, halowed bee thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen:

a Or, euery day, or as much as is sufficient for this day.

4 And ‖ forgiue vs our sinnes: for euen wee forgiue euery man that is indebted to vs: And lead vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

5 ¶ Moreouer he said vnto them, b Which of you shall haue a friend, and shall goe to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaues:

b By this similitude he teacheth vs that we ought not to be discouraged, if we obteine not incontinently that which we demand.

6 For a friend of mine is come ‖ out of the way to mee, and I haue nothing to set before him:

‖ Or, in passing by the way.

7 And he within should answer, and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with mee in bed: I cannot rise and giue them to thee.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shalbe opened.

Matth.7.9.

11 * If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will hee giue him a stone? or if hee aske a fish, will hee for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If yee then which are euill, can giue good gifts vnto your children, how much more shall your heauenly Father giue c the holy Ghost to them that desire him?

c The chiefest thing that we can desire of God, is his holy Spirit.

14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuil which was dumme: and when the deuill was gone out, the dumme spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, Hee casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

Matth.12.25. mar.3.24,25.

17 But hee knew their thoughts, and said vnto them, * Euery kingdome deuided against it selfe, shalbe desolate, and an house deuided against an house, falleth.

18 So if Satan also be deuided against himselfe, how shall his kingdom stand, because yee say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whom doe your d children cast them out? Therefore shall they bee your iudges.

d That is to say, your coniurers.

20 But if I by the e finger of God cast out deuils, doubtlesse the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

e The finger of God is taken for the vertue and power of God. And the vertue of the Father and the Sonne is the holy Ghost: for so Matthew doeth interprete this place.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his f palace, the things that hee possesseth are in ‖ peace.

f The word signifieth an entrie or porch before an house.

g They that doe not wholly apply themselues to destroy the kingdome of Satan, cannot be counted to be on Christs side, but are his aduersaries: how much more is he against him, that maketh open warre with him as Satan doeth?

24 * When the vncleane spirit is gone out of a man, hee walketh through drie places, seeking h rest: and when hee findeth none, hee saith, I will returne vnto mine house whence I came out.

Matth.12.43.

27 ¶ And it came to passe, as hee said these things, a certeine woman of the company lifted vp her voyce, and said vnto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, and the pappes which thou hast sucked.

37 ¶ And as hee spake, a certeine Pharise besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sate downe at table.

38 And when the Pharise saw it, hee marueiled that hee had not first washed before dinner.

39 * And the Lord said to him, In deed ye Pharises make cleane the outside of the cup and of the platter: but the inward part is full of rauening and wickednesse.

40 Ye fooles, did not hee that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 Therefore p giue almes of ‖ those things which are within, and behold, all things shalbe cleane to you.

42 But woe be to you, Pharises: for yee tithe the mint and the rewe, and all maner herbes, and passe ouer ‖ iudgement and the loue of God: these ought yee to haue done, and q not to haue left the other vndone.

27 h Consider the lilies how they growe: they labour not, neither spinne they: yet I say vnto you, that Solomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

36 And ye your selues like vnto men that wait for their master, when he will returne from the wedding, that when hee commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediatly.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whome the Lord when he commeth, shall finde waking: verely I say vnto you, hee will m gird himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

38 And if he come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 * Now vnderstand this, that if the good man of the house had knowen at what houre the theefe would haue come, hee would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to be digged thorow.

40 Bee yee also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter said vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithfull steward, and wise, whome the master shall make ruler ouer his household, to giue them their n portion of meat in season?

n The portion of seruants euerie moneth was foure peckes of corne, as Donatus writeth in Phormio.

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he commeth, shall finde so doing.

44 Of a trueth I say vnto you, that hee will make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master doeth deferre his comming, and shall begin to smite the seruants, & maydens, and to eate and drinke, and to be drunken,

46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when hee thinketh not, and at an houre when he is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbeleeuers.

47 ¶ And that seruant that knewe his masters will, and prepared not himselfe, neither did according to his will, shalbe beaten with many stripes.

o Therefore ignorance is inexcusable.

p To whom God hath giuen many graces.

48 But he that knew it not, and yet did commit things o worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes: for vnto whomsoeuer p much is giuen, of him shall hee much required, and to whom men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

q The Gospel is as a burning fire most vehement, which maketh a change of things through all the world.

49 ¶ I am come to put q fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it be r alreadie kindled?

r If there be great troubles and alterations vpon the earth, which things come not by the proprietie of the Gospell, but through the wickednesse of men.

50 Notwithstanding I must be ‖ baptized with a baptisme, and how am I grieued till it be ended?

56 Hypocrites, yee can discerne the face of the earth, and of the skie: but why discerne ye not this time?

1 The crueltie of Pilate. 2 We ought not to condemne all to bee wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 He healeth the crooked woman, 15 Answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes he declareth what the kingdome of God is, 23 Also that the number of them which shall bee saued, is small. 33 Finally, hee sheweth that no worldly policie or force can let the worke and counsell of God.

THere were certaine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had [a] mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Suppose yee that these Galileans were [b] greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except [c] ye amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eighteene, vpon whom the towre in [d] Siloam fell, and slewe them, were ‖ sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and hee came and sought fruite thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Beholde, [e] this three yeeres haue I come and sought fruite of this fig tree, and finde none: [f] cut it downe: why kreepeth it also the ground barren?

8 And he answered, and sayd vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yeere also, till I digge round about it, and doung it.

9 And if it beare fruite, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a [h] spirit of infirmitie eighteene yeeres, and was [i] bowed together, and could not lift vp her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art ‖ loosed from thy disease.

13 And he layd his hands on her, and immediatly she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and said vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come & be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lorde, and sayd, Hypocrite, doeth not each one of you on the Sabbath day loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whome Satan had bound, loe, eighteene yeeres, be loosed from his bond on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things, that were done by him.

18 ¶ * Then said he, What is the [k] kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seede, which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree, and the foules of the heauen made nests in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe hee sayd, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three pecks of floure, till all was leauened.

22 ¶ * And he went thorow all cities and townes, teaching, and iourneying towards Ierusalem.

23 Then sayd one vnto him, Lorde, are there few that shalbe saued? And he said vnto them, 24 * [l] Striue to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and yee begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and hee shall answere and say vnto you, I know you not whence ye are,

26 [m] Then shal ye begin to say, We haue eaten and dronke in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streetes.

27 But hee shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are: * depart from mee, all ye workers of iniquitie.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham & Isaac and Iacob, & all the Prophets in the kingdom of God, and your selues thrust out at doores.

29 Then shal come many from the [o] East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdom of God.

30 * And behold, [o] there are last, which shalbe first, and there are first, which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certeine Pharises, and said vnto him, Depart, and goe hence: for Herode will kill thee.

32 Then said he vnto them, Go ye and tell that fore, Behold, I [p] cast out deuils, and will heale still [q] to day, and to morow, and the third day I shall be ‖ perfected.

33 Neuertheless I must walke to day, and to morow, and the day following: for it cannot be, that a Prophet [r] should perish out of Ierusalem.

34 * ¶ Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee, how often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the hen gathereth her brood vnder her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, your [s] house is left vnto you desolate:

a He murthered them as they were sacrificing: and so their blood was mingled with the blood of the beasts which were sacrificed.
b For the Iewes tooke occasion hereby to condemne them, as most wicked men.
c He warneth them, rather to consider their owne state, then to reproue other mens.

e By this similitude is declared the great patience that God vseth towards sinners in looking for their amendement: but this delay auaileth them nothing, when they still remaine in their corruption.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Iesus eateth with the Pharise, 4 Healeth the dropsie vpon the Sabbath. 8 Teacheth to be lowly, and to bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great Supper. 28 Hee warneth them that will follow him, to lay their accounts before, what it will cost them. 34 The salt of the earth.

AND it came to passe, that when hee was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises on the Sabbath day, to ‖ eate bread, they watched him.

2 And beholo, there was a certeine man before him, which had the dropsie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the expounders of the Law, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then hee tooke him, and healed him, and let him goe,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse, or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straight way pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answere him againe to those things.

7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the ghests, when hee marked how they chose out the chiefe roomes, and said vnto them, a He reprooueth their ambition, which desire to sit in the hiest places.

8 a When thou shalt bee bidden of any man to a wedding, set not thy selfe downe in the chiefest place, least a more honourable man then thou, be bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade both him and thee, come, and say to thee, Giue this man roome, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roome.

Prou. 25.5.

10 * But when thou art bidden, goe, and sit downe in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee, commeth, he may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp higher: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

Chap. 18.14. mat. 23.12.

b Christ reprehendeth onely the blinde affection of man, which regardeth nothing but a worldly recompence.

11 * For whosoeuer exalteth himselfe, shalbe brought low, and hee that humbleth himselfe, shalbe exalted.

Pro. 3.9. tob. 4.7. Mat. 22.2. reuel. 19.9.

12 ¶ Then b said he also to him that had bidden him, * When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsemen, nor the rich neighbours, least they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

c He casteth the Iewes in the teeth with their ingratitude, which would not eare of those holy meates of Gods word, which was presented vnto them, and where-unto they were bid a long time before.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blind, 14 And thou shalt bee blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

15 ¶ Now when one of them that sate at table, heard these things, hee said vnto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then said hee to him, * c A certeine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now readie.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: The first sayd vnto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needs goe out and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another sayd, I haue bought fiue yoke of oxen, and I goe to proue them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another sayd, I haue married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angrie, and sayd to his seruant, d Goe out quickely into the places and streetes of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

22 And the seruant sayd, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is roome.

23 Then the master sayde to the seruant, Goe out into the e high wayes, and hedges, and f compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and hee turned and sayde vnto them, 26 * If any man come to mee, and g hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters: yea, and his owne life also, hee cannot be my disciple.

27 * And whosoeuer beareth not his crosse, and commeth after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you minding to builde a tower, sitteth not downe before, and h counteth the cost, whether hee haue sufficient to perfourne it,

29 Lest that after he hath layd the foundation, and is not able to perfourne it, al that beholde it, begin to mocke him, 30 Saying, This man began to builde, and was not able to make an end.

31 Or what king going to make warre against another King, sitteth not downe first and taketh counsell, whether he be able with tenne thousand, to meete him that commeth against him with twentie thousand?

32 Or els while he is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoeuer hee be of you, that i forsaketh not all that he hath, hee can not be my disciple.

34 * Salt is good: k but if salt haue lost his sauour, wherewith shall it be ‖ salted?

35 It is neither meet for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men cast it out. He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

d Here is signified the calling of the Gentiles.

e God will rather receiue all the rascall people of the world to his banquet, then them which are vnthankefull.

f This compulsion commeth of the feeling of the power of Gods word, after that his worde hath bene preached.

Matt. 10.37. and 16.24.

g That is, he that casteth not off all affections and desires which draw vs from Christ.

Chap. 9.23. matt. 16.24. mar. 8.34.

h He that will professe the Gospel, must diligently consider what his profession requireth, and not rashly take in hand so great an enterprise: neither yet when hee hath taken it in hand, in any case forsake it.

i He that is not perswaded to leaue all at euery houre to bestow himselfe frankly in Gods seruice.

Matth. 5.13. mar. 9.50.

k If they that should season others, haue lost it themselues, where should a man recouer it?

‖ Or, seasoned.

CHAP. XV.

1 The Pharises murmure because Christ receiueth sinners. 4 The louing mercy of God is openly set foorth in the parable of the hundreth sheepe. 7 Ioy in heauen for one sinner. 12 Of the prodigall sonne.

THEN resorted vnto him all the Publicanes and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharises and Scribes murmured, saying, He receiueth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake hee this parable to them, saying,

Matth. 18.12. 4 *What man of you hauing an hundreth sheepe, if hee lose one of them, doth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wildernesse, and goe after that which is lost, vntill hee finde it?

5 And when hee hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when hee commeth home, he calleth together his friendes and neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with mee: for I haue found my sheepe, which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine [a] iust men, which needе none amendment of life.

a Which iustifie themselues, and know not their owne faul's.

8 Either what woman hauing tenne [b] pieces of siluer, if shee lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweepe the house, and seeke diligently till she finde it?

b The word is drachma which is somewhat more in value then fiue pence of olde sterling money, and was equall with a Romane penie.

9 And when shee hath found it, shee calleth her frendes, and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with mee: for I haue found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 ¶ He said moreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the yonger of them sayde to his father, Father, giue me the [c] portion of the goods that falleth to mee. So hee deuided vnto them his substance.

c This declareth that we ought not to desire to haue our portion separate from God, except we will lose all.

13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his iourney into a farre countrey, and there hee wasted his goods with [d] riotous liuing.

d The Greek word signifieth so to waste all, that a man reserueth nothing to himselfe.

14 Nowe when hee had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and he sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

16 And hee would faine haue filled his bellie with the huskes, that the swine ate: [e] but no man gaue them him.

e For no man had pitie vpon him.

17 Then hee came to himselfe, and sayd, Howe many hyred seruants of my fathers haue bread enough, and I die for hunger?

18 I will rise, and goe to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned [f] against heauen, and before thee, f That is, against God.

19 And am no more worthie to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hyred seruants.

20 So hee arose, and came to his father. [g] But when hee was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

g God preuenteth vs and heareth our groninges before we cry to him.

21 And the sonne sayde vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father said to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shooes on his feete, 23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eate and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but hee is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Nowe the [h] elder brother was in the fielde, and when hee came and drewe neere to the house, hee heard melodie, and dauncing, h He was touched with the feeling of his sinne, and therefore was ashamed thereof, and hearkened not.

26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And hee said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because hee hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then hee was angrie, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But hee answered and sayd to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commaundement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid, that I might make merie with my friends.

i God reproueth the enuie of such as grudge when God receiueth sinners to mercie 30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

31 And he said vnto him, [k] Sonne, thou art euer with mee, and all that I haue, is thine. It was meete that wee should make merie, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but he is found.

k Thy part which art a Iewe, is nothing diminished by that, that Christ was also killed for the Gentiles: for he accepteth not the person, but feedeth indifferently all them that beleeue in him, with his body and blood to life euerlasting.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth his to wisedome and liberality by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproueth the couetousnesse and hypocrisie of the Pharises. 16 Of the ende and force of the Law. 18 Of the holy state of marriage. 19 Of the rich man, and Lazarus.

AND hee sayde also vnto his disciples, [a] There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him, that he wasted his goods.

a Christ teacheth hereby, that likewise as he which is in authoritie and hath riches, if he get friends in his prosperitie, may be relieued in his aduersitie: so our liberalitie towards our neighbour shall stand vs in such stead at the day of iudgement, that God will accept it as done vnto him,

2 And he called him, and saide vnto him, Howe is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounte of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward

3 Then the steward sayde within himselfe, What shall I doe: for my master will take away from me the stewardship? I cannot dig, and to beg I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called he euery one of his master debters, and said vnto the first, Howe much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And hee sayde, An hundreth measures of oyle. And he said to him, Take thy writing, and sit downe quickely, and write fifty.

7 Then said hee to another, Howe much owest thou? And hee sayde, An hundreth measures measures of wheat. Then hee sayd to him, Take thy writing, and write foure score.

b God, who doth here represent the master of ỹ house, doth rather commend the prodigall waste of his goods, and the liberall giuing of the same to the poore, then the strait keeping & hoarding of them.

18 And the Lorde commended b the vniust steward, because hee had done wisely. Wherefore the children of this worlde are in their generation wiser then the children of light.

c That is, either wickedly gotten, or wickedly kept or wickedly spēt: and hereby we be warned to suspect riches, which for the most part are an occasion to their possessours of great wickednesse.

9 And I say vnto you, Make you friends c with the riches of iniquitie, that when ye shall want, they may receiue you into euerlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in the least, * he is also faithfull in much: and he that is vniust in the least, is vniust also in much.

11 If then yee haue not bene faithfull in d the wicked riches, who will trust you in the true treasure?

d Which are riches & such like things, which God hath giuen, not for your selues only, but to bestow vpon others.

12 And if yee haue not bene faithfull in e another mans goods, who shall giue you that which is f yours?

e Christ calleth the gifts which he giueth vnto vs, ours.

13 * No seruant can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or els hee shall leane to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

Matt.6.24.

14 All these things heard the Pharises also which were couetous, and they g mocked him.

g Because they iudged no man happy, but those that were rich.

15 Then he said vnto them, Ye are they, which h iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

h Which loue outward appearance, and vaine glorie.

16 * The Law and the Prophets endured vntill Iohn: and since that time the kingdome of God is preached, and euery man i preaseth into it.

Matth.11.12.

17 * Now it is more easie that heauen and earth should passe away, then that one title of the law should fall.

i Their zeale is so inflamed, that they follow the Gospel without respect of worldly things. Ma.5.8. Matt.5.32.&9.9.1.cor.7.12.

18 ¶ * Whosoeuer putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adulterie: and whosoeuer marrieth her that k is put away from her husband, committeth adulterie.

k That is, disclaimed, & iudged vnlawfully diuorced. l By this storie is declared, what punishment they shall haue, which liue deliciously and neglect the poore. m As the fathers in the olde law, were sayd to be gathered into the bosome of Abraham, because they receiued the fruit of the same faith which him: so in the new Testament we say that the members of Christ are ioyned to their head, or gathered vnto him. n Whereby is signified the most blessed life, which they that die in the faith that Abraham did, shall enioy after this world.

19 ¶ There was a l certeine rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine linnen, and fared well and delicately euery day.

20 Also there was a certeine begger named Lazarus, which was layd at his gate full of sores, 21 And desired to bee refreshed with the crummes that fell from the rich mans table: yea, and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger died, and was carried by the Angels into m Abrahams bosome. The rich man also died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in torments, he lift vp his eyes, and saw Abraham afarre off, and Lazarus in his bosome.

l Or, euill things.

24 Then he cryed, & sayd, Father Abraham, haue mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that hee may dippe the tip of his o finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

o Christ describeth spirituall things by such manner of speech, as is most proper to our vnderstanding: for our soules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither are they thirsty, or speake: but the Lord, as it were in a table painteth forth the state of the life to come, as our capacitie is able to comprehend it.

25 But Abraham sayd, p Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuedst thy ||pleasures, and likewise Lazarus ||paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betweene you and vs there is a great ||gulfe set, so that they which would go from hence to you, can not, neither can they come from thence to vs.

p In calling him sonne, he taunteth his vaine boasting, who in his life vanted himselfe to be ỹ sonne of Abraham: warning vs also herehy how lide glorious titles auaile.

27 Then hee sayd, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house, 28 (For I haue fiue brethren) that he may testifie vnto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham sayd vnto him, They haue q Moses and the r Prophets: let them s heare them.

30 And he sayd, Nay, father Abraham: but if one came vnto them from the dead, they will amend their liues.

31 Then he sayd vnto him, If they heare not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be perswaded, though one rise from the dead againe.

q Which declareth that it is too late to be instructed by the dead, if in their life time they cannot profit by the liuely word of God.

r As saith commeth by Gods word, so is it mainteined by the same. So that wee neither ought to looke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but onely the word of God is sufficient to life euerlasting.

CHAP. XVII.

2 Christ teacheth his disciples to auoyd occasions of offence, 3 one to forgiue another. 5 We ought to pray for the increase of faith. 6 He magnifieth the vertue of fruith, 10 and sheweth the vnabilitie of man, 11 healeth tenne lepers, 20 speaketh of the latter dayes, and of the end of the world.

THen sayde hee to the disciples, * It can not be auoyded, but that offences will come, but woe be to him by whom they come.

Matt.18.7. mar.9.42.

2 It were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his necke, and that hee were cast into the sea, then that hee should a offend one of these litle ones.

a That is, to turne him backe from the knowledge of God, & his saluation.

3 ¶ Take heed to your selues: if thy brother trespasse against thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgiue him.

Matth.18.21.

4 * And though hee sinne against thee b seuen times in a day, and seuen times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, It repenteth me, thou shalt forgiue him.

b That is, many times: for by a certeine number he meaneth an vncertein.

Matth.17.20.

5 ¶ And the Apostles said vnto the Lord, Increase our faith.

c That is, if they had neuer so little of pure and perfit faith.

6 And the Lorde sayd, * If ye had faith, as much as is c a graine of mustarde seede, and shoulde say vnto this Mulberie tree, d Plucke thy selfe vp by the rootes, and plant thy selfe in the sea, it should euen obey you.

d Meaning, they should do wonderfull and incredible things.

7 ¶ Who is it also of you, that hauing a seruant plowing or feeding cattell, would say vnto him by and by, when he were come from the fielde, Goe, and sit downe at table?

8 And woulde not rather say to him, *Dresse wherewith I may suppe, and gird thy selfe, and serue me, till I haue eaten and dronken, and afterward eate thou, & drinke thou?

9 Doth he thanke that seruant, because hee did that which was commaunded vnto him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye haue done all those thinges, which are commanded you, say, Wee are [f] vnprofitable seruaunts: wee haue done that which was our duety to doe.

11 ¶ And so it was when he went to Ierusalem, that he passed thorow the middes of Samaria and Galile.

12 And as hee entred into a certeine towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afarre off.

13 And they lift vp their voices and said, Iesus, Master, haue mercy on vs.

14 And when he saw them, hee sayd vnto them, *Goe, shewe your selues vnto the [g] Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 The one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned backe, and with a loud voice praised God, 16 And fell downe on his face at his feet, and gaue him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Iesus answered, & said, Are there not ten cleansed? but where are the [h] nine?

18 There are none found that returned to giue God praise, saue this stranger.

19 And he sayd vnto him, Arise, Goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when hee was demaunded of the Pharises, when the kingdome of God should come, he answered them, and sayde, The kingdome of God commeth not [i] with obseruation.

21 Neither shall men say, Loe here, or loe there: for beholde, the kingdome of God is [k] within you.

22 And he sayd vnto the disciples, The dayes will come, when yee shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 *Then they shall say to you, Beholde here, or beholde there: but goe not thither, neither follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part vnder heauen, shineth vnto the other part vnder heauen, so shall the Sonne of man be in his [m] day.

25 But first must hee suffer many things, and be reproued of this generation.

26 *And as it was in the [n] dayes of Noe, so shall it be in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

27 They ate, they dranke, they married wiues, and gaue in marriage vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 *Likewise also, as it was in the dayes of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they solde, they planted, they built.

29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

30 After these ensamples shall it be in the day when the Sonne of man shall bee reuelled.

31 At that day, he that is vpon the [o] house, and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out: and hee that is in the fielde likewise, let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

32 *Remember Lots wife.

33 *Whosoeuer will seeke to saue his soule, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose it, [p] shall get it life.

34 *I tell you, in that night there shalbe two in one [q] bed: the one shall be receiued, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together: the one shall be taken, and the other shalbe left.

36 Two shall be in the field: one shall be receiued, and another shalbe left.

37 And they answered, and sayd to him, Where, Lorde? And hee sayde vnto them, *[r] Wheresoeuer the body is, thither wil also the Eagles resort.

e Hereby is declared that it is not enough to do a piece of our duty for a time, but also we must continue to the end.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 By the example of the widowe, and the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray. 15 By the example of children, he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saued, and what things let. 19 The reward promised to him. 31 and of the crosse. 35 The blinde man receiueth sight.

AND * he spake also a parable vnto them, to this end, that they ought alwayes to pray, and not to [a] ware faint,

2 Saying, There was a Iudge in a certeine citie, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widowe in that citie, which came vnto him, saying, ‖Doe mee iustice against mine [b] aduersarie.

4 And hee would not for a time: but afterward he sayd with himselfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will doe her right, lest at the last she come and make me weary.

6 And the Lord sayd, Heare what the vnrighteous Iudge sayth.

7 Nowe shall not God auenge his elect, which cry day and night vnto him, yea, though [c] he suffer long for them?

8 I tell you he will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man commeth, shall he finde faith on the earth?

9 Hee spake also this parable vnto certeine which trusted in themselues that they were iust, and despised other,

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharise [d] stoode and prayed thus with himselfe, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

22 Now when Iesus heard that, he said vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, follow me.
23 But when he heard these things, hee was very heauie: for hee was maruellous rich.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should holde his peace, but hee cryed much more, O n Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.
40 And Iesus stood still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come neere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And hee sayd, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.
42 And Iesus sayde vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.
43 Then immediately hee receiued his sight, and followed him, o praysing God: and all the people when they sawe this, gaue praise to God.

CHAP. XIX.

2 Of Zaccheus. 12 The tenne pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth to Ierusalem, and weepeth for it. 45 Hee chaseth out the marchants, 47 and his enemies seeke to destroy him.

NOw when Iesus entred and passed throw Iericho,
2 Beholde, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was rich.
3 And hee sought to see Iesus, who hee should be, and couldc not for the preale, because he was of a lowe stature.
4 Wherefore he ran before, and clined vp into a wilde figge tree, that he might see him, for he should come that way.
5 And when Iesus came to the place, he looked vp, and saw him, and sayd vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.
6 Then he came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.
7 And when all they sawe it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a ‖ sinfull man.
8 And Zaccheus stood forth, and sayd vnto the Lord, Beholde, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by ‖ forged caullation, I restore him foure folde.
9 Then Iesus sayd to him, This day is saluation come vnto this a house, forasmuch as hee is also become the b sonne of Abraham.
10 * For the Sonne of man is come to seeke, and to saue that which was lost.

‖ Or, a man of a wicked life.
a Zaccheus adoption was a signe that the whole family was receiued to mercie. Notwithstanding this promise, God reserueth to himselfe free libertie, either to chuse or forsake, as in Abrahams house.
b To bee the sonne of Abraham is to bee chosen freely, Rom. 9.8. to walke in the steppes of the faith of Abraham, Rom. 4.12, to doe the works of Abraham, Ioh. 8.39. by the which things we are most assured of life euerlasting, Rom. 8.29. Matt. 18.11.

11 And whiles they heard these things, hee continued and spake a parable, because hee was neere to Ierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdome of God should shortly appeare.

12 He said therefore, * A certaine noble man went into c a farre countrey, to receiue for himselfe a kingdom, and so to come againe.

13 And hee called his ten seruants, and deliuered them ten d pieces of money, and said vnto them, e Occupie till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe, when hee was come f againe, and had receiued his kingdome, that he commaunded the seruants to be called to him, to whom hee gaue his money, that hee might know what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased ten pieces.

17 And he said vnto him, Well, good seruaunt: because thou hast bene faithfull in a very little thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased fiue pieces.

19 And to the same he said, Be thou also ruler ouer fiue cities.

20 So the other came and said, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue laid vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a straite man: thou takest vp, that thou laidest not downe, and reapest that thou diddest not sowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine owne mouth will I iudge thee, O euill seruant. Thou knewest that I am a straite man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest not thou my money into the banke, that at my comming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And hee said to them that stood by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they said vnto him, Lord, hee hath ten pieces.)

26 * For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it shalbe h giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shalbe taken from him.

27 Moreouer, those mine enemies, which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before mee.

28 ¶ And when hee had thus spoken, he went forth i before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, when hee was come neere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called the mount of Oliues, hee sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Goe ye to the towne which is before you, wherein, assoone as yee are come, ye shall finde a colt tyed, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, k bring him hither.

31 k And if any man aske you, why yee loose him, thus shall yee say vnto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and found it as he had sayd vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the coalt, the owners thereof sayd vnto them, Why loose ye the coalt?

34 And they sayd, The Lord hath need of him.

35 ¶ * So they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the coalt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spred their clothes in the way.

37 And when hee was nowe come neere to the going downe of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce, and to praise God with a loude voice, for all the great works that they had seene, 38 Saying, Blessed bee the King that commeth in the name of the Lorde: l peace in heauen, and glory in the hiest places.

39 Then some of the Pharises of the company sayd vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered and said vnto them, I tell you, that if these shoulde holde their peace, the stones would crie.

41 ¶ * And when he was come neere, he beheld the citie, and wept for it, 42 Saying, m O if thou haddest euen knowen at the least in this thy day n those things, which belong vnto thy peace! but now are they o hid from thine eyes.

43 For the dayes shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compasse thee round, and keepe thee in on euery side, 44 And shall make thee euen with the ground, and thy children which are in thee, and they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not the time of thy p visitation.

45 ¶ * Hee went also into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde therein, and them that bought, 46 Saying vnto them, It is written, * Mine house is the house of prayer, * but ye haue made it a denne of theeues.

47 And he taught || daily in the Temple. And the high Priests and the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people sought to destroy him.

48 But they coulde not finde what they might do to him: for all the people q hanged vpon him when they heard him.

10 And at a time he sent a seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruit of the vineyard, but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away emptie.

11 Againe hee sent yet another seruaunt: and they did beate him, and foule intreated him, and sent him away emptie.

13 Then sayd the Lorde of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may bee that they will dor reuerence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with themselues, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore doe vnto them?

16 Hee will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others. But when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

19 Then the hie Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay handes on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceiued that hee had spoken this parable against them.

h They waited for a conuenient time and place.

20 * And they h watched him, and sent foorth spies, which should faine themselues iust men, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest, & teachest right, neither doest thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truely.

26 And they coulde not reproue his saying before the people: but they marueiled at his answere, and held their peace.

27 * Then came to him certeine of the Sadduces, (which denie that there is any resurrection) and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he died childlesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman died also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she be? for seuen had her to wife.

l In this place he calleth all them children of this world which remaine in y same: or els matrimony should not seeme to appertaine to the children of God, as that wicked mõster Pope Cyricius taught, against the manifest Scriptures.

34 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, The l children of this worlde marrie wiues, and are married.

m Since mariage is ordeined to maintaine and increase mankinde: when we shall be immortall, it shall not be in any vse.

35 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry wiues, neither are married.

n For although the wicked rise againe, yet that life is but death and an eternall destruction. *Exod.*3.6.

36 m For they can die no more, for as much as they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, n since they are the children of the resurrection.

o Of them which are not, but of the which are.

37 And that the dead shall rise againe, euen * Moses shewed it besides the bush, when he said, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob.

39 Then certeine of the Pharises answered, & said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, durst they not aske him any thing at all.

41 ¶ * Then said he vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

42 And Dauid himselfe saith in the booke of the Psalmes, * The Lorde sayd vnto my Lord, sit at my right hand, 43 Till I shall make thine enemies thy footestoole.

AND * as he beheld, he ſaw the rich men, which caſt their gifts into the treaſurie.

2 And hee ſawe alſo a certeine poore widow, which caſt in thither two mites,

3 And hee ſayde, Of a trueth I ſay vnto you, that this poore widow hath caſt in more then they all.

a God eſteemeth not the gift or almes by the quantitie or value, but by the heart and affection. Chap. 19 43,44. matth. 24.1. marke 13.1.

4 * For they all haue of their ſuperfluitie caſt into the offerings of God: but ſhee of her penurie hath caſt in all the liuing that ſhe had.

5 * Now as ſome ſpake of the Temple, how it was garniſhed with goodly ſtones, and with ‖ conſecrate things, he ſaid,

6 Are theſe the things that yee looke vpon? the dayes will come, wherein a ſtone ſhall not be left vpon a ſtone, that ſhall not be throwen downe.

7 Then they aſked him, ſaying, Maſter, but when ſhall theſe thinges bee? and what ſigne ſhall there be when theſe thinges ſhall come to paſſe?

Epheſ. 5.6. 2. theſſ. 2.3.

8 * And he ſayd, b Take heed that ye be not deceiued: for many will come in my Name, ſaying, I am Chriſt, and the time draweth neere: follow yee not them therefore.

b Chriſt then maketh anſwere of that which was more neceſſary for them, and not to the queſtion they demanded. Matth. 24.7. marke 13.8.

9 And when yee heare of warres and ſeditions, be not afrayed: for theſe thinges muſt firſt come, but the ende followeth not by and by.

10 Then ſaid he vnto them, Nation ſhal riſe againſt nation, and kingdome againſt kingdome, 11 * And great earthquakes ſhall bee in diuers places, and hunger, and peſtilence, and fearefull things, and great ſignes ſhall there be from heauen.

c This their ſufferance ſhal both be a greater confirmation to the Goſpel, & alſo by their conſtancie the tyrannie of their enemies ſhall at length be manifeſt before God and man. Chap. 12.12. matth. 10.19. marke 13.11.

12 But before all theſe, they ſhal lay their handes on you, and perſecute you, deliuering you vp to the Synagogues, and into priſons, and bring you before Kings and rulers for my Names ſake.

13 And this ſhall turne to you, for a c teſtimonall.

14 * Lay it vp therefore in your heartes, that yee premeditate not what yee ſhall anſwere.

15 For I will giue you a mouth, and wiſedome, where againſt all your aduerſaries ſhall not be able to ſpeake, nor d reſiſt.

d For though they were ſo impudent to reſiſt, yet trueth euer gaineth the victorie. Matth. 10 30.

16 Yea, yee ſhall be betrayed alſo of your parents, and of your brethren, and kinſmen, and friends, and ſome of you ſhall they put to death.

e That is, liue ioyfully & bleſſedly euen vnder the croſſe. Mat. 24.15. mar. 13. 14. dan. 9.27.

17 And ye ſhalbe hated of all men for my Names ſake.

18 * Yet there ſhall not one haire of your heads periſh.

19 By your patience * poſſeſſe your ſoules.

20 ¶ * And when ye ſee Ieruſalem beſieged with ſouldiers, then vnderſtand that the deſolation thereof is neere.

21 Then let them which are in Iudea, flee to the mountaines: and let them which are in the middes thereof, depart out: and let not them that are in the countrey, enter therein.

22 For theſe be the dayes of vengeance, to fulfill all things that are written.

23 But woe be to them that be with child, and to them that giue ſucke in thoſe dayes: for there ſhall be great diſtreſſe in this land, and f wrath ouer this people.

f Gods wrath againſt this people ſhall appeare by the calamities & plagues wherewith he will puniſh them.

24 And they ſhall fall on the edge of the ſword, and ſhall be ledde captiue into all nations, and g Ieruſalem ſhall be troden vnder foot of the Gentiles, vntill the ſ time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

g He meaneth their iniquities to receiue likewiſe their puniſhment afterward. Iſa. 13.10. ezek. 32.7. mat. 24.29. marke 13.24.

25 * Then there ſhall bee ſignes in the Sunne & in the Moone, and in the Starres, and vpon the earth trouble among the nations, with perplexitie: the ſea and the waters ſhall roare.

26 And mens hearts ſhall faile them for feare, and for looking after thoſe thinges which ſhall come on the world: for the powers of heauen ſhall be ſhaken, 27 And then ſhall they ſee the Sonne of man come in a cloud, with power and great glory.

28 And when theſe things begin to come to paſſe, then looke vp, & lift vp your heads: * for your h redemption draweth neere.

Rom 8.23.

h The effect of that redemption which Ieſus Chriſt hath purchaſed, ſhall then fully appeare.

29 And hee ſpake to them a parable, Behold the figge tree, and all trees, 30 When they now ſhoot forth, ye ſeeing them, know of your owne ſelues, that Summer is then nere.

31 So likewiſe yee when yee ſee theſe things come to paſſe, know ye that the kingdome of God is nere.

32 Verely I ſay vnto you, This age ſhall not i paſſe, till all theſe things be done.

i For all theſe thinges came within fiftie yeres after.

33 Heauen and earth ſhall paſſe away, but my words ſhall not paſſe away.

34 Take heede to your ſelues, leaſt at any time your heartes be oppreſſed with ſurfetting and drunkenneſſe, and cares of this life, and leaſt that day come on you at vnwares.

35 For as a k ſnare ſhall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

k To catch and intangle them, where ſoeuer they be in the world.

36 Watch therefore, and pray continually, ‖ that yee may be counted worthie to eſcape all theſe thinges that ſhall come to paſſe, & that ye may ſtand before the Sonne of man.

‖ Or, that ye may be made worthy.

37 ¶ Now in the day time hee taught in the Temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olines.

38 And all the people came in the morning to him, to heare him in the Temple.

Priestes house. 60 Peter denieth him thrise, and yet repenteth. 67 Christ is brought before the Councill, where he maketh ample confession.

NOwe * the a feast of vnleauened bread drew neere, which is called the Passeouer.

2 And the hie Priestes & Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the hie Priestes and b captaines, how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were c glad, and agreed to giue him money.

6 And he consented, and sought opportunitie to betray him vnto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶ * Then came the day of vnleauened bread when the Passeouer d must bee sacrificed.

8 And hee sent Peter and Iohn, saying, Goe, and prepare vs the Passeouer, that we may eate it.

9 And they said to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?

10 Then hee said vnto them, Behold, when ye bee entred into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house that hee entreth in,

11 And say vnto the good man of the house, The master saith vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eate the Passeouer with my disciples?

12 Then hee shall shew you a great high chamber trimmed: there make it ready.

13 So they went, and found as he had said vnto them, and made ready the Passeouer.

14 * And when the e houre was come, he sate downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.

15 Then he said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eate this Passeouer with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, f Hencefoorth I will not eate of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And hee tooke the cuppe, and gaue thankes, and said, Take this, and deuide it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruit of the vine, vntill the kingdom of God be come.

19 * And he tooke bread, and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, g This is my body, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after Supper he tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the new h Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 * Yet behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truely the Sonne of man goeth as it is i appointed: but woe bee to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselues which of them it should be, that should do that.

24 ¶ * And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But hee said vnto them, The Kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer them, are called k Gracious lords.

26 But ye shal not be so: but let the greatest among you bee as the ‖least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or hee that serueth? is not hee that sitteth at table? And I am among you as he that serueth.

28 And yee are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I ‖ appoint vnto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed to me, 30 * That ye may l eat, and drinke at my table in my kingdom, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, * Satan hath desired you, m to winnow you, as wheate.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith n faile not: therefore when thou art conuerted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 * And he said vnto him, Lord, I am readie to goe with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crow this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knewest me.

35 ¶ And he said vnto them, * When I sent you without bag, and scrip, and shooes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then hee said to them, But now hee that hath a bag, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and hee that hath none, let him sell his coate, and o buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written, must bee performed in me, * Euen with the wicked was hee numbred: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me, haue an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are p two swordes. And he said vnto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ * And he came out, and went (as he was wont) to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

40 * And when hee came to the place, he said to them, Pray, least yee enter into tentation.

41 And he gate himselfe from them about a stones cast, & kneeled downe, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this q cup from me: neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angell vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an r agonie, he prayed more earnestly: & his sweat was like drops of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

48 And Iesus said vnto him, Iudas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 Now when they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said vnto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 And one of them smote a seruant of the hie Priest, and strooke off his right eare.

52 Then Iesus answered and said, Suffer them thus farre: and hee touched his eare, and healed him.

51 Then Iesus said vnto the hie Priests, and captaines of the Temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Bee ye come out as vnto a theefe with swordes & staues?

53 When I was daily with you in the Temple, yee stretched not forth the hands against me: but this is your very houre, and the † power of darkenesse.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, Wee haue found this man peruerting the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a King.

3 * And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And hee answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

Matth.27.11. marke 15.2. iohn 18.33.

4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priestes, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, Hee mooueth the people, teaching throughout all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean,

‖ To ridde his handes, and to gratifie Herod.

7 And when hee knew that hee was of Herodes iurisdiction, hee ‖ sent him to Herod, which was also at Ierusalem ‖ in those dayes.

‖ Or, at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Iesus, hee was exceedingly glad: for he was ‖ desirous to see him of a long season, because hee had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue seene some ‖ signe done by him.

‖ Of a certeine curiositie. ‖ Or, miracle.

9 Then questioned he with him of many things: but he answered him ‖ nothing.

‖ For Christ came not to defend himselfe, neither yet would please the vaine curiositie of this tyrant.

10 The hie Priests also & Scribes stood foorth, and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herode with his ‖ men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arayed him in ‖ white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

‖ Or, band, or, traine. ‖ Commonly this was a robe of honour or excellencie: but it was giuen to Christ in mockage. ‖ Or, in bright colour.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people.

14 * And said vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerted the people: and behold, I haue examined him before you, and * haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:

‖ Or, by him.

15 No, nor yet Herode: for I sent you to him: and loe, nothing worthie of death is done ‖ to him.

‖ For the Romans had giuen such franchise & libertie to the Iewes, which was but a tradition, and not according to the word of God.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

17 (For of † necessitie hee must haue let one loose vnto them at the feast.)

18 Then all the multitude cryed at once, saying, Away with him, and deliuer to vs Barabbas:

19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and murther, was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euill hath hee done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastile him, and let him loose.

g The Iudge giueth sentence with Christ, before he condemneth him, whereby plainly appeareth Iesus innocencie.

23 But they were instant with loude voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, and of the hie Priestes preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence, that it should be as they required.

25 And hee let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murther was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to doe with him what they would.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called ‖ Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then sayd Iesus, Father, forgiue them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if he be the Christ, the i Chosen of God.

41 Wee are in deed rightfully here: for we receiue things woorthy of that wee haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And hee sayd vnto Iesus, Lord, remember mee, when thou comnest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Iesus sayde vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

10 Nowe it was Mary Magdalen, and Ioanna, and Mary the mother of Iames, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleeued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ranne vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linen clothes layde by themselues, and departed wondering in himselfe, at that which was come to passe.

Mark.16.12.

13 ¶ * And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about c threescore furlongs, called Emmaus.

14 And they d talked together of al these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drew neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes e were holden, that they could not know him.

17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that yee haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And ỹ one (named Cleopas) answered, and saide vnto him, Art thou onely a f stranger in Ierusalem, and hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?

19 And hee sayde vnto them, What things? And they sayd vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet mightie in deede and in worde before God, and all the people, 20 And howe the high Priestes and our rulers deliuered him to bee condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But wee g trusted that it had bene hee that shoulde haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

22 Yea, and certeine women among vs made vs astonied, which came earely vnto the sepulchre, 23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which sayd that hee was aliue.

24 Therefore certeine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had sayd, but him they saw not.

25 Then he sayd vnto them, h O fooles, and slowe of heart to beleeue all that the Prophets haue spoken, 26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beeg an at Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in al the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew nere vnto the towne, which they went to, but he k made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constreined him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe, as hee sate at table with them, hee tooke the bread, l & gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, & they knew him: but hee was taken out of their sight.

32 And they saide betweene themselues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which said, The Lord is risen in deed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and how hee was knowen of them in m breaking of bread.

36 ¶ * And as they spake these things, Iesus himselfe stood in the mids of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

Marke 16.14. iohn 20, 19.

37 But they were abashed and afraid, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold mine handes and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle me, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as yee see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his handes and feete.

41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broyled fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must bee fulfilled which are written of mee in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the scriptures.

46 And said vnto them, Thus it is written, & thus it behooued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day, 47 And that repentance, & remission of sinnes should bee preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I will send the * promise of my Father vpon you: but tary yee in the citie of Ierusalem, n vntill yee be endewed with power from an high.

50 Afterward he led them out into Bethania, c Which is about seuen miles and a halfe.

d Hereby appeareth that they had faith, although it was weake.

e This declareth that we can neither see, nor vnderstand till God open our eyes.

f For the thing was so notorious, that all men might haue knowen it.

g They vnderstood not yet what was the deliuerance that Iesus Christ purchased for vs, but looked for some worldly prosperitie.

h Infidelitie is reprooued.

i Christ onely is the interpreter of ỹ Scriptures: for both the beginning and end thereof direct vs to him, because he is the Sauiour that is promised.

k Because Christ did both shutte their eyes and open them, he woulde keepe them in suspense till his time came to manifest himselfe vnto them.

¶ The holy Gospel of Iesus Christ, according to Iohn.

CHAP. I.

1. 14. 17 The diuinitie, humanitie, and office of Iesus Christ. 15 The testimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

IN ‖ the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with a God, and that Word was God.
2 The same was b in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made by it, and c without it was made nothing that was made.
4 In it was d life, and the life was the e light of men.
5 And the light shineth in f the darkenesse, and the darkenesse comprehended it not.
6 ¶ * There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn.
7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.
8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light.
9 That was the true light, which lighteth euery man that ‖ commeth into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world was * made by him: and the world g knew him not.
11 Hee came vnto h his owne, and his owne receiued him not.
12 But as many as receiued him, to them hee gaue i power to bee the sonnes of God, euen to them that beleeue in his Name, 13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 * And the Word was made k flesh, & dwelt among vs, (& we * saw the glory thereof, as the glory of the onely begotten Sonne ‖ of the Father) * full of grace and trueth.
15 ¶ Iohn bare witnesse of him, & cryed, saying, This was he of whom I said, Hee that commeth after mee, is preferred before me: for he was ‖ before me.
16 And of his fulnesse haue all we receiued, and l grace for grace.
17 For the Law was giuen by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Iesus Christ.
18 * No man hath seene God at any time: the only begotten sonne, which is in the m bosome of the Father, he hath n declared him.
19 ¶ Then this is ‖ record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priests and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?
20 And he confessed and denied not, and said plainely, I * am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And hee said, I am not. Art thou the o Prophet? And he answered, No.
22 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou, that wee may giue an answere to them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?
23 He said, I * am ‖ voice of him that crieth in the wildernesse, Make streight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Esaias.
24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharisies.
25 And they asked him, & said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?
26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.
27 * Hee it is that commeth after mee, which is preferred before mee, whose shoo latchet I am not worthy to vnloose.
28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.
29 ¶ The next day Iohn seeth Iesus comming vnto him, and saith, Behold the Lambe of God, which taketh away the p sinne of the world.
30 This is he of whom I said, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knew q him not: but because he should bee declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.
32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I saw * the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him, 33 And I knew him not: but hee that sent me to baptize with water, he said vnto me, Vpon whom thou shalt see the Spirit come downe, and tary still on him, that is he which baptizeth with the r holy Ghost.
34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Sonne of God.
35 ¶ The next day, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples:
36 And he beheld Iesus walking by, and said, Behold, the s Lambe of God.
37 And the two disciples heard him speake, and followed Iesus.
38 Then Iesus turned about, and saw them follow, and said vnto them, What seeke ye? and they said vnto him, Rabbi, (which is to say by interpretation, Master) t where dwellest thou?
39 Hee said vnto them, Come, and see. They came and saw where hee dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the u tenth houre.
40 Andrew, Simon Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard it of Iohn, and that followed him.

41 The same found his brother Simon first, and said vnto him, Wee haue found the Messias, which is by interpretation, ‖the Christ.

42 And hee brought him to Iesus. And Iesus beheld him, and said, Thou art Simon the sonne of Iona: thou shalt bee called Cephas, which is by interpretation, ‖a stone.

43 ¶ The day following, Iesus would goe into Galile, and found Philip, and said vnto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the citie of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip found Nathanael, and said vnto him, Wee haue found him, of whom * Moses did write in the Law, and the * Prophets, Iesus of Nazaret the sonne of Ioseph.

46 Then Nathanael said vnto him, Can there any y good thing come out of Nazaret? Philip said to him, Come and see.

47 Iesus saw Nathanael comming to him, and said of him, Behold in deed an Israelite, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael said vnto him, Whence knewest thou mee? Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast vnder the figge tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and said vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God: thou art the King of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Because I said vnto thee, I saw thee vnder the fig tree, ‖believest thou? thou shalt see greater things then these.

51 And he said vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto you, hereafter shall ye see heauen z open, and the Angels of God * ascending and descending vpon the Sonne of man.

CHAP. II.

2 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 Hee driueth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuerteth many, and distrusteth man.

AND the third day, was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus said vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother said vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there, fiue water pots of stone, after the manner of the a purifying of the Iewes, conteining two or three ‖b firkins a piece.

7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brimme.

8 Then hee said vnto them, Draw out now and beare vnto the ‖gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knew not whence it was: but the seruants, which drew the water, knew) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegroome,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and when men haue well dronke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill now.

11 This beginning of ‖ miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed forth his glory: and his disciples beleeued on him.

12 After that hee went downe into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his ‖brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not many dayes there.

13 For y Iewes Passeouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 * And he found in the Temple those that sold oxen, and sheepe, and doues, and changers of money, sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of small cords, and draue them all out of the Temple with the sheepe & oxen, and powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the tables, 16 And said vnto them that sold doues, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, * The c zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, What ‖ signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and said vnto them, * Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fourtie and fiue yeeres was this Temple in building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But he spake of the Temple of his d body.

22 Assoone therefore as hee was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that he thus said vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had said.

23 Now when hee was at Ierusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleeued in his Name, when they saw his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus e did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knew them all,

25 And had no need that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, Howe can a man bee borne which is olde? can hee enter into his mothers wombe againe, and bee borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man bee borne of c water and of the Spirit, hee cannot enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: and that that is borne of the spirit, is spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and saide vnto him, Howe can these things bee?

10 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and e knowest not these things?

11 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, wee speake that we f knowe, and testifie that we haue seene, but ye receiue not our witnesse.

12 If when I tell you b earthly things, ye beleeue not, howe should ye beleeue, if I shall tell you of heauenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in i heauen.

14 * And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernesse, so must the Sonne of man be k lift vp, 15 That whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.

16 * For God so loued the world, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 * For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that hee shoulde l condemne the world, but that the m worlde through him might be saued.

18 He that beleeueth in him, shall not be condemned: but hee that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeueth not in the Name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 * And this is the n condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loued darkenesse rather then light, because their deedes were euill.

20 For euery man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither commeth to light, lest his deedes should be reproued.

21 But he that doeth o trueth, commeth to the light, that his deedes might be made manifest, that they are wrought ‖ according to God.

22 ¶ After these things came Iesus and his disciples into the ‖ lande of Iudea, and there taried with them, and * baptized.

23 And Iohn also baptized in Enon, beside Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question betweene Iohns disciples and the Iewes, about q purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and sayde vnto him, Rabbi, r hee that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom * thou barest witnesse, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Iohn answered, and sayd, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that * I sayde I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friend of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegromes voyce. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

27 ¶ And vpon that came his disciples, & marueiled that he talked with a woman: yet no man sayde vnto him, What askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the citie, and sayd to the men, 29 Come, see a man which hath tolde me all things that euer I did: is not hee the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, and came vnto him.

31 ¶ In the meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eate.

o The Samaritans shewed themselues willing to receiue his doctrine, who being but strangers, and scarcely knowing Christ, are a condemnation to the Iewes, and all others, which neglect Gods word when it is offered.

Leuit.23.3. deut.16.1.

AFter * that, there was a feast of the Iewes, & Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalem by ‖ the place of the sheepe, a [a] poole called in Ebrewe [b] Bethesda hauing fiue porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halt, and withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoeuer then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knew that hee nowe long time had bene diseased, hee sayde vnto him, Wilt thou bee made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Syr, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but while I am comming, another stepped downe before mee.

8 Iesus sayd vnto him, Rise: [c] take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day * it is not lawfull for thee to cary thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he sayd vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which sayd vnto thee, take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And hee that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and sayd vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: [d] sinne no more, least a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 ¶ The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because hee had broken the Sabbath, but sayd also that God was [e] his [f] Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and sayd vnto them, Uerely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can doe nothing of himselfe, saue that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoeuer things he doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and [g] sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he himselfe doeth, and hee will shewe him greater workes then these, that yee should marualle.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all [h] iudgement vnto the Sonne, 23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father, which hath sent him.

24 Uerely, verily I say vnto you, hee that heareth my word, and beleeueth in him that sent me, hath euerlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Uerely, verely I say vnto you, the houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that [i] heare it, shall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in [k] himselfe, so likewise hath hee giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute [l] iudgements, in that he is the sonne of man.

28 Marualle not at this: for the houre shall come in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, * that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

31 If I * should beare witnes of my selfe, my witnesse were not [m] true.

32 There is another that beareth witnesse of mee, and I knowe that the witnesse, which he beareth of me, is true.

33 * Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witnesse vnto the trueth.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheless, these things I say, that yee might be saued.

10 Iesus feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues and two fishes. 15 He departeth away, that they should not make him king. 26 He reproueth the fleshly hearers of the word. 41 The carnal are offended at him. 63 The flesh profiteth not.

AFter these things, Iesus went his way ouer the a sea of Galile, or of b Tiberias.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they sawe his miracles, which hee did on them that were diseased.
3 Then Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and there he sate with his disciples.
4 Nowe the Passeouer, a * feast of the Iewes, was neere.
5 * Then Iesus lift vp his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he said vnto Philip, Whence shall wee buy bread, that these might eate?
6 (And this he said to prooue him: for he himselfe knew what he would doe)
7 Philip answered him, c Two hundred penniworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them may take a little.
8 Then said vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, 9 There is a litle boy here, which hath fiue barley loaues, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?
10 And Iesus saide, Make the people sit downe. (Now there was much grasse in that place.) Then the men sate downe in number, about fiue thousand.
11 And Iesus tooke the bread, and d gaue thankes, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.
12 And when they were satisfied, he sayd vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that e nothing be lost.
13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fiue barley loaues, which remained vnto them that had eaten.
14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, sayd, This is of a trueth, the Prophet that should come into the world.
15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come, and take him to make him a f King, hee departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.
16 ¶ When euen was nowe come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea, 17 * And entred into a shippe, and went g ouer the sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.
18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blew.
19 And when they had rowed about fiue and twentie, or thirtie h furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nere vnto the ship: so they were afrayd.
20 But he sayd vnto them, It is I: be not afrayd.
21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship: and the shippe was by and by at the land, whither they went.
22 ¶ The day following, i people which stood on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other shippe there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone i alone,
23 And that there came other ships from Tibertas nere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.
24 Now when the people saw that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.
25 And when they had found him on the k other side of the sea, they sayd vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?
26 Iesus answered them, and sayd, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seeke me not, because ye saw the miracles, but because yee ate of the loaues, and were filled.
27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for the meate that l endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath * God the Father m sealed.
28 Then sayd they vnto him, What shall we doe, that wee might worke the n workes of God?

AND Iesus went vnto the mount of Oliues,

2 And early in ᵖ the morning came againe into the Temple, ᵍ all the people came vnto him, and he sate downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharises brought vnto him a woman taken in adulterie, and set her in the middes,

4 And saide vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adulterie, in the very act.

5 *Now Moses in the Law commanded vs, that such should be stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they said to tempt him, that they might haue whereof to ᵃ accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, he lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, *Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe hee stouped downe, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

10 When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, and sawe no man, but the woman, he saide vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus saide, ᵇ Neither doe I condemne thee: goe and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I * am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the ‖ light of life.

13 The Pharises therfore said vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not ‖ true.

14 *Iesus answered and said, vnto them, ᶜ Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, & whither I go: but ye cannot tell ᵈ whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: ᵉ I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, *that the testimonie of two men is true.

18 I am ᶠ one that beare witnesse of my selfe, and the Father that sent me, beareth witnesse of me.

19 Then saide they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye neither knowe me, nor my Father. If ye had knowen me, ye should haue knowen my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in ᵖ the treasurie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then saide Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your ʰ sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then saide the Iewes, Will he kill himselfe, because he saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, ⁱ Ye are from beneath: I am from aboue: ye are of this world: I am not of this world.

24 I saide therefore vnto you, That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except yee beleeue, that I am he, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then saide they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus saide vnto them, ‖ Euen the same thing that I saide vnto you ᵏ from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They vnderstood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then saide Iesus vnto them, When ye haue ˡ lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye ᵐ knowe that I am he, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 ¶ As he spake these things, many beleeued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which beleeued in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are verely my disciples, 32 And shall knowe the trueth, and the trueth ᵒ shall make you free.

33 They answered him, ᵖ We be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bond to any man: why sayest thou then, Ye shalbe made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoeuer committeth sinne, is the * seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruaunt abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deede.

CHAP. IX.

1 Of him that was borne blind. 11 The confession of him that was borne blind. 39 To what blind men Christ giueth sight.

AND as Iesus passed by, he sawe a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parents, that he was borne blind?

3 Iesus answered, a Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the workes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is b day: the night commeth, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 Assoone as he had thus spoken, he c spat on the ground, and made clay of the spettle, and anopnted the eyes of the blinde with the clay,

7 And saide vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, d Sent.) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe, seeing,

8 Howe the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blinde, said, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: and others said He is like him: but he himselfe saide, I am he.

10 Therefore they saide vnto him, Howe were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and saide, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anopnted mine eyes, and saide vnto me, Goe to the poole of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they saide vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharises him that was once blind.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, howe hee had receiued sight. And he saide vnto them, He laide clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others saide, Howe can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissension among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he saide, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that hee had beene blind, and receiued his sight) vntill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blind? How doeth he nowe see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he nowe seeth, wee knowe not: or who hath opened his eyes, e can wee not tell: hee is olde ynough: aske him: he shall answere for himselfe.

25 Then he answered and said, Whether hee bee a sinner or no g I can not tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 h Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

28 Then checked they him, and said, Be thou his disciple: We be Moses disciples.

30 The man answered, and saide vnto them, Doubtles this is a marueilous thing, that ye k know not whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

AND a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the town of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that * Marie which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, beholde, he whom thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he saide, This sickenesse is not [a] vnto death, but for the glorie of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 ¶ Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus,

6 And after hee had heard that hee was sicke, yet abode he two daies still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, saide he to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples saide vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to * stone thee, and doest thou goe thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not [b] twelue houres in the day? if a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because hee seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, & after he saide vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I goe to wake him vp.

12 Then saide his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, he [c] shall be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleeue: but let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then saide Thomas (which is called [d] Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

17 ¶ Then came Iesus and founde that hee had lyen in the graue foure dayes alreadie.

18 (Now Bethania was neere vnto Jerusalem, about [e] fifteene furlongs off.)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha when she heard that Iesus was comming, went to meete him: but Marie sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now [f] I knowe also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shal rise againe.

24 Martha saide vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, [g] I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, yet shal he liue.

26 And whosoeuer liueth, and beleeueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleeuest thou this?

27 She saide vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleeue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 ¶ And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when shee heard it, shee arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

32 Then when Mary was come where Ieſus was, and ſawe him, ſhee fell downe at his feete, ſaying vnto him, Lorde, if thou haddeſt bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

i For compaſſion: for he felt our miſeries as though he ſuffered the like.

33 When Ieſus therefore ſaw her weepe, and the Iewes alſo weepe which came with her, he i groned in the ſpirite, and was troubled in himſelfe, 34 And ſaid, Where haue yee laied him? They ſaid vnto him, Lord, come and ſee.

k We reade not that his affections were ſo exceſſiue that he kept no meaſure, as we doe in our ſorowes, ioyes, and other affections.

35 And Ieſus k wept.

36 Then ſaid the Iewes, Behold, how he loued him.

37 And ſome of them ſayd, Could not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made alſo that this man ſhould not haue died?

38 Ieſus therefore againe groned in himſelfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a ſtone was laied vpon it.

39 Ieſus ſayd, Take ye away the ſtone. Martha the ſiſter of him that was dead, ſayd vnto him, Lord, he ſtinketh already: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Ieſus ſaid vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou didſt beleeue, thou ſhouldeſt ſee the l glorie of God?

l That is, a miracle whereby Gods Name ſhould be glorified.

41 Then they tooke away the ſtone from the place where the dead was layd. And Ieſus lift vp his eyes, and ſayde, Father, I thanke thee, becauſe thou haſt heard me.

42 I know that thou heareſt me alwaies, but becauſe of the people that ſtand by, I ſaid it, that they may beleeue, that thou haſt ſent me.

43 As hee had ſpoken theſe things, hee cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bounde hande and foote with bandes, and his face was bounde with a napkin. Ieſus ſayd vnto them, Looſe him, and let him goe.

45 ¶ Then many of the Iewes which came to Marie, and had ſeene the things which Ieſus did, beleeued in him.

46 But ſome of the them went their way to the Phariſes, and told them what things Ieſus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Prieſtes and the Phariſes a councill, and ſayde, What ſhall we do? For this man doeth many miracles.

m They reſiſt God, thinking to hinder his worke by their owne policies.

48 If m wee let him thus alone, all men will beleeue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

n Or, for that preſent time.

o God made him to ſpeake, neither could his impietie let Gods purpoſe, who cauſed this wicked man euen as hee did Balaam, to be an inſtrument of the holy Ghoſt.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the high Prieſt n that ſame yeere, ſayd vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

50 Nor yet doe you conſider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation periſh not.

51 This ſpake he not of himſelfe: but being hie Prieſt that ſame yeere, he o prophecied that Ieſus ſhould die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that hee ſhould gather together in one the children of God which were ſcattered.

53 Then from that day forth they conſulted together to put him to death.

54 Ieſus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey neere to the wildernes, into a citie called Ephraim, & there continued with his diſciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Paſſeouer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Ieruſalem before the Paſſeouer, to p purifie themſelues.

p Becauſe they thought hereby to make themſelues more holy againſt they ſhould eate the Paſſeouer: but they were not commanded by God to vſe this ceremonie, 56 Then ſought they for Ieſus, & ſpake among themſelues, as they ſtoode in the Temple, What thinke yee, that he commeth not to the feaſte?

57 Nowe both the high Prieſts and the Phariſes had giuen a commandement, that if any man knew where he were, hee ſhould ſhew it, that they might take him.

things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

cause they heard that hee had done this mi-among them that came vp to worship at the feast.

of Bethsaida in Galile, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Iesus.
22 Philip came and tolde Andrewe: and againe Andrew and Philip tolde Iesus.
23 And Iesus answered them, saying,
The houre is come, that the Sonne of man must be f glorified.
24 Verily, verily I say vnto you, except it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth 27 Nowe is my soule troubled: and what shall I say? Father, saue mee from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I both haue glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.
29 Then saide the people that stoode by and hearde, that it was a thunder: others said, An Angel spake to him.
30 Iesus answered, and saide, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.
31 Now is the i judgement of this worlde:
nowe shall the prince of this worlde bee cast out.
32 * And k I, if I were lift vp from the earth, will draw l all men vnto me.
33 Nowe this saide he, signifying what death he should die.
34 The people answered him, Wee haue heard out of the * Lawe, that the Christ bi-deth for euer: and how sayest thou, that the Sonne of man must bee lift vp? who is that Sonne of man?

35 Then Iesus said vnto them, Yet a li-ye haue light, lest the darkenesse come vp-on you: for he that walketh in the darke, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While yee haue light, beleeue in the and hid himselfe from them.

phet might be fulfilled, that he said, * Lorde, cause that Esaias saith againe, 40 * He hath blinded their eyes, & hard-ned their heart, that they shoulde not see with their eyes, nor vnderstande with their heart, and should be conuerted, and I should 41 These things saide Esaias when hee saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 Neuertheless euen among the chiefe rulers many beleeued in him: but because of the Pharisees, they did not confesse him, lest they should be ‖ cast out of the Synagogue.
43 * For they loued the o praise of men, more then the prayse of God.
44 And Iesus cried, and saide, Hee that beleeueth in mee, beleeueth not in me, but in him that sent me.
45 And hee that seeth mee, seeth him that sent me.
46 I am come a light into the world, that

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father wil send in my Name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoeuer I haue told you.

27 [r] Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as the world giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

28 Ye haue heard howe I said vnto you, I goe away, and will come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye would verely reioyce, because I said, I goe vnto the Father: for my Father is [s] greater then I.

29 And nowe haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue.

30 Hereafter will I not speake many things vnto you: for the [t] prince of this world commeth, and hath [u] nought in me.

31 But it is that the world may knowe that I loue my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let vs goe hence.

CHAP XV.

6 The sweete consolation and mutuall loue betweene Christ and his members vnder the parable of the vine. 18 Of their common afflictions and persecutions. 26 The office of the holy Ghost, and the Apostles.

I Am the true vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 *Euery branch that beareth not fruite in me, he taketh away: and euery one that beareth fruite, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruite.

3 * Nowe are yee cleane through the word, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in me, and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruite of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye [a] except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruite: for without me can ye doe nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, hee is cast forth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in me, and my [b] words abide in you, aske [c] what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruite, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued me, so haue I loued you: continue in [d] my loue.

10 If ye shall keepe my commaundements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers commaundements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be [e] full.

12 * This is my commaundement, that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye doe whatsoeuer I commaund you.

15 Henceforth, call I you not seruants: for the seruant knoweth not what his master doeth: but I haue called you friendes: for [f] all things that I haue heard of my Father, haue I made knowen to you.

16 Ye haue not chosen me, but I haue chosen

CHAP. XVI.

2 He putteth them in remembrance of the croſſe, and of their owne infirmitie to come, 7 And therefore doeth comfort them with the promiſe of the holy Ghoſt. 16 Of the comming againe of Chriſt. 17 Of his aſcenſion. 23 To aske in the Name of Chriſt. 33 Peace in Chriſt, and in the world affliction.

THeſe things haue I ſaid vnto you, that ye ſhould not be a offended.

a And ſo ſhrinke from me.

2 They ſhall ‡ excommunicate you: yea, the time ſhall come, that whoſoeuer killeth you, will thinke that he doeth God ſeruice.

‡ Greeke, put you out of the Synagogues.

3 And theſe things wil they do vnto you, becauſe they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.

4 But theſe things haue I told you, that that when the houre ſhall come, yee might remember, that I told you them. And theſe things b ſaid I not vnto you from the beginning, becauſe I was with you.

b He bare with them becauſe they were but weakelings.

5 But now I goe my way to him that ſent me, and none of you aſketh me, c Whither goeſt thou?

c For if you did conſider, yee would reioyce.

6 But becauſe I haue ſaid theſe things vnto you, your hearts are full of ſorowe.

7 Yet I tell you the trueth, It is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will ſend him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he will d reproue the world of ſinne, and of righteouſnes, and of iudgement.

d Or, convince. This is to be vnderſtood of the comming of the holy Ghoſt when his vertue and ſtrength ſhall ſhine in the Church.

9 Of e ſinne, becauſe they beleeue not in mee:

10 Of f righteouſneſſe, becauſe I goe to my Father, and ye ſhall ſee me no more:

11 Of g iudgement, becauſe the prince of this world is iudged.

e His enemies which contemned him, and put him to death, ſhalbe conuict by their owne conſcience, for that they did not beleeue in him, Actes 2.37. and ſhall knowe that without Ieſus Chriſt there is nothing but ſinne.

f Wherefore the wicked muſt needes confeſſe that he was iuſt, and beloued of his father, and not condemned by him as a blaſphemer or tranſgreſſor.

12 I haue yet h many things to ſay vnto you, but ye cannot beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when hee is come which is the Spirit of trueth, hee will lead you into all trueth: for hee ſhall not ſpeake of himſelfe, but whatſoeuer hee ſhall heare, ſhall he ſpeake, and he will ſhew you the things i to come.

g When they ſhall know that I (whome they called the carpenters ſonne, and willed to come downe from the croſſe) am the very Sonne of God which haue ouercome all the powers of hell, and reigne ouer all, Epheſ. 1.19, 20.

h Theſe things are conteined in the doctrine of the Apoſtles which onely is ſufficient.

i As touching the ſpirituall kingdome of God: For the Apoſtles knewe not that, till after the reſurrection.

14 Yee ſhall glorifie mee: for he ſhall receiue of mine, and ſhall ſhew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore ſaid I, that he ſhall take of mine, and ſhew it vnto you.

16 k A little while, and ye ſhall not ſee me: and againe, a litle while, and ye ſhall ſee mee: for I l goe to my Father.

k Mine abſence ſhall not bee long: for I will ſend you the holy Ghoſt, who ſhall remaine with you from euer.

17 Then ſaid ſome of his diſciples among themſelues, What is this that he ſaith vnto vs, A litle while, and ye ſhall not ſee me, and againe, a litle while, and ye ſhall ſee me, and, For I goe to my Father?

18 They ſaide therefore, What is this that he ſaith, A litle while? we knowe not what he ſaith.

l From death I paſſe to glory, and ſo will I indue you with mine heauenly vertue.

19 Nowe Ieſus knewe that they would aſke him, and ſaid vnto them, Doe yee enquire among your ſelues, of that I ſaide, A litle while, and ye ſhall not ſee mee: and againe, a litle while, and ye ſhall ſee me?

20 Verily, verely I ſay vnto you, that ye ſhall weepe and lament, and the world ſhall reioyce: and yee ſhall ſorowe, but your ſorowe ſhalbe turned to ioy.

21 A woman when ſhee trauaileth, hath ſorowe, becauſe her houre is come: but as ſoone as ſhee is deliuered of the child, ſhe remembreth no more the anguiſh, for ioy that a man is borne into the world.

22 And ye now therefore are in ſorowe: but I will ſee you m againe, and your hearts ſhall reioyce, and your ioy ſhal n no man take from you.

m By the power and vertue of the holy Ghoſt. n For it ſhall be grounded vpon my reſurrection and the grace of the holy Ghoſt.

23 And in that day ſhall ye aſke me o nothing. * Verily, verily I ſay vnto you, whatſoeuer yee ſhall aſke the Father in my Name, he will giue it you.

o For yee ſhall haue perfect knowledge, and ſhall no more doubt as ye were wont. Chap. 14.13. mat. 7.7. and 18.22. mar. 11.24. luke 11.9. iames 1.5.

24 Hitherto haue yee aſked p nothing in my Name: aſke, and yee ſhall receiue, that your ioy ſhall be full.

p In reſpect of that, that you ſhall obteine, if you aske in faith.

25 Theſe

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parables: but the time will come, when I shall no more speake to you in parables: but I shall shewe you plainely of the Father.

26 At that day shall ye aske in my name, and I say not vnto you, that I will q pray vnto the Father for you.

q Christ denieth not that he is the Mediatour, but sheweth that they shall obteine their request without difficultie or any paine. Chap. 17.8.

27 For the Father himselfe loueth you, because ye haue loued me, * and haue beleeued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, and came into the world: againe I leaue the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Lo, nowe speakest thou plainely, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now know wee that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee. By this wee beleeue, that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Doe you beleeue now?

Matth. 26.31. mar. 14.27.

32 * Behold, the houre commeth, and is already come, that ye shalbe scattered euery man into his owne, and shal leaue me alone: but I am not r alone: for the Father is with mee.

r Although men forsake Christ, yet is he no whit diminished: for he and his Father are one.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that s in mee yee might haue peace: in the world ye shall haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue ouercome the world.

s We haue rest & comfort when we are truely graffed in Christ.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receiue the trueth.

THese things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, and sayd, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee.

Matth. 28.18.

2 * As thou hast giuen him a power ouer all flesh, that hee should giue eternall life to all b them that thou hast giuen him.

a Christ hath all rule and dominion ouer men.

b Which are the elect.

3 And this is life eternall, that they know thee to be the onely very God, and whom thou hast sent, Iesus * Christ.

c That is, that they acknowledge both the Father and the Sonne to be very God.

4 I haue d glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

d As well by doctrine as miracles.

5 And now glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: e thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

e Our election standeth in the good pleasure of God, which is the only foundation, and cause of our saluation, and is declared to vs in Christ, through whom we are iustified by faith, and sanctified, Rom. 8.29,30. Ephes. 1.4.5.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the words, which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, * and haue known surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleeued that thou hast sent me.

Chap. 16.27.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for f the world, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

f That is, the reprobate.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, & I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, euen them whom thou hast giuen mee, that they may be g one, as we are.

g That they may be ioyned in vnitie of faith and spirit.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gauest mee, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the h child of perdition, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

h He was so called, not onely for that he perished, but because God had appointed and ordeined him to this end, Acts, 1.16, 18. and 4.27,28. Psal. 109.7.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my ioy fulfilled in themselues.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are i not of the world, as I am not of the world.

i But are separated by the spirit of regeneration.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepe them from euill.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 ‖ k Sanctifie them with thy trueth: thy word is trueth.

k Renue them with thine heauenly grace, that they onely may seeke thy will.

18 As thou diddest send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may bee l sanctified through the trueth.

l Which thing declareth that Christes holinesse is ours.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleeue in me, through their word, 21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in mee, and I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, that the m world may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

m That the infidels may by experience be conuicted to confesse my glory.

22 And the glory that thou gauest me, I haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one, n I haue shewed them the example and paterne of perfite felicity. Chap. 12.26.

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfite in one, and that the world may know that thou hast sent mee, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued mee.

o That they may profite, and grow vp in such sort, that in the end they may enioy the eternall glory with me.

24 * Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen mee, be o with mee euen where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen mee: for thou louedst me before the foundation of the world.

p For without him we cannot comprehend the loue wherewith God loueth vs.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knowen thee, but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen, that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued mee, may be in them, and I in q them.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Christ is betrayed. 9 The wordes of his mouth smite the officers to the ground. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus eare. 13 Iesus is brought before Annas and Caiaphas, 25 Where Peter denieth him. 36 Hee telleth Pilate what his kingdome is.

WHen Iesus had spoken these things, hee went forth with his disciples ouer the a brooke * Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred, and his disciples.

a Which was a deepe valley through ỹ which a streame ran after a great raine. 1. King. 15.13. matth. 26.36. mar. 14.32. luke 22.39.

2 And Iudas, which betrayed him, knew also the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 * Iudas

3 *Iudas then after hee had receiued a b bande of men and officers of the high Priestes, and of the Pharises, came thither with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus, knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth and saide vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus sayd vnto them, I am hee. Nowe Iudas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Assoone then as he had sayd vnto them, I am he, they went backewardes, and fell to the ground.

7 Then hee asked them againe, Whome seeke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I saide vnto you, that I am hee: therefore if ye seeke mee, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might bee fulfilled which he spake, *c Of them which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drewe it, and smote the hie Priestes seruant, and cut off his right eare. Nowe the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the band and the captaine, and the officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to *d Annas first (for hee was father in lawe to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest e that same yeere)

14 *And Caiaphas was hee, that gaue counsel to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶*Nowe Simon Peter folowed Iesus, and another disciple, and that disciple was knowen of the hie Priest: therefore hee went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest.

16 But Peter stoode at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was knowen vnto the high Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, f & brought in Peter.

17 Then said the maid that kept the doore vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he sayd, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stoode there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was colde, and they warmed themselues. And Peter also stood among them, f warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ (The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake f openly to the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue and in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret haue I sayd nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? aske them which heard me what I sayd vnto them: beholde, they know what I sayd.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witnesse of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou mee?

24 ¶*Nowe Annas had g sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.

25 *And Simon Peter stoode and warmed himselfe, and they sayde vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, and sayd, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin, whose eare Peter smote off, sayd, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediatly the cocke crew.

28 ¶*Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Nowe it was morning, and they themselues went not into the common hall, least they should be *defiled, but that they might eate the Passeouer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and sayd, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said vnto him, If hee were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take h ye him, and iudge him after your owne i lawe. Then the Iewes said vnto him, It is not ilawfull for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the *word of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 *So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the high Priestes haue deliuered thee vnto mee. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this k world: if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: But now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witnesse vnto the trueth: euery one that is of the trueth, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate saide vnto him, l What is trueth? And when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and saide vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

39 *But you haue a m custome, that I should deliuer you one loose at the Passeouer: will ye then that I loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

40 *Then cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: nowe this Barabbas was a murtherer.

a He thought to haue pacified the furie of the Iewes by ſome indifferent correction,

3 And ſayd, Haile, King of the Iewes. And they ſmote him with their roddes.

4 Then Pilate went foorth againe, and ſaid vnto them, Behold, I bring him foorth to you, that yee may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus foorth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate ſayde vnto them, b Beholde the man.

b He ſpake in mockerie, becauſe Chriſt called himſelfe King.

6 Then when the hie Prieſtes and officers ſawe him, they cried, ſaying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate ſayde vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Iewes anſwered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe hee ought to die, becauſe hee made himſelfe the c Sonne of God.

c Chriſt was in deede the Sonne of God, and therefore might iuſtly call himſelfe ſo without breach of the Lawe: wherefore their coloured accuſation was falſely applied,

8 ¶ When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraid,

9 And went againe into the common hall, and ſaid vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none anſwere.

10 Then ſaide Pilate vnto him, Speakeſt thou not vnto mee? Knoweſt thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to looſe thee?

11 Iesus anſwered, Thou couldeſt haue no d power at all againſt mee, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore hee that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater ſinne.

d Hereby he ſheweth him, that he ought not to abuſe his office and authoritie.

12 From thencefoorth Pilate ſought to looſe him, but the Iewes cried, ſaying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friend: for whoſoeuer maketh himſelfe a King, ſpeaketh againſt Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that worde, he brought Iesus foorth, and ſate downe in the iudgement ſeate in a place called the e Pauement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

e A place ſomewhat high and raiſed vp.

14 And it was the Preparation of the Paſſeouer, and about the f ſixth houre: and hee ſayde vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

f Which was mid-day,

15 But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate ſayde vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The high Prieſtes anſwered, Wee haue no King but Cesar.

16 Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. * And they tooke Iesus, and led him away.

Mat 27.32. mar.15.21. luke 23 26.

17 And he bare his croſſe, and came into a place named of dead mens ſkulles, which is called in Hebrew, g Golgotha:

g Which was the place of execution.

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either ſide one, and Iesus in the middes.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote alſo a title, and put it on the croſſe, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nere to the city: and it was written in h Hebrew, Greeke, and Latine.

h Becauſe all nations might vnderſtand it,

21 Then ſayde the high Prieſtes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, the King of the Iewes, but that he ſayde, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate anſwered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the * ſouldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure partes, to euery ſouldiera part, and his coate: and the coate was without ſeame, wouen from the toppe throughout.

Matt.27.35. marke 15.24. luke 23.34.

24 Therefore they ſayde one to another, Let vs not diuide it, but caſt lottes for it, whoſe it ſhall be. This was that the i ſcripture might be fulfilled, which ſaith, * They parted my garments among them, and on my coate did caſt lottes. So the Souldiers did theſe things in deede.

26 And when Iesus ſawe his mother, and the diſciple ſtanding by, whom hee loued, he ſaid vnto his mother, Woman, behold thy ſonne.

27 Then ſaid he to the diſciple, Behold thy mother: and from that houre, the diſciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knew that all things were performed, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled, he ſaid, I thirſt.

Pſal.69.22.

29 And there was ſet a veſſell full of vineger: and they filled a ſponge with vineger, and k put it about l an hyſope ſtalke, and put it to his mouth.

k Or, faſtened it vpon an hyſope ſtalke.

l It may appeare that the croſſe was not hie, ſeeing a man might reach Chriſtes mouth with an hyſope ſtalke, which as appeareth, 1. King. 4.33. was the loweſt among herbes, as the cedar was higheſt among trees.

30 Nowe when Iesus had receiued of the vineger, hee ſaid, m It is finiſhed, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghoſt.

m Mans ſaluation is perfected by the onely ſacrifice of Chriſt: and all the ceremonies of the Law are ended.

31 The Iewes then (becauſe it was the Preparation, that the bodies ſhould not remaine vpon the croſſe on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an n hie day) beſought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

n Becauſe the day of the Paſſeouer fell on the Sabbath day.

32 Then came the ſouldiers, and brake the legs of the firſt, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and ſawe that he was dead alreadie, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the ſouldiers with a ſpeare o pearced his ſide, and foorthwith came there out blood and water.

o Which declareth that he was dead in deede, as he roſe againe from death to life.

35 And he that ſawe it, bare record, and his record is true: and hee knoweth that he ſaith true, that ye might beleeue it.

36 For theſe things were done, that the * Scripture ſhould be fulfilled, Not a bone of him ſhall be broken.

38 * And after these things, Joseph of Arimathea, (who was a disciple of Iesus, but p secretly for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate that he might take downe the body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. He came then and tooke Iesus body.

p That is to say, before Christes death, but now he declareth himselfe manifestly.

39 And there came * also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) and brought of myrrhe and aloes mingled together about an hundreth pound.

Chap.3.2.

40 q Then tooke they the body of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the maner of the Iewes is to burie.

q This honourable buriall was as a preparation and entry vnto the resurrection.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a newe sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet laide.

42 There then laide they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was neere.

NOwe * the first day of the weeke came Marie Magdalene, early when it was yet a darke, vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken awap from the tombe.

a She departed from home before day, and came thither about the sunne rising, Mar. 16.2.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Iesus loued, and saide vnto them, They haue taken awap the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we knowe not where they haue laide him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, but the other disciple did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lie, c He beleeued that Christes body was taken away according as Mary reported.

12 And sawe two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feete, where the body of Iesus had lapen.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saide vnto them, They haue taken awap my Lorde, and I knowe not where they haue laide him.

14 When she had thus saide, she turned her selfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? Shee supposing that hee had beene the gardiner, saide vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him awap.

16 Iesus saith vnto her, Marie, Shee turned her selfe, and saide vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet d ascended to my Father, but go to my e brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your f God.

d Because she was too much addicted to the corporall presence, Christ teacheth her to lift vp her mind by faith into heauen, where onely after his Ascension he remaineth, and where we sit with him at the right hand of the father.

e That is, the disciples: for he was the first borne among many brethren, Psal.22.22,23. rom.8.29. colossi.1.18.

f He is our father & our God, because Iesus Christ is our brother.

18 Mary Magdalene came and tolde the disciples that she had seene the Lorde, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ * The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the g doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stood in the midst, and said to them, h Peace be vnto you.

20 And when he had so saide, he shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

21 Then saide Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.

22 * And when he had said that, he i breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.

i To giue them greater power and vertue to execute that weightie charge that he would commit vnto them.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didimus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, We haue seene the Lord: but he saide vnto them, Except I see in his hands the print of the nailes, and put my finger into the ‖ print of the nailes, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleeue it.

26 ¶ And eight dayes after againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when the doores were shut, and stood in the mids, and said, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, saide he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see mine hands, & put forth thine hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and saide vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus saide vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou beleeuest: blessed are they that haue k not seene, and haue beleeued.

k Which depend vpon the simplicitie of Gods word, & ground not themselues vpon mans sense and reason.

Chap.21,25.

31 But these things are written, that ye might beleeue, that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleeuing yee might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commaundeth Peter earnestly to feede his sheepe. 18 He foretelleth him of his death. 25 Of Christs manifold miracles.

AFter these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the ‖ sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

‖ Or, lake of Genesareth.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto them, I goe a fishing. They saide vnto him, We also will goe with thee. They went their way, and entred into a ship straightway, & that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was nowe come, Iesus stood on the shore: nevertheless the disciples knewe not that it was Iesus.

5 Iesus then said vnto them, ‖ Sirs, haue ye ought meate? They answered him, No.

‖ Or, children.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. So they [a] cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore saide the disciple whom Iesus loued vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his [b] coate to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by ship (for they were not far from land, but about two hundreth cubites) and they drewe the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they sawe hote coales, and fish laide thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundreth, fifty and three: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus saide vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knewe that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is nowe the third time that Iesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me more then these? He said vnto him, Yea Lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee. He saide vnto him, Feede my lambes.

16 He saide to him againe the seconde time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? He saide vnto him, Yea Lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He saide vnto him the [d] third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sory because he saide to him the third time, Louest thou me: and saide vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus saide vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch foorth thine hands, and another shall [e] gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And this spake he, signifying by what death hee should glorifie God. And when he had saide this, he saide to him, Followe me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also *leaned on his breast at supper, and had saide, Lorde, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore sawe him, he said to Iesus, Lord, what shal this man doe?

22 Iesus said vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this disciple should not die. Yet Iesus said not to him, He shall not die: but if I will that he tary till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimonie is true.

25 * Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, [f] I suppose the world coulde not conteine the bookes that should be written. Amen.

a Albeit they knew him not, yet they followed his counsell, because they had all night taken paines in vaine.

b It was some linnen garment, which fishers vse to weare, which being trussed vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also letted not his swimming.

c The Minister cannot wel reach his congregation, except hee loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feede not the flocke.

d Beeause Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ caused him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

The Acts of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGVMENT.

CHrist, after his ascension, performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that hee was not onely mindfull of his Church, but woulde bee the head and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the worlde resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the founde of his Gospell. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, wee may plainly perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppresse and ouerthrowe the Gospell: he raiseth conspiracies, tumules, commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kinde of crueltie. Againe wee shall here beholde the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengthneth and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetual memorie to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the ende of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheleſſe God turneth the troubles, perſecutions, impriſonings and tentations of his, to a good iſſue, giuing them as it were, in ſorow, ioy: in bonds, freed ome: in priſon, deliuerance: in trouble, quietneſſe: in death, life. Finally, this booke conteyneth many excellent ſermons of the Apoſtles and diſciples, as touching the death, reſurrection, and aſcenſion of Chriſt. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remiſſion of ſinne through Ieſus Chriſt. Of the bleſſed immortalitie. An exhortation to the miniſters of Chriſtes flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith, ſo that this onely hiſtorie in a manner may be ſufficient to inſtruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

5 * For Iohn indeed baptized with water, but yee ſhall be baptized with the [f] holy Ghoſt within theſe few dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they aſked of him, ſaying, Lorde, wilt thou [g] at this time reſtore the kingdome to Iſrael?

7 And hee ſaide, vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the [h] times, or the ſeaſons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But yee ſhall receiue power of the holy Ghoſt, when he ſhall come on you: and yee ſhall be [i] witneſſes vnto me both in Ieruſalem, and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the [k] vttermoſt part of the earth.

3 And there appeared vnto them clouen d tongues, like e fire, and it sate vpon ech of them.

5 And there were dwelling at Ierusalem Iewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.
6 Now when this was f noised, the multitude came together, and were astonied, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.
7 And they wondered all, and marueiled, saying among themselues, Behold, are not all these which speake, of Galile?
8 Howe then heare wee euerie man our owne g language, wherein we were borne?

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these words, Iesus of Nazaret, a man approued of God among you with great woorkes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as yee your selues also knowe:
23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of r the wicked, being deliuered by the ſ determinate counsell, and ‖ foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:
24 Whom God hath raised vp, & loosed the t sorrowes of death, because it was vnpossible that he should be holden of it.
25 For Dauid saith concerning him, * I beheld the Lorde alwayes before mee: for hee is at my u right hand, that I should not be shaken.
26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shall rest in x hope.
27 Because thou wilt not leaue my ‖soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine holy one to see corruption.
28 Thou hast shewed mee the y wayes of life, and shalt make mee full of ioy with thy countenance.
29 Men and brethren, I may boldely speake vnto you of the Patriarke Dauid, * that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.
30 Therefore, seeing he was a z Prophet, and knewe that God had * sworne with an othe to him, that of the fruite of his loynes he would raise vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne, 31 He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that * his ‖ soule should not be left in a grane, neither his flesh should ‖ see corruption.
32 This Iesus hath God raised vp, whereof we all are witnesses.

CHAP. III.

1 The lame is restored to his feete. 12 Peter preacheth Christ vnto the people.

NOwe Peter and John went vp together into the Temple, at the * ninth houre of prayer.

a Which is with vs, three a cloke after noone, which was their euening sacrifice, at which the Apostles were present to teach that the shadows of the Law were abolished by that Lambe that tooke away the sinnes of the world.

2 And a certaine man which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, was caried, whome they layde dayly at the gate of the Temple called Beautifull, to aske b almes of them that entred into the Temple.
3 Who seeing Peter and John, that they woulde enter into the Temple, desired to receiue an almes.
4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with John, said, Looke on vs.
5 And he gaue heede vnto them, trusting to receiue some thing of them.
6 Then sayde Peter, Siluer and golde haue I none, but such as I c haue, that giue I thee: In the d Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, rise vp, and walke,
7 And hee tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his feete and ankle bones receiued strength.
8 And he leaped vp, stoode, and walked, and entred with them into the Temple, walking and leaping, and praising God.
9 And all the people sawe him walke, and praysing God,
10 And they knewe him, that it was hee which sate for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple: and they were amazed, and sore astonied at that which was come vnto him.
11 ¶ And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Salomons.
12 So when Peter sawe it, he answered vnto the people, Yee men of Israel, why marualle yee at this? or why looke yee so stedfastly on vs, as though by our owne * power or godlinesse, wee had made this man goe?
13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, the * God of our Fathers hath glorified his Sonne Iesus, whome yee betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when hee had iudged him to bee deliuered.

AND as they spake vnto the people, the Priests and the a Captaine of the temple, and the Sadducees came vpon them,

2 Taking it grieuously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the b resurrection from the dead.

3 And they layde handes on them, and put them in holde, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the worde, beleeued, and the number of the men was about = fiue thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to passe on the morow, that their rulers, and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, & Caiaphas, and Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the hie Priests.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or d in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the = holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 Forasmuch as wee this day are examined of the f good deede done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Bee it known vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whome yee haue crucified, whome God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doeth this man stand here before you, whole.

11 * This is the stone cast alide of you s builders, which is become the head of the h corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name = vnder heauen, wherby wee must be saued.

13 Now when they sawe the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and vnderstood that they were vnlearned men, and without knowledge, they marueiled, and knewe them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commanded them to goe aside out of the Councill, and k conferred among themselues, 16 Saying, ¶ What shall wee doe to these men? For surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly knowen to all them that dwell in Ierusalem: and wee can not denie it.

17 But that it bee noysed no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this l Name.

18 So they called them, and commaunded them, that in = no wise they shoulde speake or teach in the name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and sayde, ¶ Whether it bee right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For wee cannot but speake the things which we haue = seene and heard.

21 So they * threatned them, and let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men prayled God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboue fourty yeere olde, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then alsoone as they were let goe, they came to their p fellowes, and shewed all that the high Priestes and Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accord, and sayde, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them.

25 Which q by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast sayde, * Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

29 And nowe, O Lorde, beholde their = threatnings, and r graunt vnto thy seruants with all boldnesse to speake thy word, f And to mocke him as if hee ſhould not haue knowen your craftie ſetch, which declareth that when men doe any thing of an euil conſcience, they do not onely pronounce the ſentence of damnation vpon them ſelues, but alſo prouoke the wrath of God, becauſe they doe proouе, as it were purpoſely, whether God be righteous and almightie.

BVt a certaine man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, ſolde a poſſeſſion,

2 And ᵃ kept away part of the price, his wife alſo being of counſell, and brought a certaine part, and layde it downe at the Apoſtles feete.

3 Then ſayd Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou ſhouldeſt lie vnto the holy ᵇ Ghoſt, and keepe away part of the price of the poſſeſſion?

4 Whiles it remained, ᶜ appertained it not vnto thee? and after it was ſolde, was it not in thine owne ᵈ power? howe is it that thou haſt conceiued this thing in thine heart? thou haſt not lyed vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Nowe when Ananias heard theſe wordes, he fell downe, ᵉ gaue vp the ghoſt. Then great feare came on all them that heard theſe things.

6 And the yong men roſe vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it ᵉ came to paſſe about the ſpace of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter ſayd vnto her, Tell me, ſolde yee the land for ſo much? And ſhe ſayd, Yea, for ſo much.

9 Then Peter ſayd vnto her, ᶠ Why haue yee agreed together, to ᵍ tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feete of them which haue buried thine huſband, are at the doore, and ſhall carry thee out.

10 Then ſhee fell downe ſtraightway at his feete, ᵉ yeelded vp the ghoſt: ᵉ the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her huſband.

11 And great feare came on all ʸ Church, and on as many as heard theſe things.

12 Thus by the handes of the Apoſtles were many ſignes and wonders ſhewed among the people (and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the other ᶻ durſt no man ioyne himſelfe to them: neuertheleſſe the people ᵇ magnified them.

15 In ſo much that they brought the ſicke into the ſtreetes, and laide them on beds, and couches, that at the leaſt way the ſhadowe of Peter, when hee came by, might ſhadow ſome of them.

16 There came alſo a multitude out of the cities round about vnto Ieruſalem, bringing ſicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vncleane ſpirits, who were all healed.

17 ¶ Then the chiefe Prieſt roſe vp, and all they that were with him (which was the ſect of the ⁱ Sadducees) and were full of ᵏ indignation, 18 And layd handes on the Apoſtles, and put them in the common priſon.

19 But the Angel of the Lorde by night opened the priſon doores, and brought them foorth, and ſayd, 20 Goe your way, and ſtand in the Temple, and ſpeake to the people all the wordes of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Prieſt came, and they that were with him, and called the Counſell together, and all the Elders of the children of Iſrael, and ſent to the priſon, to cauſe them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the priſon, they returned and tolde it, 23 Saying, Certainely wee found the priſon ſhut as ſure as was poſſible, and the keepers ᵐ ſtanding without before ſ doores: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Prieſt, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Prieſts heard theſe things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would growe.

25 Then came one and ſhewed them, ſaying, Beholde, the men that yee put in priſon, are ſtanding in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, leaſt they ſhould haue bene ſtoned)

27 And when they had brought them, they ſet them before the Councell, and the chiefe Prieſt aſked them, g Becauſe of their owne euill conſciences which made them to tremble: for they that were not aſſured of Gods mercies in Chriſt, were aſtoniſhed at theſe his ſtrange iudgments.

m So that there was no fraude nor deceite, nor negligence: but it liuely ſetteth foorth the power of God and his prouidence for his.

28 Saying, Did not wee straitly commaund you, that ye should not teach in this Name? and behold, yee haue filled o Ierusalem with your doctrine, and yee would bring this mans p blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and sayd, Wee ought rather to obey God then men.

30 The q God of our Fathers hath raised vp Iesus, whome yee slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to be a prince and a r Sauiour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiuenesse of sinnes.

32 And we are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whome God hath giuen to them that obey him.

33 Now when they heard it, they brast for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there vp in the Councill a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctour of the law, honoured of all the people, and commaunded to put the Apostles forth a little space, 35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what yee intend to doe touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp s Theudas boasting himselfe, to whome resorted a number of men, about foure hundreth, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose vp t Iudas of Galile, in the dayes of the tribute, and drew away much people after him: he also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke be of men, it wil come to nought:

39 But if it be of u God, yee cannot destroy it, least ye be found euen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commaunded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Councell, reioycing that they were counted worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And dayly in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach, and preach Iesus Christ.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke yee out among you seuen men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisedome, which we may appoint to this businesse.

4 And we will giue our selues continually to prayer, and to the ministration of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Steuen a man full of a faith and of the holy Ghost, and b Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a c proselyte, of Antiochia, 6 Which they set before the Apostles, and they prayed, and d layd their hands on them.

7 And the worde of God increased, and the number of the disciples was multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priestes were obedient to the e faith.

8 Now Steuen ful of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the f Synagogue, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisedome, and the Spirit by the which he spake.

11 Then the g subornedmen, which sayd, Wee haue heard him speake blasphemous wordes against Moses, and God.

12 Thus they mooued the people and the Elders, and the Scribes: and comming vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Councell, 13 And set foorth false witnesses, which sayd, This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous wordes against this holy place, and the Lawe.

14 For we haue heard him say, that h this Iesus of Nazaret shall destroy this place, and shall change the ordinances, which Moses gaue vs.

15 And as all that sate in the Councell, looked stedfastly on him, they sawe his face as it had bene the i face of an Angel.

11 ¶ Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when * Iacob heard that there was corne in Egypt, hee sent our fathers first.

13 * And at the second time, Ioseph was knowen of his brethren, and Iosephs kinred was made knowen vnto Pharao.

14 Then sent Ioseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kinred, euen g threescore and fifteene soules.

19 The same dealt i subtilly with our kinred, and euill entreated our fathers, and made them to cast out their yong children, that k they should not remaine aliue.

20 * The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house three moneths.

21 And when hee was cast out, Pharaos daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisedome of the Egyptians, and was mightie in wordes and in deedes.

23 Now when hee was full fourtie yeere olde, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.

24 * And when he saw one of them suffer wrong, hee defended him, and auenged his quarell that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For hee supposed his brethren would haue vnderstoode, that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it not.

26 * And the next day, hee shewed himselfe vnto them as they stroue, and would haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why doe ye wrong one to an other.

27 But hee that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in the lande of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when fourtie yeeres were expired, there appeared to him in the * wildernesse of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame k of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drewe neere to consider it, the voyce of the Lorde came vnto him, saying, 32 I am the l God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.

33 Then the Lord said to him, = Put off thy shoes from thy feete: for the place where thou standest, is holy ground.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

2 Stephen is lamented and buried. 3 The rage of the Iewes and of Saul against them. 4 The faithfull scattered preach here and there. 9 Samaria is seduced by Simon the sorcerer, but was conuerted by Philip, and confirmed by the Apostles. 19 The couetousnesse and hypocrisie of Simon, 26 And conuersion of the Eunuch.

AND Saul consented to his death, and at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattered abroad through the regions of Iudea and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

a From the place where he was stoned.
b When the Church is depriued of any worthy member, there is iust cause of sorrow: & note that here is no mention of any reliques or prayers for the dead, or worshipping.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, a caried Stephen among them, to be buried, and made great b lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred into euery house, and drewe out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then came Philippe into the citie ◦ of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

c This is the conuersion of Samaria was as it were the first fruites of the calling of the Gentiles.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing, and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

d This declareth how much more we are inclined to follow the illusions of Satan, then the trueth of God.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which vsed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, That he himselfe was some great man.

e This is the craft of Satan, to couer all his illusions vnder the Name of God, 10 To whom they d gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great ◦ power of God.

f The maiestie of Gods worde forced him to confesse the trueth but yet was hee not regenerate therefore.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But assoone as they beleeued Philip, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

g Meaning the particular gifts of the holy Spirit.

13 Then Simon himselfe beleeued also and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondred, when hee saw the signes and great miracles which were done.

h They had only receiued the common grace of adoption and regeneration, which are offred to all the faithful in baptisme, and as yet had not receiued the gift to speake in diuers languages and to doe miracles.

14 ¶ Now when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the worde of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the e holy Ghost.

16 (For as yet, hee was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized f onely in the Name of the Lord Iesus) *gal.*3.19. c By their ministerie or office. d And reigning in his flesh, wherein he had suffered. e This was done of furious violence, and by no forme of iustice. *Chap.*22.20.

17 Then laid they their handes on them, and they receiued the holy Ghoſt.

18 And when Simon ſaw, that through laying on of the Apoſtles handes the holy Ghoſt was giuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Giue mee alſo this power, that on whomſoeuer I lay the handes, hee may receiue the holy Ghoſt.

20 Then ſaid Peter vnto him, Thy money periſh with thee, becauſe thou thinkeſt that the gift of God may bee obtayned with money.

21 Thou haſt neither part nor [h] fellowſhip in this buſineſſe: for thine heart is not right in the ſight of God.

22 [k] Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, that if it bee [l] poſſible, the thought of thine heart may bee forgiuen thee.

23 For I ſee that thou art [m] in the gall of [n] bitternes, and in the bond of iniquitie.

24 Then anſwered Simon, & ſaid, Pray ye to the Lord for mee, [o] none of theſe things which ye haue ſpoken, come vpon me.

25 ¶ So they, when they had teſtified, and preached the word of the Lorde, returned to Ieruſalem, and preached the Goſpell in many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 Then the Angell of the Lorde ſpake vnto Philippe, ſaying, Ariſe and goe toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Ieruſalem vnto Gaza, which is [a] waſte.

27 And he aroſe, & went on: and behold, a certaine [o] Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Gouernour, who had the rule of al her treaſure, and came to Ieruſalem to worſhip:

28 And as hee returned ſitting in his charet, he read Eſaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit ſayde vnto Philip, Go neere & ioyne thy ſelfe to yonder charet.

30 And Philip ranne thither, and heard him reade the Prophet Eſaias, & ſayde, But vnderſtandeſt thou what thou readeſt?

31 And hee ſayde, Howe can I, except I had a guide? And he deſired Philip, that hee would come vp and ſit with him.

32 Nowe the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, [p] He was led as a ſheepe to the ſlaughter: and like a lambe dumme before the ſhearer, ſo opened he not his mouth.

33 [p] In his humilitie his [q] iudgement hath bene exalted: but who ſhall declare [r] his generation? for his life is taken from the [s] earth.

34 Then the Eunuch anſwered Philip, and ſayd, I pray thee of whome ſpeaketh the Prophet this? of himſelfe, or of ſome other man?

35 Then Philip [t] opened his mouth, and began at the ſame Scripture, and preached vnto him Jeſus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch ſayd, See, here is water: what doeth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philip ſayd vnto him, If thou beleeueſt with [u] all thine heart, thou mayeſt. Then he anſwered, and ſayd, I beleeue that Jeſus Chriſt is the Sonne of God.

38 Then hee commaunded the charet to ſtand ſtill: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And aſſoone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lorde caught away Philip, that the Eunuch [x] ſaw him no more: ſo hee went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip ¶ was found at [y] Azotus, and hee walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cefarea.

24 But their laying awaite was knowen of Saul: now they [m] watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a hal ket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, hee assayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afraide of him, and beleeued not that hee was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, [n] & brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had seene the Lord in the way, and that hee had spoken vnto him, and howe hee had spoken boldly at Damascus in the name of Iesus.

28 And he [‡] was conuersant with [o] them at Ierusalem, 29 And spake boldly [o] in the Name of the Lorde Iesus, and spake and disputed with the [p] Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to [q] Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lorde, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there hee found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palsie.

34 Then sayd Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and ‖make vp thy bed. And hee arose immediatly.

35 And [r] all that dwelt at Lydda, and [s] Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa, a certaine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called [t] Dorcas) shee was ‖ full of good workes and almes which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that shee was sicke and died: and when they had [u] washed her, they laid her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now forasmuch as Lydda was neere to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose & came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into ỹ vpper chamber, where all the widowes stoode by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when shee saw Peter, sate vp.

41 Then hee gaue her the hand and lift her vp, and called the [x] Saintes and widowes, and restored her aliue.

42 And it was knowen throughout all Ioppa, and many beleeued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that hee tarried many dayes in Ioppa with one Simon a ‖ tanner.

FVrthermore there was a certaine man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a captaine of the band called the Italian band, b That is, God did accept them: whereof it followeth that he had faith: or els it is impossible to please God.

5 Nowe therefore sende men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: † he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.

† He shall speake words vnto thee wherebp thou shalt be saued, and all thine house.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morrow as they went on their journey, and drew neere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the c sixt houre.

c Which was midday.

10 Then wared he an hungred, & would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And he sawe heauen open, & a certaine vessell come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were d all manner of foure footed beasts of the earth, & wilde beasts, & creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

d As camels, horses, dogs, oxen, sheepe, swine, and such like, which man nourisheth for his vse.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter, kill, and eate.

14 But Peter saide, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is ‖ polluted, or vncleane.

‖ Or, common.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath e purified, f pollute thou not.

e In taking away the difference betwixt vncleane beasts and cleane, he sheweth there is no difference betwixt the Iewes and Gentiles.

f Take it not for polluted, and impure.

16 This was so done thrise: and the vessell was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had seene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were g lodged there.

g Then true obedience which proceedeth of faith ought to be without doubt or questioning.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit saide vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and go with them, and ‖ doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

‖ Or, Peter.

21 ¶ Then Peter went down to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and saide, Behold, I am he whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captain, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauē by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called ‖ hee them in, and lodged them, and the next day, Peter went forth with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

‖ Or, Peter.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsemen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and h worshipped him.

h Shewed too much reuerence and farre passing decent order, as though Peter had bene God.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my selfe am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, hee came in, and founde many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye know that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to companie or come vnto one of an other nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man ‖ polluted, or vncleane.

‖ Or, common.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue yee sent for me?

30 Then Cornelius saide, Foure dayes agoe about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and beholde, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And saide, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (hee is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the Sea side) who when hee commeth, shal speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast well done to come. Nowe therefore are wee all here present before God, to heare all things that are commaunded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and saide, Of a trueth I perceiue, that * God is no accepter of persons.

42 And hee commaunded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifie, that it is he that is ordeined of God a iudge of quicke and dead.

beleeue in him, shall receiue remission of sinnes.

44 While Peter yet spake these wordes, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 So they of the circumcision which beleeued, were astonied, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was powred out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man [a] forbidde water, that these should not be baptized, which haue receiued the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 So he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord ‖. Then prayed they him to tary certeine dayes.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore hee went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church approueth it. 21 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 28 Agabus prophesieth dearth to come, 29 and the remedie.

NOw the Apostles and the brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles had also receiued the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Jerusalem, they of the circumcision [a] contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to [b] them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Joppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision, A certeine vessel comming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowles of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediately there were three men alreadie come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit saide vnto me, that I should goe with them, without doubting: moreouer these sixe brethren came with me, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs, how hee had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 Hee shall speake words vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shall be saued.

15 And as I beganne to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, * euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembred the worde of the Lord, howe hee saide, * John baptized with water, but yee shall bee [c] baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when we beleeued in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God ‖?

18 When they heard these things, [d] they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted [e] repentance vnto life.

19 ¶ And they which were * scattered abroade because of the ‖ affliction that arose about Stephen, walked throughout till they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the [f] Grecians, and preached the Lord Jesus.

21 And the [g] hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number beleeued and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Jerusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should goe vnto [h] Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come & had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would ‖ cleaue vnto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people ioyned themselues vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when hee had founde him, hee brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe, that a whole yeere they were conuersant with the Church, & taught much people, in so much, that the disciples were first called [i] Christians in Antiochia.

27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Jerusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stoode vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the [k] spirite, that there should be great famine throughout all the worlde, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples euery man according to his abilitie, [l] purposed to sende succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Judea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

1 Herode persecuteth the Christians, 2 He killeth Iames, 4 And putteth Peter in prison, 7 Whome the Lord deliuereth by an Angel. 23 The horrible death of Herode. 24 The Gospel flourisheth, 25 Barnabas & Saul returning to Antiochia, take John Marke with them.

NOw about that time, [a] Herode the king stretched forth his hands to vexe certaine of the Church.

a Who was called Agrippa the sonne of Aristobulus: he was nephewe vnto Herode the great, and brother of Herodias.

2 And he killed Iames the [b] brother of Iohn with the sword.

3 And when he saw that it [c] pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the dayes of vnleauened bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to [d] foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept; intending after the Passeouer to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And whē Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betweene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.

Chap. 5. 19.

7 * And beholde, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angel saide vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy [e] sandales. And so he did. Then hee saide vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thought hee had seene a vision.

10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate, that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to himselfe, he saide, Nowe I know for a truth, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the [f] waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as hee considered the thing, hee came to the house of Mary, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when she knewe Peters voyce, she opened not the entrie doore for gladnesse, but ran in, and tolde howe Peter stood before the entrie.

15 But they saide vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then saide they, It is his [g] Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand, to holde their peace, and tolde them howe the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And hee saide, Goe shewe these things vnto Iames and to the brethren: and hee departed and went into [h] another place.

18 ¶ Nowe assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commaunded them to be led to be punished. And he went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and [i] perswaded Blastus the kings chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arayed himselfe in royall apparell, and sate on the iudgement seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

23 But immediatly the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he [k] gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was eaten [l] of wormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

24 And the word of God [m] grewe, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas and Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their [n] office, and tooke with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

THere were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine Prophets & teachers, as Barnabas, & Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and [a] Manahen (which had beene brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they [b] ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost saide, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they and prayed, and laid their handes on them, and let them goe.

4 And they after they were * sent foorth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine sorcerer, a false prophet, being a Iew, named Barieus, 7 Which was with the Deputie Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And saide, O full of all subtiltie and all mischiefe, the childe of the deuill, and enemie of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to peruert the streight [c] wayes of the Lord?

11 Now therefore behold, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a mysle and a darkenesse, and he went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he saw what was done, beleeued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Nowe when Paul and they that were with him were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga a citie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to [d] Antiochia a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

15 And after the lecture of the lawe and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men + brethren, if ye haue any word of [e] exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stoode vp and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of * Egypt, and with an * high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the time *of fourtie yeres, suffered he their [f] maners in the wildernesse.

19 And he destroyed seuen nations in the land of Chanaan, and * deuided their land to them by lot.

20 Then afterward he gaue vnto them * Iudges [g] about foure hundreth and fiftie yeeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a * King, and God gaue vnto them * Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Beniamin, by the space of fourtie yeeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, he raised vp * Dauid to be their king, of whom he witnessed, saying, I haue found Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will doe all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God *according to his promise raised vp to Israel, the Sauiour Iesus:

24 When * Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his [h] course, he said, * Whom ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but behold, there commeth one after me, whose shoe of his feete I am not worthy to loose.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the [i] word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and their rulers, because they [k] knewe him not, nor yet the voices of the Prophets, which are [l] read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, * yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had [m] fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God * raised him vp from the dead.

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you, that touching the promise made vnto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he [n] raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the seconde Psalme, * Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Nowe as concerning that he raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath said thus, * I will giue you the [o] holy things of Dauid which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore he saieth also in another place, * Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after he had serued his time by the counsell of God, he * slept, and was laide with his fathers, and sawe corruption.

37 But he whom God raysed vp, sawe no corruption.

38 Be it knowen vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiuenesse of sinnes.

39 And from all things from which ye could not be iustified by the lawe of Moses, by him euery one that beleeueth, is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, least that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets.

41 *Behold, ye [p] despisers, and wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a [q] worke in your dayes, a worke which ye shall not beleeue, if a man would declare it you.

42 ¶ And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, [r] they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath day.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole citie together, to heare the word of God.

45 But when the Iewes saw the people, they were full of r enuie, and spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying them, and railing on them.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, * It was necessarie that the worde of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing yee put it from you, and iudge your selues vnworthie of s euerlasting life, loe, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commaunded vs, saying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be the saluation vnto the end of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were t ordeined vnto eternall life, beleeued.

49 Thus the word of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.

50 But the Iewes stirred certaine u deuout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the citie, and raysed persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coastes.

51 But they * shooke off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 God giueth successe to his word. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium & are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would do sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refuse it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 22 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience, 23 Appoint ministers, 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

AND it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes and of the Grecians beleeued.

a Which would not obey the doctrine, neither suffer themselues to be perswaded to beleeue the trueth and to imbrace Christ.

2 But the a vnbeleeuing Iewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldely in the Lord, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to bee done by their hands.

4 But the people of the citie were deuided: and some were with the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes with their rulers, to doe them violence, and to stone them,

† In so much that all the people were moued at the doctrine. So both Paul and Barnabas remained at Lystra.

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about,

7 And there were preaching the Gospel †.

8 ¶ Now there sate a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed, 10 Sayde with a loude voyce, † Stand vpright on thy feet. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest, which was before their citie, brought bulles with b garlands vnto the c gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles Barnabas and Paul heard it, they d rent their clothes, and ranne in among the people, crying, 15 And saying, O men, why doe yee these things? Wee are euen men e subiect to the like passions that yee be, and preach vnto you, that ye should turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, * which made heauen and earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

16 Who in times past * suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne f wayes.

17 Neuertheless, hee left not himselfe without g witnesse, in that he did good, and gaue vs raine from heauen, and fruitfull seasons, filling our hearts with foode and h gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarse refrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them †.

19 Then there came certeine Iewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people, † * stoned Paul, and drew him out of the citie, supposing hee had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the citie, and the next day hee departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that citie, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia, 22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that wee must thorow many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by i election in euery Church, & prayed, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleeued.

24 Thus they went thorowout Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached ỹ word in Perga, they came downe to Attalia, 26 And thence sailed to Antiochia, * from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the thinges that God had done k by them, and how hee had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

CHAP. XV.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia, 39 And separate companie because of Iohn Marke.

THen came downe a certeine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, * Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye cannot be saued.

2 And when there was great dissension and disputation by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certeine other of them should goe vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent foorth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what thinges God had done by them.

5 But said they, certeine of the sect of the b Pharises, which did beleeue, rose vp, saying, that it was needefull to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Law of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when there had bene great disputation, Peter rose vp, and said vnto them, * Yee men and brethren, yee know that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out mee, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the word of the Gospel, and beleeue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And put no c difference betweene vs, and them, after that by faith hee d had * purified their hearts.

10 Now therefore, why e tempt ye God, to * lay a yoke on the disciples necks, which neither our fathers, nor wee were able to beare?

11 But wee beleeue, through the f grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to bee saued, euen as they doe?

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what tignes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men & brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 * Simeon hath declared how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 * After this, I will returne, and will build againe the g Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I build againe, and I will set it vp,

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lorde, and all the h Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, sayth the Lord which doth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his works.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God, 20 But that wee write vnto them, that they abstaine themselues from i filthinesse of idoles, and k fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood†.

21 For l Moses of old time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne company to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Iudas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren, 23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as we haue heard, that certeine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and cumbred your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Law: to whome wee gaue no such commandement,

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men that haue giuen vp their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 We haue therefore sent Iudas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and m to vs, to lay no more burthen vpon you, then these necessary things, 29 That is, that yee abstaine from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: † from which if yee keepe your selues, yee shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, & after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Iudas and Silas being Prophets, ‖ exhorted the brethren with many words, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let goe in n peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding o Silas thought good to abide there still†.

n Hauing desired leaue of the Church, the brethren prayed God to prosper their iourney.

† And onely Iudas went.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other the word of the Lord.

36 ¶ But after certeine dayes, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, and visite our brethren in euery citie, where wee haue preached the word of the Lord, and see howe they doe.

37 And Barnabas † counselled to take with them John called Marke.

† Would take John, &c.

38 But Paul thought it not meete to take him vnto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

p God suffereth the most perfit to fall, and yet turneth their infirmities to the setting forth of his glorie, as this breach of company caused the word to be preached in moe places.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they p departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And hee went throgow Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

1 When Paul had circumcised Timothie, he tooke him with him. 7 The spirit calleth them from one countrey to another. 14 Lydia is conuerted. 28 Paul and Silas imprisoned, conuert the Iayler, 37 and are deliuered as Romans.

THen came hee to Derbe and to Lystra: and beholde, a certeine disciple was there, named * Timotheus, a womans sonne, which was a Iewesse and beleeued, but his father was a Grecian.

*Rom.16.21.phil. 2.19.1.thess.3.2.

2 Of whome the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that he should go forth with him, and tooke and a circumcised him, because of the Iewes, which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grecian.

a Lest the Iewes should disdeine him as one that were prophane, & without God.

4 And as they went throgow the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe, ordeined of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number dayly.

6 ¶ Nowe when they had gone throgow Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were b forbidden of the holy Ghost, to preach the word in c Asia.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirit † suffered them not.

8 Therefore they passed throgow Mysia, and came downe to d Troas, e We ought not to credit visions, except we be assured thereof by the spirit of God.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a streight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to f Neapolis.

12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe citie in the parts of Macedonia; and g whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and we were in that citie abiding certeine dayes.

15 And when shee was baptized and her houshold, shee besought vs, saying, If yee haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lorde, come into mine house and abide there: and she constreined vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certeine mayd hauing * a spirit i of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

19 Nowe when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drewe them into the market place vnto the Magistrates, 21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romans.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the Gouernors rent m their clothes, and * commanded them to be beaten with roddes.

25 Nowe at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a Psalme vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when hee saw the prison doores open, he drewe out his sword, and woulde haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for wee are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saued?

31 And they said, Beleeue in the Lord Ie-

32 And they preached vnto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

n No man had authoritie to beare, or to put to death a citizen Romane, but the Romans themselues by the consent of the people.

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncondemned, which are n Romans, they haue cast vs into prison, and now would they put vs out priuily? nay verely: but let them come and bring vs out.

o For the punishment was great against them that did iniurie to a citizen Romane.

38 And the sergeants tolde these wordes vnto the Gouernours, who o feared when they heard that they were Romans.

39 Then came they & prayed them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia: and when they had seene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica, 4 where some receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 Hee disputeth at Athens, and the fruit of his doctrine.

NOw as they passed thorow Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening & alleging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, sayd he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a few.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, mooued with enuy, tooke vnto them certeine vagabonds and wicked fellowes, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, & made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drewe Iason and certeine brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are.

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is an other * King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heades of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued ‖ sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them go.

‖Or, sufficient assuere.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also b more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readinesse, and * searched the Scriptures dayly, c whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a few.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knew, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and mooued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that ‖ did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they shoulde come to him at once, they departed.

‖Or, had the charge to conduct him safely.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the citie d subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore hee disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market, dayly, * with whomsoeuer he met.

18 Then certeine Philosophers of the f Epicures, and of the g Stoikes, disputed with him, and some sayde, What will this ‖ babler say? Others sayd, He seemeth to be a setter foorth of strange gods (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him vnto h Mars street, saying, May wee not know, what this new doctrine, wherof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certeine straunge thinges vnto our eares: wee woulde know therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, ‖ gaue themselues to nothing els, but either to tell or to heare some newes.

‖Or, leasure.

22 Then Paul stoode in the middes of i Mars street, and sayd, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your deuotions, I founde an altar wherein a Like quarell picking they vsed against Christ: & these be the weapons wherewith the world continually fighteth against the mẽbers of Christ, treason and sedition.

b Not more excellent of birth, but more prompt & couragious in receiuing ỹ word of God: for hee compareth them of Berea with thẽ of Thessalonica, who persecuted the Apostles in Berea. Iohn 5.39.

c This was not onely to trie if these thinges which they had heard, were true, but also to confirme themselues in the same, and to increase their faith.

d That citie which was the fountaine of all knowledge, was nowe the sincke of most horrible idolatrie.

e Such was his feruent zeale towards Gods glory, that he laboured to amplifie the same both in season, and out of season, as he taught afterward to Timothie.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinthus. 6 He is detested of the Iewes, 8 Yet receiued of many, 9 And comforted of the Lord. 14 Gallio refuseth to meddle with religio. 18 Paul vow. 21. His faith in the prouidence of God, 22 And care for the brethren. 24 The praise of Apollos.

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Iew, named * Aquil a, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italie, and his wife Priscilla (because that a Claudius had commaunded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because hee was of the same craft, he abode with them and b wrought (for their craft was to make c tents.)

4 And hee disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes, and the Grecians.

5 Nowe when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul d burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, he * shooke his rayment, and said vnto them, e Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And * Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleeued in the Lorde with all his houshold: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleeued and were baptized.

9 Then sayde the Lorde to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and holde not thy peace.

10 For f I am with thee, and no man shall lay handes on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yeere and sixe moneths, and taught the Word of God among them.

12 ¶ Nowe when Gallio was deputie of ‖ Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accorde against Paul, and brought him to the iudgment seate, 13 Saying, This felow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the g law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio sayde vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deede, O yee Iewes, I would according to reason maintein you.

15 But if it be a question of wordes, and names, and of your lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I wil bee no iudge of those things.

16 And hee draue them from the iudgement seate.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians h Sosthenes, the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had tarried there yet a good while, he tooke leaue of the brethren, and sayled vnto Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that hee had i shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a *vow

22 ¶ And when he came downe to k Cesarea, he went vp to Ierusalem: and when hee had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto Antiochia.

6 The holy Ghost is giuen by Pauls hands. 9 The Iewes blaspheme his doctrine, which was confirmed by miracles. 13 The rashnesse, and punishment of the Coniurers, and the feare that came thereof. 24 Demetrius raiseth sedition vnder pretence of Diana. 41 Yet God deliuereth his, and appeaseth it by the Towne clarke.

AND it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed thorowe the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Haue ye receiued the a holy Ghost since ye beleeued? And they sayde vnto him, Wee haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And hee said vnto them, b Vnto what were ye then baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

4 Then saide Paul, Iohn verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleeue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And Paul laid his handes vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophecied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer, hee went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing, and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdome of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schoole of one c Tyrannus †.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the Word of the Lorde Iesus, both Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, ‖kerchiefs or handkerchiefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euil spirits went out of them.

13 Then certaine of d vagabond Iewes, ‖exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euil spirites, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We adiure you by Iesus, whom Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Iew, the Priest, about seuen which did this)

15 And the euil spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I know: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whome the euil spirit was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lorde Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeued, came and confessed, and e shewed their workes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious arts, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it f fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the Word of God grew mightily, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Nowe when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed i by the Spirit to passe thorough Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, after I haue bene there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but hee remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that k way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer ‖temples of Diana, l brought great gaines vnto the crafts men:

26 Moreouer, yee see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying, That they bee not gods which are made with handes:

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 7 He celebrateth the Lordes Supper and preacheth. 9 At Troas he raiseth vp Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus hee calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, & departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

NOw after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the Disciples vnto him, and imbraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those parties, and had exhorted them with many words, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing tarried there three moneths because the Iewes layd waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, hee purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sailed forth from s Philippi, after the dayes of vnleauened bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fiue dayes, where we abode seuen dayes.

7 And t the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to u breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morowe, and continued the preaching vntil midnight.

8 And there were many lightes in an vpper chamber, where ‖ they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a windowe a certaine young man named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, hee ouercome with sleepe, fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and laied himselfe vpon him, and embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, hee communed a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ Then we went forth to ship, & sailed vnto the citie x Assos, that we might receiue Paul there: for so had hee appointed, and would himselfe goe afoote.

14 Nowe when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And wee sayled thence, and came the nexte day ouer against Chios, and the nexte day wee arrived at Samos, and taried at Trogyllium: the nexte day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because hee would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted to be, if hee could possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of ‖ Pentecost.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, & called the elders of the Church.

3 And when we had diſcouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and ſailed toward Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the ſhip vnladed the burden.

29 For they had ſeene before Trophimus an Ephеſian with him in the citie whom they ſuppoſed * Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was mooued, & the people ran together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were ſhut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ieruſalem was on an vproze.

32 Who immediately tooke ſouldiours, and m Centurions, and ranne n downe vnto them: and when they ſawe the chiefe Captaine and the ſouldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe Captaine came neere and tooke him, and commaunded him to be bound with two chaines, and demaunded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cried this, another that, among the people. So when hee could not know the certaintie for the tumult, hee commanded him to be led into the caſtle.

35 And when he came vnto the greeces, it was ſo that he was borne of the ſouldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul ſhould haue bene led into the caſtle, he ſaid vnto the chiefe captaine, May I ſpeake vnto thee? Who ſaid, Canſt thou ſpeake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the * ° Egyptian, who before theſe dayes raiſed a ſedition, and led out into the wildernes foure thouſand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul ſayd, Doubtleſſe I am a man which am a Iewe, and citizen of * Tarſus, a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beſeech thee, ſuffer mee to ſpeake vnto the people.

40 And when hee had giuen him licence, Paul ſtoode on the greeces, and beckened with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great ſilence, he ſpake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, ſaying,

2 (And when they heard that hee ſpake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more ſilence, and he ſayd)

3 I am verily a man, which am a Iewe, borne in * Tarſus in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the a feete of Gamaliel, and inſtructed according to the perfect maner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

6 ¶ And ſo it was, as I iourneyed and was come neere vnto Damaſcus about noone, that ſuddenly there ſhone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voyce ſaying vnto mee, Saul, Saul, why perſecuteſt thou me?

8 Then I anſwered, Who art thou, Lord? And hee ſayd to mee, I am Ieſus of Nazaret, whom thou perſecuteſt.

9 Moreouer they that were with mee, ſawe in deede a light, and were afrayd: but they heard not the voyce of him that ſpake vnto me.

10 Then I ſayd, What ſhall I do, Lord? And the Lord ſayd vnto me, Ariſe, and goe into Damaſcus: and there it ſhall be tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not ſee for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with mee, and came into Damaſcus.

b To the Iewes to whom the letters were directed.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Lawe, having good report of all the Iewes which dwelt there, 13 Came vnto mee, and stoode, and sayde vnto me, Brother Saul, receyue thy sight: and that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath [c] appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that [d] Iust one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnesse vnto all men, of the things which thou hast seene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tariest thou? Arise, and bee baptized, and wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the [e] Name of the Lord.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And sawe him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receyue thy witnesse concerning me.

19 Then I sayd, Lord, they know that I * prisoned, and beate in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Steuen was shed, I also *stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he sayd vnto me, Depart, for I will send thee far hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift vp their voyces, and sayde, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meet that he should liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the aire, 24 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that he should bee scourged, and examined, that hee might know wherefore they cried so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul sayde vnto the Centurion that stoode by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is [f] a Romane, and not condemned?

26 Howe when the Centurion heard it, he went and tolde the chiefe captaine, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, & said to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he sayd, Yea.

28 Then the chiefe captaine answered, With a great summe obteined I this burgesship. Then Paul sayd, But I was [g] so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him, which should haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Romane, and that hee had bound him.

30 On the next day, because hee would haue knowen the certaintie wherefore hee was accused of the Iewes, hee loosed him from his bondes, and commaunded the hie Priestes and all their Counsell to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 The answere of Paul being smitten, and the ouerthrowe of his enemies. 11 The Lorde encourageth him. 23 And because the Iewes laied waite for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

AND Paul beheld earnestly the Councill, and sayde, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God until this day.

2 Then the hie Priest Ananias commanded them that stoode by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then sayde Paul to him, God [a] will smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Law, and commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stoode by, sayd, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then sayde Paul, I [b] knew not, brethren, that hee was the hie Priest: for it is written, *Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were of the Sadducees, and the other of the Pharises, he cried in the Councill, Men and brethren, *I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had said this, there was a dissension betweene the Pharises and the Sadducees, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 *For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirite: but the Pharises confesse [d] both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, and strone, saying, Wee finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chiefe captaine, fearing least Paul should haue bene pulled in peeces of them, commaunded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the Castle.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lorde stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certain of the Iewes made an assemblie, and bound themselues with an [e] othe, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were moe then fortie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and sayd, Wee haue bound our selues with a solemne othe, that we will eate nothing, until we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and the Councell, signifie to the chiefe captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morow, as though yee would knowe something more perfectly of him, and we, or euer he come nere, will bee ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters [f] sonne heard of a Paul doeth not curse the hie Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpō him, who vnder pretence of maintenining the Law, doth transgres it.

b He made this excuse as it were in mockerie, as if he would say, I know nothing in this man worthy the office of the hie Priest. Exod. 22, 28.

of their laying awaite, hee went, and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and sayd, Bring this young man vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So he tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and sayde, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hande, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he sayd, the Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring foorth Paul to morow into the Counsel, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them more then fourtie men, which haue bound themselues with an othe, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and nowe are they ready, and waite for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that hee had ‡ shewed him these things.

‡ Greeke, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and tenne, and two hundreth with darts, at the third houre of the night.

24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an ε Epistle in this manner:

ε This letter was written partly in the fauour of Paul, that his aduersaries might not oppresse him.

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, h perceiuing that he was a Romane.

h The Captaine dissembleth to commend his owne diligence: for he did not know that Paul was a Romane before he had rescued him, and giuen him to be straitly examined.

28 And when I would haue knowen the cause, wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their councill.

29 There I perceiued that hee was accused of questions of their Lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed mee, howe that the Iewes layde waite for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things ỳ they had against him. Farewel.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the nexte day, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the Castle.

33 Nowe when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the Epistle to the Gouernor, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouernour had read it, hee asked of what ι prouince hee was: and when he vnderstood that he was of Cilicia, ι By this name the Romanes called euery countrey which they had subdued.

35 I will heare thee, sayd hee, when thine accusers also are come, and commaunded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused answereth for his life, and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Fœlix gropeth him, thinking to haue a bribe. 28 And after leaueth him in prison.

NOwe after fiue dayes, Ananias the hie Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Oratour, which appeared before ỳ Gouernor against Paul.

2 And when hee was called foorth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obteined great quietnesse through thee, & that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 Wee acknowledge it wholy, and in all places, most ª noble Felix, with all thankes.

ª For Fœlix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captaine of the murtherers, and put the Egyptian to flight which raysed vp tumults in Iudea, for these the oratour praiseth him: otherwise he was both cruel and couetous, reade Iosephus lib. 20. Antiq. cap. 11. & 12. & lib. 2. de bello Iudaico cap. 12.

4 But that I bee not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courtesie a few words.

5 Certainely we haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world, and a chiefe mainteiner of the ᵇ sect of the ᶜ Nazarites:

b Or, heresie: for so the wicked termed the true christian religion.

c Which taught the people to maintaine their libertie against the Romanes: and though the accusers approued both this sect, and their doctrine, yet to get Paul punished, they seeme to condemne it.

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our Lawe:

7 But the ‖ chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

‖ Or, captaine of a thousand.

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) knowe all these things whereof wee accuse him.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckened vnto him that hee should speake, answered, I do the more gladly answere for my selfe, forasmuch as I knowe that thou hast bene of many yeres a ᵈ iudge vnto this ᵉ nation,

d Or, gouernour

e So that thou art not ignorant of their fashions.

11 Seeing that thou mayest knowe, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp ᶠ to worship in Ierusalem.

f Not that his purpose was to worship there, but the Iewes so founde him by the counsell of others: for he thought to haue wonne the simple brethren, and to stoppe the enemies mouthes.

12 And they neither founde mee in the Temple disputing with any man, neither making vproare among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the citie.

13 Neither can they prooue the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call heresie) so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Lawe and the Prophets, g As the Scribes and Pharises termed the Christians doctrine.

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselues looke for also, shall be both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I endeuor my selfe to haue alway a cleare conscience toward God, and toward men.

h Meaning, that it was a long time since he had bene at Ierusalem, which was when he brought almes.

17 Now after h many yeres I came and brought *almes to my nation and offrings.

18 *At what time certaine Iewes of Asia found me purified in the Temple,

* Chap. 23.6.

23 Now when Felix heard these things, he deferred them, and sayde, When I shall more perfectly know the things which concerne this ‖ way, by the comming of Lysias the chiefe Captaine, I will decide your matter.

‖ Or, sect.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that hee should haue ease, and that hee shoulde forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 ¶ And after certaine dayes, came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Iewesse, and hee called for Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

k By whose counsel Felix called for Paul.

26 And as hee disputed of righteousnes, and temperance, and of the iudgement to come, Felix l trembled, and answered, Goe thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I will cal for thee.

l The word of God maketh the very wicked astonished, and therefore to them it is the sauour of death vnto death.

27 Hee hoped also that money should haue bin given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

28 When two yeres were expired, Portius Festus came into Felix roome: and Felix willing to ‖ get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound.

‖ Or, to doe a pleasure.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 Hee answereth for himselfe, 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa, 23 And is brought foorth.

WHen Festus was then come into the Prouince, after three dayes he went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him, a The enuious suit of the Priests against Paul.

3 And a desired fauour against him, that hee would sende for him to Ierusalem: and they layd waite to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, sayde hee, which among you are b able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

b Which may most commodiously.

6 ¶ Nowe when hee had taried among them no more then tenne dayes, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sate in the iudgement seat, and command Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Iewes which were come from Ierusalem stood about him, and layde many, and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they could not proue,

8 Forasmuch as hee answered c that hee had neither offended any thing against the law of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

c Paul defendeth himselfe in iudgement.

9 Yet Festus willing to ‖ get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and saide, Wilt thou goe vp to Ierusalem, and there bee iudged of these things before me?

‖ Or, to doe pleasure.

10 Then saide Paul, I stand at d Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to be iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

d Seeing himselfe betrayed by the ambition of the iudge, he desireth that in consideration of his freedome, he may be sent to Rome.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die, but if there bee none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

e It is lawful to require the defence of the Magistrate to maintaine our right.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Counsell, hee answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

f Without whose consent he could doe nothing.

13 ¶ And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and e Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

g This was his own sister whom he entertained.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus propoled Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whome when I came to Ierusalem, the hie Priests & Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgment against him.

16 To whome I answered that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to the death, before that hee which is accused haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe, concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay, the day following I sate on the iudgement seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whome when the accusers stoode vp, they brought no crime of such things as I suppose:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne h superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aliue.

h This word doeth also signifie religion: but he speaketh in contempt of the true doctrine.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him whether hee would go to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be reserued to the examination of Augustus, I commaunded him to bee kept, till I might sende him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayde vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrowe, said he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morrowe when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the ‖ Common hall with the chiefe captaines and chiefe men of the citie, at Festus commandement mandement Paul was brought foorth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpon me, both at Ierusalem, and here, crying, that hee ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthy of death, that hee hath committed: neuertheless, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whome I haue no certeine thing to write vnto my [i] lord: wherefore I haue brought him foorth vnto you, and specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For mee thinketh it vnreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shew the causes which are laid against him.

i Flatterers first vsed to call Tyrants by this name, and after it so grewe into vse, that vertuous Princes refused it not, as appeareth by Plinies epistle to Traiane.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approued by rehearsing his conuersation. 25 His modest answere against the iniuries of Festus.

THen Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched foorth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happie, King Agrippa, because I shall answere this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefely, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore, I beseech thee [a] to heare me patiently.

a Forasmuch as he best vnderstood the religion, he ought to be more attentiue.

4 As touching my life from my childehood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Iewes,

5 Which knew mee heretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most straite [b] sect of our religion, I liued a Pharise.

b Paul speaketh of this sect according to the peoples estimation, who preferred it as most holy aboue all others: for their doctrine was least corrupt.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O king Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it bee thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to do many contrarie things against the Name of Iesus of Nazaret.

10 * Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saintes I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the hie Priestes, and when they were put to death, I [c] gaue my sentence. Chap. 8. 3.

c That is, I approued their crueltie which they vsed against them

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more madde against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to * Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the hie Priestes, Chap. 9. 2, 3.

13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightnesse of the sunne, shine round about mee, & them which went with mee.

14 So when wee were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee, and saying in the Hebrewe tongue, * Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against pricks. Chap. 9. 4. and 22. 7.

15 Then I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feete: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee.

17 Deliuering thee from the [d] people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee, d Of the Iewes.

18 To [e] open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenesse of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me. e Although this properly appertaineth vnto God, yet he applieth this vnto his ministers vnto whom he giueth his holy Spirit.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly vision, 20 * But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendement of life. Chap. 9. 22, 26. and 13. 14, 16.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught mee in the * Temple, and went about to kill me. Chap. 21. 30.

22 Neuertheless I obteined helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moses did say should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as hee thus answered for himselfe, Festus said with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art beside thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee madde.

25 But he said, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of trueth and soberneste.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldely: for I am perswaded that [f] none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner. f He knew that the Law, and the Prophets were of God, but he did not vnderstand the true applying of the same.

27 O King Agrippa, beleeuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleeuest.

28 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest mee to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul said, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bondes.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthie of death, not of bondes.

32 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene loosed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls daungerous voyage, and his companie toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arriue.

Now when it was concluded, that wee should saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certeine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And * wee entred into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coastes of Asia, and launched foorth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friendes, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we lanched, ‖ sayled hard by [a] Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sayling into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when wee had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarse were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sailed hard by ‖ Candie, neere to [b] Salmone,

8 And with much adoe sayled beyond it, and came vnto a certeine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was now ieopardous, because also the [c] Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And said vnto them, Syrs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much domage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheless the Centurion beleeued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might atteine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lieth toward the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

13 And when the Southerne wind blew softly, they supposing to obteine their purpose, loosed neere, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called [d] Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, we let her goe, and were caryed away.

16 And we ranne vnder a little Ile named [e] Clauda, and had much adoe to get the boate.

17 Which they tooke vp and vsed all helpe, vndergirding the shippe, fearing least they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the ‖ vessell, and so were caryed.

18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they ‖ lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne handes the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that wee should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood foorth in the middes of them, and said, Syrs, yee should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue [f] gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall bee no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stood by mee this night the Angel of [g] God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto [h] thee all that sayle with thee.

25 Wherefore, Syrs, be of good courage: for I [i] beleeue God, that it shall be so as it hath bene told mee.

26 Howbeit, wee must be cast into a certeine Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as wee were caried to and fro in the [k] Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approched vnto them, 28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a litle further, they sounded againe, and found fifteene fathoms.

29 Then fearing least they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ancres out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Now as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ancres out of the foreshippe, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, & the souldiers, Except these abide in the shippe, [l] ye cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue taryed, and continued [m] fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your safegard: for there shall not [n] an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thankes to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then

37 Nowe wee were in the ſhip in all two hundreth threeſcore and ſixteene ſoules.

38 And when they had eaten ynough, they lightened the ſhippe, and caſt out the wheate into the ſea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the countrey, but they ſpied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were poſſible) to thruſt in the ſhippe.

40 So when they had taken vp the ancres, they committed the ſhippe vnto the ſea, and looſed the rudder bonds, and hoyſed vp the maine ſaile to the winde, and drew to the ſhore.

41 And when they fel into a place, where two ſeas met, they thruſt in the ſhippe: and the fore-part ſtucke faſt, and could not bee moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the ſouldiers counſell was o to kill the priſoners: leaſt any of them, when he had ſwomme out, ſhould flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to ſaue Paul, ſtayed them from this counſell, and commaunded that they that could ſwimme, ſhould caſt themſelues firſt into the ſea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other, ſome on boardes, and ſome on certaine pieces of the ſhippe: and ſo it came to paſſe, that they came al ſafe to land.

2 Paul with his company are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper burteth him not. 8 Hee healeth Publius father and others, and being furniſhed by them of things neceſſary, hee fared toward Rome, 15 Where being received of the brethren, he declareth his buſineſſe, 30 And there preacheth two yeares.

7 In the ſame quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whoſe name was Publius) had poſſeſſions: the ſame receiued vs, & lodged vs three dayes courteouſly.

8 And ſo it was, that the father of Publius lay ſicke of the feuer, and of a bloodie flixe: to whome Paul entred in, and when he prayed, he layd his handes on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other alſo in the Ile, which had diſeaſes, came to him and were healed.

10 Which alſo did vs great honour: and when wee departed, they laded vs with things neceſſarie.

11 Nowe after three moneths wee departed in a ſhip of Alexandria, which had wintred in the Ile, whoſe badge was e Caſtor and Pollux.

e These the Painims fained to be Iupiters children and gods of the ſea.

12 And when wee arriued at Syracuſe, we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee fet a compaſſe, and came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blew, and we came the ſecond day to Putiolt, 14 Where wee found brethren, and were deſired to tary with them ſeuen dayes, and ſo we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the f Three ſtauernes, whom when Paul ſaw, he thanked God, and waxed bold.

f These places were diſtant from Rome a dayes iourney, or thereabout.

16 So when wee came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the priſoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was g ſuffered to dwel by himſelfe with a ſouldier that kept him.

‖Or, ſhoppes.

g No doubt the captaine vnderſtood both by Feſtus letters, & alſo by the report of the vnder captaine, that Paul had committed no fault.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he ſaid vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing againſt the people or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered priſoner from Ieruſalem into the handes of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined mee, would haue let me goe, becauſe there was no cauſe of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes ſpake contrary, I was conſtreined to appeale vnto Ceſar, not becauſe I had ought to accuſe my nation of.

20 For this cauſe therefore haue I called for you, to ſee you, and to ſpeake with you: for the hope of h Iſraels ſake, I am bound with this chaine.

h That Is, for Ieſus Chriſts cauſe, whom they had long looked for as he that ſhould be the redeemer of the world.

21 Then they ſaid vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that ſhewed or ſpake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkeſt: for as concerning this ſect, wee knowe that euery where it is ſpoken againſt.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and teſtified the i kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Ieſus, both out of the Law of Moſes, and out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

i That this kingdome, which was ſpoken of by the Prophets, was offred vnto them by the comming of Chriſt.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousnesse is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfil the Law, yea, committed most abominably, both against the law of God, and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindful of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordeined that mans saluation should only stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not only the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust onely through faith, and yet afterward receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousnes by faith. And to the intent that none should thinke that the couenant which God made to him, & his posterity was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ, (which was the blessed seed) or els beleeued not that he was the true redeemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preserue the Iewes: the examples of Ismael and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promes. The cause whereof is the only wil of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth some to be saued, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberall mercy of God, which he at length will stretch toward the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This ground-worke of faith and doctrine layed, instructions of Christian maners follow: teaching euery man to walke in roundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the magistrate, exercising charitie, putting off the olde man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christes example. Finally, S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

11 ¶ For I long to see you, that I might bestowe among you some spirituall gift, to strengthen you, 12 That is, that I might bee confoyted together with you, through our mutual faith, both yours and mine.

13 ✻ Nowe my brethren, I woulde that ye shoulde not bee ignorant, how that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene [m] let hitherto) that I might haue some [n] fruite also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men and to the vnwise.

15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not [o] ashamed of the Gospell of Christ: for it is the ✻ [p] power of God vnto saluation to euery one that beleeueth, to the Iewe first, and also to the ‖Grecian.

17 For by it the [q] righteousnesse of [r] God is reuealed, from faith to faith: as it is written, ✻ The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reuealed from heauen against all [s] vngodlinesse, and vnrighteousnesse of men, which withholde the trueth [t] in vnrighteousnesse, 19 For asmuch as that, which may bee knowen of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the worlde, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse:

21 ✻ Because that when they knew God, they [u] glorified him not as God, neither were thankefull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkenesse.

22 When they professed themselues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God [x] [y] gaue them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto vncleannesse, to defile their owne bodies betweene themselues:

25 Which turned the trueth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, ‖ forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their ‖ lust one toward another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and receiued in themselues such recompence of their error, as was meete. ‖Or, appetite.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto a [z] reprobate minde, to doe those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being ful of all vnrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, couetousnesse, maliciousnesse, full of enuie, of murther, of debate, of deceite, taking all things in the euill part, whisperers, 30 Backebiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proude, boasters, inuenters of euill things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, couenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer be appeased, merciless.

31 Which men, though they knewe [a] the ‖ Lawe of God, howe that they which commit such things, are worthie of death, yet not onely doe the same, but also [b] fauour them that doe them.

z That is, such one as was destitute of all iudgement.
a Which lawe God writ in their consciences, and the Philosophers called it the Law of nature: the lawyers, the lawe of nations, where of Moses law is a plaine exposition. ‖Or, righteousnes.
b Or, consent to them: which is the full measure of all iniquitie.

CHAP. II.

THerefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoeuer thou art that ‖ [a] iudgest: ✻ for in that that thou iudgest another, thou condemnest [b] thy selfe: for thou that iudgest, doest the same things. ‖Or, blamest.
a Neither they which doe approoue euill doers, nor they which reproue them, are excusable before God, Matt. 7.1, 2. 1. cor. 4.5.
b For either thou art guiltie of the same fault, or the like.

2 But we knowe that the iudgement of God is according to [c] trueth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudgest them which doe such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his bountifulnes, and ✻ patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifulnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou after thine hardnesse, and heart that cannot repent, ✻ heapest vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of [d] wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

6 ✻ Who will reward euery man according to his [e] workes:

7 That is, to them which by continuance in well doing seeke glorie, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious and disobey the trueth, and obey vnrighteousnesse, shalbe indignation and wrath.

13 (* For the hearers of the Law are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Lawe shalbe iustified.
14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the Law, doe by nature the things conteined in the Law, they hauing not the Lawe, are a Lawe vnto themselues, 15 Which shewe the effect of the Lawe written in their i hearts, their conscience also bearing witnesse, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing,) 16 At the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.
17 ¶ k Beholde, thou art called a Iewe, and restest in the Law, and* gloriest in God,
18 And knowest his will, and ‖allowest the things that are excellent, In that thou art instructed by the Lawe,
19 And perswadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse,
20 An instructer of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the l forme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the Lawe:
21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man shoulde not steale, doest thou steale?
22 Thou that sayest, A man shoulde not commit adulterie, doest thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrilege?
23 Thou that gloriest in the Lawe, through breaking the lawe, dishonourest thou God?
24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you,* as it is written.
25 For circumcision verily is profitable, if thou doe the Law: but if thou be a transgressour of the Lawe, thy m circumcision is made vncircumcision.
26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Lawe, shall not his vncircumcision bee counted for circumcision?
27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Lawe,) ‖iudge thee which by the * letter and circumcision are a transgressour of the Lawe?
28 For hee is not a Iewe, which is one outwarde: neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Iewe which is one within, and the * circumcision is of the heart, in the *spirite, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Hauing graunted some prerogatiue to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 He proueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes & Gentiles to be sinners, 21.24 And to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by workes, 31 And so the Lawe to be established.

WHat is then the preferment of the Iewe? or what is the profite of circumcision?
2 Much euery maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the ‖oracles of God.
3 For what though some did not beleeue? shall their * vnbeliefe make the ‖faith of God without effect?
4 God forbid: yea, let God be * true, and * euery man a lyar, as it is written, * That thou might est bee *iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome when thou art iudged.
5 Nowe if b our vnrighteousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which punisheth? (I speake * as a man)
6 God forbid: els howe shall God iudge the world?
7 For if the veritie of God hath more abounded through my lye vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?
8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that wee say) why doe wee not euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.
9 What then? d are wee more excellent? No, in no wise: for wee haue already prooued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are * vnder sinne, 10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.
11 There is none that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.
12 They are all gone out of the way: they haue beene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

19 Nowe we knowe that whatsoeuer the f Lawe sayeth, it saith it to them which are vnder the Lawe, that euery mouth may bee stopped, and all the worlde be g culpable before God.
20 * Therefore by the workes of the h Lawe shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Lawe commeth the knowledge of sinne.

k Or, fidelitie in performing his promise.

l The lawe of faith is ỹ Gospel which offereth salvation with condition (if thou beleevest) which condition also Christ freely giveth to vs. So the condition of the Lawe is (if thou dost all these things) the which only Christ hath fulfilled for vs.

m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one meanes, and if they will have any difference, it onely standeth in wordes: for in effect there is none.

21 But nowe is the * righteousnes of God made manifest without the Lawe, beeing witnes of the Law and of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousnes of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleeve.

23 For there is no difference: for all have sinned, and are i depriued of the glory of God, 24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus.

25 Whome God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his k righteousnesse, by the forgivenesse of sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God, 26 To shewe at this time his righteousnesse, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law: of workes? Nay: but by the l Law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

29 God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision m of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

31 Doe we then make the Lawe of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, n we establish the Law.

n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Lawe: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Lawe: so that the Law which could not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is nowe made effectuall to vs by Christ Iesus.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 Hee declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by them themselues of whome the Iewes most boasted, as of Abraham and of David, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

a That is, by workes.

b He might pretend some merite or worke worthy to be recompensed. Gen.15.6.gala. 3.6.iam.2.23.

c Meriteth by his workes.

d That dependeth not on his workes, neither thinketh to merite by them.

e Which maketh him that is wicked in himselfe, iust in Christ. Psal.32.1.

f Vnder this excellent sacrament he comprehendeth the whole Law.

WHat shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found a concerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, hee hath wherein to b reioyce, but not with God.

3 For what sayth the Scripture? * Abraham beleeved God, and it was counted to him for righteousnes.

4 Nowe to him, that c worketh, the wages is not counted by favour, but by debt:

5 But to him that d worketh not, but beleeveth in him that e iustifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousnes.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnes without workes, saying,

7 * Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are covered.

8 Blessed is the man, to whome the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednesse then vpon the f circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For wee say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousnes.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 * After he received the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousnesse of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that hee should be the father of all them that beleeve, nos being circumcised, that righteousnes might be imputed to them also,

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the g steppes of the faith of our father Abraham, which hee had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that hee should be the heire of the worlde was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seede, through the h Law, but through the righteousnes of faith.

14 For if they which i are of the Law, be k heires, faith is made voyd, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Lawe causeth l wrath: for where no Lawe is, there is no m transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might bee sure to n all the seede, not to that only which is of the Law: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen o before God whome hee beleeved, who quickeneth the dead, & calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham above hope, beleeved vnder hope, that hee should be the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, * So shall thy seede be.

19 And he q not weake in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yere old, neither r the deadnesse of Saras wombe.

20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through vnbeleefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gave s glory to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

23 Nowe it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousnesse,

24 But also t for vs, to whome it shall be imputed for righteousnesse which beleeve in him that raysed vp Iesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was deliuered to death for our sinnes, and u is risen againe for our iustification.

g This may not be vnderstood of the fruits of faith: (for thereof ỹ Apostle doth hereafter expressly intreate) but of the faith it selfe.

h In fulfilling ỹ workes thereof.

i And thinke to performe ỹ same by workes.

k If it be requisite to fulfill the lawe for him that shall be of Abrahams inheritance, then it is in vaine to beleeve the promise: for it serveth to no vse.

l Through our default, and not of it selfe.

m That is, no breach of commandement.

n Which beleeve.

CHAP. V.

1 Hee declareth the fruites of faith. 7 And by comparison setteth forth the love of God and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and ground of the same.

THen being iustified by faith, wee haue [a] peace toward God through our Lorde Iesus Christ.

2 * By whome also wee haue accesse through faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glory of God.

3 Neither doe we so only, but also we * reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

4 And patience experience, & experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not [b] ashamed, because the [c] loue of God is shead abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when wee were yet of no strength, at his time, died for the * vngodly.

7 Doubtles one will scarce die for a [d] righteous man: but yet for a [e] good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, wee shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were [f] enemies wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shall be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but wee also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whome wee haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men: for al much as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time [g] of the Lawe was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death raigned from Adam to Moses, euen ouer them also that sinned not [h] after the like maner of the transgression of [i] Adam, which was the figure of [k] him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, & the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is [l] of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death raigned through one, much more shall they which receiue the aboundance of grace, and of the gift of [m] righteousnesse, raigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefit abounded toward [n] all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Moreouer the [o] Law entred thereupon, that the offence should [p] abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had raigned vnto death, so might grace also raigne by righteousnesse vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glory in the flesh, but rather seeke to subdue it to the spirit, 3 Hee sheweth by the vertue and ende of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousnesse.

WHat shall wee say then? Shall wee continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we that are [a] dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that * all we which haue bene baptized into [b] Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 * Wee are buried then with him by baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was raysed vp from the dead by the glory of the Father, so wee also should * walke in newnesse of life.

5 * For if we be [c] grafted with him [d] to the similitude of his death, euen so shall wee be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the [e] body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth wee should not serue sinne.

7 For hee that is dead is [f] freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall also liue with him, 9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died once [g] to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to [h] God.

11 Likewise thinke yee also, that yee are [i] dead to sinne, but are aliue [k] to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne raigne therefore in your mortall body, that yee should obey it in the [l] lustes thereof.

13 Neither giue yee your members as ‖ weapons of vnrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousnesse vnto God.

a By peace here is meant that incredible & most constant ioy of minde, when wee are deliuered fro al terrour of conscience and fully perswaded of the fauour of God: and this peace is the fruite of faith. Ephes.2.18. Iames 1.3.

g That hee might destroy sinne in our flesh. h And sitteth at the right hand of the Father. i Wee may gather that wee are dead to sinne, when sinne beginneth to die in vs: which is by the participation of Christes death, by whom also being quickened, we liue to God, that is, to righteousnesse. k In that yee are led with the Spirit of God. l The minde first ministreth euill motions, where by mans will is entised: thence burst foorth the lustes by them the body is prouoked, and the body by his actions doeth sollicite the minde: therefore he commandeth, at the least that we rule our bodies. ‖ Or, Instruments, or, armour.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion ouer you: for yee are not vnder the [m] Law, but vnder [a] grace.

15 What then? shall wee sinne, because wee are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 *Knowe yee not that to whomsoeuer yee giue your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are, to whom yee obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of [o] obedience vnto righteousnesse?

17 But God be thanked, that yee haue bene the seruants of sinne, but yee haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye are [p] deliuered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousnesse.

19 I speake [r] after the manner of men, because of the infirmitie of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleannesse and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so nowe giue your members seruants vnto righteousnesse in [q] holinesse.

20 For when yee were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousnesse.

22 But nowe being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, yee haue your fruite in holinesse, and the ende euerlasting life.

CHAP. VII.

1.7.12 The vse of the Lawe, 6. 24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it, 16 The infirmitie of the faithfull, 23 The dangerous fight betweene the flesh and the Spirit.

KNowe ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the [a] Lawe hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 *For the [b] woman which is in subiection to a man, is bound by the Lawe to the man, whyle hee liueth: but if the man bee dead, she is deliuered from the Lawe of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, she shalbe called an *adulteresse: but if the man be dead, she is free from the Lawe, so that shee is not an adulteresse, though shee take another man.

4 So yee, my brethren, are dead also to the Lawe by the body of Christ, that yee shoulde bee vnto another, euen vnto [c] him that is raysed vp from the dead, that wee should bring forth fruite vnto God.

5 For when wee were [d] in the flesh, the ‖motions of sinnes, which were by the Lawe, had force in our members, to bring forth fruite vnto death.

6 But nowe wee are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that wee shoulde serue in newnesse of spirite, and not in the oldenesse of the letter.

7 [e] What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knewe not sinne, but by the Lawe: for I had not knowen [f] lust, except the Law had said, *Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commaundement, and wrought in me all maner of concupiscence: for without the law sinne is dead.

9 For I once [h] was aliue, without the lawe: but when the commaundement came, sinne reuiued, 10 But I died: and the same commaundement which was ordained vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued me, and thereby slewe me.

12 Wherefore the Law is *holy, and the commaundement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might [i] appeare sinne, wrought death in mee by that which is good, that sinne might bee out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14 For we know that the Lawe [k] is spirituall, but I am carnall solde vnder sinne.

15 For I allowe not that which I doe: for what I [l] woulde, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I doe then that which I woulde not, I consent to the Lawe, that it is good.

17 Nowe then, it is no more I, that doe [m] it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe that in mee, that is, in my ‖ flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to wil is present with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing, which I woulde, but the euill, which I woulde not, that doe I.

20 Nowe if I doe that I woulde not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Lawe, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delite in the Law of God, concerning the [o] inner man:

23 But I see another ‖ Lawe in my [p] members, rebelling against the Lawe of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the [q] body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lorde. Then I my selfe in my minde serue the Lawe of God, but in my [r] flesh the Law of sinne.

i But to liue after the Spirite.
k So hee nameth the holy Ghost of the effect, which hee causeth in vs, when he proposeth vs saluation by the law with an impossible condition, who also doeth seale our saluation in our hearts by Christes free adoption, that wee consider not God now as a rigorous Lord, but as a most mercifull Father. *Galat.*4.5,6.
l So that we haue two witnesses, Gods spirite, and ours, who is certified by the Spirite of God.

NOwe then there is no [a] condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not [b] after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the [c] Lawe of the Spirite of life, which is in [d] Christ Iesus, hath freed mee from the lawe of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the lawe, in as much as it was ‖ weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the [e] similitude of sinfull flesh, and ‖ for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the [f] righteousnesse of the Lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh sauour the [g] things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirite, the things of the Spirite.

6 For the wisedome of the flesh is death, but the wisedome of the spirite is life and peace,

7 Because the wisedome of the flesh is enimitie against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither in deede can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now yee are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, ‖ because the Spirite of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ bee in you, the ‖ body is dead, because of sinne: but the [h] Spirite is life for righteousnesse sake.

11 But if the Spirite of him that rayled vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, hee that rayled vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, wee are debters not to the flesh, to liue after the [i] flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the bodie by the Spirite, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirite of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For yee haue not receiued the spirite of bondage to feare againe: but yee haue receiued the Spirite of [k] adoption, whereby we crie [l] Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirite [l] beareth witnesse with our spirite, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also [m] heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, if so bee that we suffer with him, that wee may also bee glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not ‖ worthy of the glory, which shall be shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature wayteth when the sonnes of God shall bee reuealed.

20 Because the [n] creature is subiect to [o] vanitie, not of it owne will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope.

21 Because the creature also shall be deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For wee knowe that euery [p] creature groneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but wee also which haue the [q] first fruites of the Spirite, euen wee doe sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the [r] redemption of our body.

24 For we are saued by hope: but [s] hope that is seene, is not hope: for howe can a man hope for that which hee seeth?

25 But if we hope for that wee see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to pray as we ought: but the spirite it selfe maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But hee that searcheth the heartes, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirite: for he [t] maketh request for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 Also we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he [u] knewe before, hee also predestinated to bee made like to the [x] image of his sonne, that he might bee the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whome hee predestinated, them also hee called, and whome hee called, them also he iustified, and whome hee iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall wee then say to these things? If God bee on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who [y] spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, howe shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that [z] iustifieth, 34 Who shall condemne? it is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hande of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sworde?

36 As it is written, * For thy sake are we [z] killed

12 It was said vnto her, * The elder shal serue the yonger:
13 As it is written, * I haue loued Iacob, and haue hated Esau.

16 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercy.

27 Also Esaias crieth concerning Israel, * Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saued.
28 l For he will make his account, and gather it into a short summe with righteousnesse: for the Lord wil make a short count in the earth.
29 * And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a seed, we had bene made as m Sodome, and had bene like to Gomorrha.
30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousnesse, haue attained vnto righteousnesse, euen the righteousnesse which is of faith.
31 But Israel which followed the Lawe of righteousnesse, could not attaine vnto the Law of righteousnesse.
32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Law: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone, 33 As it is written, * Beholde, I lay in Sion a n stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euery one that beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

n Iesus Christ is to the infidels destruction, and to the faithfull life and resurrection.

BRethren, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they haue a the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of the righte-ousnesse of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousnesse, haue not submitted themselues to the righteousnesse of God.

4 * For Christ is the b ende of the Lawe for righteousnesse vnto euery one that bele-eueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righte-ousnesse which is of the Lawe, * That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousnesse which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, c* Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen?
(that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deepe, (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? * The word is nere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart.
This is the d worde of faith which wee preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with e the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoeuer beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoeuer shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

14 But howe shall they call on him, in whome they haue not beleeued? and howe shall they beleeue on him, of whome they haue not heard? and howe shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And howe shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * Howe beautiful are the ‖ feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias saith, * Lord, who hath beleeued our f report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing
g by the word of God.

18 But I demaund, Haue h they not heard? * No doubt their i sound went out through all the earth, and their wordes into the endes of the k world.

19 But I demaund, Did not Israel knowe God? First Moses sayth, * I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Esaias is bolde, and sayth, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hands vnto a ‖ disobedient, and gainesaying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although it be not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles: 18 Whome hee warneth to humble themselues. 29 The giftes of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

IDemaund then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which hee a knewe before. Knowe yee not what the Scripture sayth of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God b against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life.

4 But what saieth the answere of God to him? * I haue reserued vnto my selfe c seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the ‖ election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace:
but if it be of workes, it is no more grace:
or else were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obteined that he sought: but the election hath obteined it, and the rest haue bene hardened,

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of ‖ slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid sayth, * Let their d table be made a snare, and a nette, and a stumbling blocke, for a recompense vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened y they see not, and e bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaund then, Haue they stumbled, that they f should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to g prouoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the h riches of the Gentiles how much more shall their abundance be?

tiles, I magnifie mine office,

I Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that yee giue vp your bodies a a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your b reasonable seruing of God.

5 So wee being many are one body in Christ, f euery one, one anothers members.

1 The obedience to the Rulers. 4 Why they haue the sworde. 8 Charitie ought to measure all our doings. 11 An exhortation to innocencie and puritee of life.

LEt * euery soule bee subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordeined of God.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shal receiue to themselues [a] iudgement.

3 For Princes are not to bee feared for good workes, but for euill. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For hee is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou doe euill, feare: for hee beareth not the sword for nought: for hee is the minister of God ‡ to take vengeance on him that doeth euill.

5 Wherefore yee must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for [b] conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause yee pay also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying themselues for the same [c] thing.

7 * Giue to all men therefore their duetie: tribute, to whome yee owe tribute: custome, to whom custome: feare, to whom feare: honour, to whom yee owe honour.

8 Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the [d] Law.

9 For this, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare falsse witnesse, Thou shalt not couet: and if there bee any other commaundement, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, euen in this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The weake ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offend another's conscience, 15 But one to support another in charitie and faith.

HIm that is weake in the [a] faith, receiue vnto you, but not [b] for controuersies of disputations.

2 One beleeueth that hee may eate of all things: and another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.

4 * Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? hee standeth or falleth to his owne [c] master: yea, hee shall be established: for God is able to make him stand.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue another day, and another man counteth euery day alike: let euery man bee [d] fully perswaded in his minde.

6 Hee that [e] obserueth the day, obserueth it to the [f] Lorde: and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lorde. Hee that eateth, eateth to the Lorde: for hee giueth God thanks: and hee that [g] eateth not, [h] eateth not to the Lorde, and giueth God thankes.

7 For none of vs liueth [i] to himselfe, neither doeth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether we liue, wee liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore dyed, and rose againe, and reuiued, that hee might bee Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother? * for wee shall all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ.

11 For it is written, * [k] As I liue, saieth the Lord, and euery knee shall bowe to mee, and all tongues shall [l] confesse vnto God.

a That is, the doctrine of the Gospel.
b Lest he should depart eyther more ignorant then he came, or else with a greater scruple of conscience.

c It is the Lords matter, and not thine.
d We must be assured in our conscience by Gods word in all things that wee doe: that if we be strong, we may know what is our libertie: and if we be weake, wee may learne to profite dayly.
e That counteth one day more holy then another.
f Who iudgeth whether he doe well or no.
g Because hee thinketh the meates vncleane by the Law.
h Here we must note three things: first, that he speaketh of things which of themselues are indifferent, albeit in the Law they were not: next, that he reproueth not the condemning of the acte, but of the persons: thirdly, that he meaneth not the stubburne and malicious, whom hee calleth dogges and concision, but the weake and infirme, to whom God as yet hath not reuealed the perfect libertie.
i Both our life and death ought to profite our brother. 2. Cor.5.10. Isa 45.23. phil.2.10.
k This othe particularly appertaineth to God, who is the true life of himselfe and giueth it to all others.
l And acknowledge me for their God.

12 So then euery one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 [m] I know, and am perswaded through the Lorde Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to bee vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother bee grieued for the meate, now walkest thou not charitably: [n] destroy not him with thy meat, for whome Christ died.

16 Cause not your [o] commoditie to bee euill spoken of.

17 For the [o] kingdome of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousnesse, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoeuer [p] in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

19 Let vs then followe those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: [q] all things in deed are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 [q] It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou [q] faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is hee that [r] condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For hee that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because he eateth not of faith: and whatsoeuer is not of [r] faith, is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 And by the onely mercy of God which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 He sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 And requireth the same of them.

WE which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to [a] edification.

a To edifie, signifieth to doe all maner dueties to our neighbour, either to bring him to Christ, or if he be wonne, that hee may growe from faith to faith: for the faithfull are called the Temple of God wherein he is resident by his holy Spirit: and these faithfull are the stones of the newe Ierusalem: that is, the vniuersall Church, Isa.54. Reue.21. of the which building Christ is the chiefe corner stone, Ephes.2.20. Psal.69.7,9. b I did so beare them as if they had bene done to mee, and not to my father.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell [b] on me.

4 For whatsoeuer things are written afore time, are written for our learning, that wee through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures might haue hope.

5 Now the God of [c] patience and consolation giue you that yee be * like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus, 6 That ye with one mind, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore, receiue yee one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the [d] glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a [e] minister of the circumcision, for the [f] truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercy as it is written, * For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe hee sayth, * Reioyce, yee Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lorde all ye Gentiles, and laude yee him all people together.

12 And againe Esaias saith, * There shal be a roote of Iesse, and [g] hee that shall rise to reigne ouer the [h] Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ioy, and peace in beleeuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that yee also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonith one another.

15 Neuertheless brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen mee of God,

16 That I should bee the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministring the Gospell of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might bee acceptable [i] being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not [k] speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in worde and deede, 19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the spirite of God: so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospell, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom hee was not spoken of, they shal see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene * oft let to come vnto you.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue * bene desirous many yeeres agone to come vnto you,

24 When I shall take my iourney into Spaine, I will come to you: for I trust to

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that Saint Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and a halfe, hee was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to sayle into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glory, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospell. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian religion. Against these euils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproueth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concorde and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heauenly wisedome of the Gospel, which cannot bee perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods Spirite, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this saluation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruantes they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued him selfe skilfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the ende proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they bee not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, hee sheweth them that hee dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit hee had declared by manifest signes that hee neuer sought his owne glorie, neither yet howhee might liue, but onely the glorie of Christ: which thing at his comming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought themselues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproued and vnpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slaunder of the Gospel. This done, hee answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of marriage, of discord and dissention among the married, of virginitie, and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to bee present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weake brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindred, and their consciences wounded, which thing, rather then hee woulde doe, hee would neuer vse that libertie which God had giuen him. But for asmuch as pride, and selfewill was the cause of those great euils, hee admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glorie in these outwarde giftes, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to bee a warning to all men to followe Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then hee correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spirituall giftes, which God hath giuen to maintaine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all hee exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee prayseth the great graces of God shewed toward them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humilitie. 19 Hee beateth downe all pride, and wisedome which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whom God hath chosen to confound the wisedome of the world.

PAul called to be an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

2 Vnto the Church of God which is at Corinthus, to them that are * a sanctified in Christ Iesus, *b Saintes by calling, *with all that c call on the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ in euery place, both their Lord and ours:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

4 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe for the d grace of God, which is giuen you in Iesus Christ,

5 * That in all things yee are made rich e in him, in f all kinde of speach, and in all knowledge:

6 As the testimonie of Iesus Christ hath bene confirmed in you:

7 So that yee are not destitute of any gift: * wayting for the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ.

8 *Who shall also confirme you vnto the ende, that yee may be g blamelesse in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 * God is faithfull, by whom ye are called vnto the fellowship of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, *that yee all h speake one thing, and that there bee no dissensions among you: but bee yee knit knit together in one minde, & in one iudgement.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you by them that are of the house of i Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that euery one of you sayeth, I am Pauls, and I am * Apollos, and I am of Cephas, and I am Christes.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were ye baptized k into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but * Crispus, and l Gaius, 15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the housholde of Stephanas: furthermore know I not, whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent mee not to m baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with * n wisedome of wordes, o lest the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs, which are saued, it is the * power of God.

19 For it is written, * I will destroy the wisedome of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the p Scribe? where is the q disputer of this worlde? hath not God made the wisedome of this worlde foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the worlde by wisedome knewe not God in the wisedome of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a * signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisedome.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, wee preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisedome of God.

25 For the r foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men s after the flesh, not many mightie, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the worlde to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weake things of the world, to confound the mightie things,

28 And vile things of the worlde and things which are dispised, hath God chosen, and things t which are not, to bring to nought things u that are,

29 That no x flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But yee are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs * wisedome, and righteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 That according as it is written, * He that reioyceth, y let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee putteth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gospel, 8 Which Gospel was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And againe honourable and manifest to the spirituall.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with * excellencie of wordes, or of wisedome, shewing vnto you the ‖ a testimonie of God.

2 For I esteemed not to ‖ knowe any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 * And I was among you in b weakenesse, and in feare, and in much trembling,

4 Neither stood my worde, and my preaching in the * enticing speach of mans wisedome, but in plaine euidence of ‖ the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not bee in the wisedome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisedome among them that are c perfite: not the wisedome of this worlde, neither of the d princes of this worlde, which come to nought.

7 But wee speake the wisedome of God in a mysterie, euen the hid wisedome, which God had determined before the worlde, vnto our glorie.

8 Which e none of the princes of this worlde hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the f Lord of glorie.

9 But as it is written, * The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither g came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit h searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, sauing the spirit i of man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now wee haue k receiued not the Spirit of the worlde, but the Spirite, which is of GOD, that wee might knowe the l things that are giuen to vs of God.

15 But he that is * spirituall, discerneth all things: yet hee himselfe is [o] iudged of no man.

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the sectes and authours therof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluation to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erronious doctrines. 11 Christ is the foundation of the Church. 16 The dignitie and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithfull.

AND I coulde not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto [a] babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meate: for yee were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for where as there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and an other, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whome yee beleeued, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watered, but God gaue the encreale.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth are [b] one, * and euery man shall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For wee together are Gods [c] labourers: yee are Gods husbandrie, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a skilfull master builder, I haue layde the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man [d] take heede how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is layde, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man build on this foundation, gold, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble, 13 Euery mans worke shall be made manifest: for the [e] day shall declare it, because it shall be reuealed by the [f] fire: and the fire shall trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke abide, that hee hath built vpon, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall lose, but he shall be [g] safe himselfe: neuertheles yet as it were by the fire.

16 * Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirite of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you seeme to be wise in this world, let him be a foole, that hee may be wise.

19 For the wisedome of this worlde is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, * He catcheth the wise [k] in their owne craftinesse.

20 * And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man [l] reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it bee Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they bee things present, or things to come, euen all are yours, 23 And ye Christes, and Christ Gods.

a Being ingrafted in Christ by faith, we begin to moue by his Spirit, & as we profit in faith, we growe vp to a ripe age. And here let him take heed that teacheth, lest for milke he giue poison: for milke and strong meate in effect are one, but onely differ in maner and forme.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 Hee appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating downe their glorie which hindred them to prayse that, which they dispraysed in him. 16 Hee sheweth what he requireth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

LET a man so thinke of vs, as of the [a] ministers of Christ, and dispolers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the dispolers, that euery man be found faithfull.

3 * As touching mee, I passe very litle to bee iudged of you, or [z] mans iudgement: no, I iudge not mine [b] owne selfe,

4 For I [c] knowe nothing by [d] my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore * iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lorde come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue prayse of God.

6 Now these things brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos for your sakes, that yee might learne [e] by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 For who [f] separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou hadest not receiued it?

a As it is a thing intolerable to contemne the true ministers of God, so it is greatly reprehensible to attribute more vnto them then is meete.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for wee are made a gasing stocke vnto the worlde, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are [b] fooles for Christes sake, and yee are wise in Christ: wee are weake, and yee strong: yee are honourable, and we are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place, 13 * We are euil spoken of, and we ‖ pray: we are made as the filth of the worlde, the off-scowring of all things, vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lorde, which shall put you in [i] remembrance of my wayes in Christ as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, * if the Lorde will, and will knowe, not the speech of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the kingdome of God is not in word, but in [l] power.

21 What will ye? shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spirite of meeknesse?

CHAP. V.

1 He reproueth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Willing them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace puritie, 9 And flee wickednesse.

IT is heard certainely, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the [a] Gentiles, * that one should haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp and haue not rather sorowed, that hee which hath done this deede, might be put from among you.

3 * For I verely as absent in body, but present in spirite, haue determined already, as though I were present, that he that hath [b] thus done this thing,

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that yee may be a newe lumpe, [h] as ye are vnleauened: for Christ our passeouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leaurn, neither in the leauen of malitiousnes and wickednes: but with the vnleauened bread of sincerite and trueth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, * that yee should not company together with fornicatours,

10 And [i] not altogether with the fornicatours of this worlde, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then yee must goe out of the world.

11 But nowe I haue written vnto you, that yee company not together: if any that is called a brother, bee a fornicatour, or couetous, or [k] an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what haue I to doe, to iudge them also, which are [l] without? doe ye not iudge them that are [m] within?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. Put away therefore from among your selues that wicked man.

CHAP. VI.

1 Hee rebuketh them for going to lawe together before the heathen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 Hee reprooueth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 And sheweth that we ought to serue God purely both in body and in soule.

DAre any of you, hauing businesse against another, be iudged vnder ‖the [a] vniust, and not vnder the Saints?

2 * Doe yee not knowe, that the Saints shall iudge the worlde? If the world then shall be iudged by you, are yee vnworthie to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Knowe yee not that wee shall iudge the [b] Angels? how much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgements of things pertaining to this life, [c] set vp them which are [d] least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

1 The Apostle answereth to certaine questions, which the Corinthians desired to knowe 2 As of single life, 3 Of the dutie of marriage, 11 Of discordes and dissention in marriage, 13 Of marriage betweene the faithfull and vnfaithfull, 18 Of vncircumcising the circumcised, 21 Of seruitude, 25 Of virginitie, 39 And second marriage.

NOwe concerning the things whereof ye wrote vnto mee, It were a good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Neuertheless, to auoyde fornication, let b euery man haue his wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband.

3 * Let the husband giue vnto the wife c due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the husband.

4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.

5 Defraude not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that yee may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and againe come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, d not by commandement.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I my selfe am: but euery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.

9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to * burne.

10 And vnto the married I commaund, not I, but the Lorde, Let not the wife * depart from her husband.

11 But and if she e depart, let her remaine vnmarried, or bee reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put f away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, and not h the Lord, If any brother haue a wife, that beleeueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleeueth not, if her bee content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleeuing husbande is i sanctified by the wife, and the vnbeleeuing wife is sanctified by the husband, els were your children vncleane: but nowe are they k holy.

15 But if the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in l such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lord hath m called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordayne I in all Churches.

cation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? p care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For hee that is called in the q Lord being a seruant, is the Lordes free man: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 * Ye are bought ‖ with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein he was called, therein abide r with God.

25 Now concerning ‖ virgins, I haue no s commandement of the Lorde: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obteyned mercy of the Lord to be ‖ faithfull.

26 I suppose then t this to bee good for the present u necessitie: I meane, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? x seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marrie, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue y trouble in the flesh: but I z spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, ‖ hereafter that both they which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that a weepe, as though they wept not: and they that b reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this worlde, as though they vsed it not: for the c facion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lorde.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the d worlde, how hee may please his wife.‡

34 There is difference also betweene a virgine and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lorde, that shee may be e holy, both in body and in spirite: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, howe she may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne commoditie, not to f tangle you in a snare, but that yee followe that, which is honest, and that yee may cleaue fast vnto the Lorde without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgine, if shee passe the flowre of her age, and g needs so require, let him doe what he wil, he sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheless, he h that standeth firme in his heart, that hee hath no neede, but hath i power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that hee will keepe his virgine, he doeth well.

38 So then hee that gineth her to marriage, doeth well, but hee that gineth her not to marriage, doeth k better.

39 The wife is bounde by the l law, as long as her husband * liueth: but if her husband bee dead, she is at libertie to marry with whom she will, onely in the ‖ Lord.

40 But shee is more blessed, if she so abide, in my iudgement: * and I thinke that I haue also the spirite of God.

i For the fathers will dependeth on his childrens in this poynt: in so much as he is bound to haue respect to their infirmity, neither can he iustly require of them singlenes, if they haue not that gift of God so to liue,

1 He rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them toward such as be weake.

NOw as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, wee knowe that wee all haue a knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

a Of the libertie that God hath giuen vs touching outward things.

2 Nowe, if any man thinke that hee knoweth any thing, hee knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is ‖ knowen of him.

‖ Or, taught.
b This he speaketh in their person, which bragged so much of their libertie, saying that an image among all things that are made, is of no force.

4 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed vnto idoles, wee knowe that an idole is b nothing in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many c lords) c Which being idoles, yet are esteemed of men as Lordes and Seigniours. Iohn 13.13. *chap.*12.3.

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whome are all things, and wee in him: and * one Lorde Iesus Christ, by whome are all things, and wee by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some hauing d conscience of the idole, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

d In that they thought the meate offred vp to the image, not to be pure, and therefore could not eate it with a good conscience.

8 But meate maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neyther if we eate, haue we the e more: neither if wee eate not, haue we the lesse.

4 Haue wee not power to eate, and to drinke?
5 Haue we not power to leade about a wife being a sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?
6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power not to worke?
7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruite thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?
8 Say I these things according to man? sayth not the Law the same also?
9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, *Thou shalt not muzzell the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for oxen?
10 Either saith hee it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that he which eareth, should eare in hope: and that he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.
11 *If we haue sowen vnto you spirituall things, is it a great thing if wee reape your carnall things?
12 If others with you be partakers of this power, are not wee rather? neuertheless, we haue not vsed this power: but ‖ suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.
13 Doe yee not know, that they which minister about the holy things, eate of the things of the Temple? and they which waite at the altar, are partakers with the altar?
14 So also hath the Lord ordeined, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.
15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done vnto mee: for it were better for mee to die, then that any man should make my reioycing haine.
16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layde vpon mee, and woe is vnto mee, if I preach not the Gospel.
17 For if I doe willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.
18 What is my reward then? verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.
19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruaunt vnto all men, that I might winne the more.
20 And vnto the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Law:
21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Law (when I am not without Lawe as perteining to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.
22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne the weake: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.
23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might bee partaker thereof with you.
24 Know yee not, that they which run in a race, runne all, yet one receiueth the price? so runne, that ye may obtaine.
25 And euery man that proueth masteries, abstaineth from all things: and they doe it to obteine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.
26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainely: so fight I, not as one that beateth the aire.
27 But I beate downe my body, and bring it into subiection, least by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be reproued.

CHAP. X.

Hee feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 And offence of their neighbour.

MOreouer, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder the cloude, and all passed through the sea,
2 And were all baptized vnto Moses, in the cloude, and in the sea,
3 And did all eate the same spirituall meate,
4 And did all drinke the same spirituall drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke was Christ)
5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were ouerthrowen in the wildernesse.
6 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the entent that wee should not lust after euill things as they also lusted.

10 Neither murmure yee, as some of them * also murmured, and were destroyed of the h destroyer.

11 Now all these things came vnto them for ensamples, and were written to admonish vs, vpon whome the * endes of the world are come.

12 Wherefore, let him that thinketh hee standeth, take heede least he fall.

13 There hath no tentation taken you, but such as appertaineth to man: and God is faithfull, which will not suffer you to be tempted aboue that you be able, but i will euen giue the issue with the tentation, that ye may be able to beare it.

14 Wherefore my beloued, flee from idolatrie.

15 I speake as vnto them which haue vnderstanding: iudge ye what I say.

16 The cuppe of ‖ blessing which wee * blesse, is it not the communion of ỹ blood of Christ? The bread which we breake, is it not the * communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we that are many, are o one bread, and one body, because we all are partakers of one bread.

18 Behold Israel which is after the flesh: are not they which eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idole is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

20 Nay, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I would not that yee should haue q fellowship with the deuils.

21 Ye cannot drinke the cup of the Lord, and the cup of the deuils. Ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table and of the table of deuils.

22 Doe we prouoke the Lord to anger? are we stronger then he?

23 * All things are lawfull for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawfull for me, but all things edifie not.

24 Let no man seeke his owne, but euery man anothers wealth.

25 Whatsoeuer is sold in the r shambles, eate yee, and s aske no question for conscience sake.

26 * For the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is.

27 If any of them which beleeue not, call you to a feast: and if ye will go, whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eate it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience (for the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is)

29 And the conscience I say, not thine, but of that other: for why should my t libertie be condemned of an other mans conscience?

30 For * if I through Gods benefite bee partaker, why am I euill spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks?

31 * Whether therefore ye eate or drinke, or whatsoeuer ye doe, doe all to the glory of God.

32 Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33 Euen as I please x all men y in all things, not seeking mine owne profite, but the profite of many, that they might be saued.

CHAP. XI.

Hee rebuketh the abuses which were crept into their Church, 4 As touching prayer, prophecying, 18 And ministring the Lords Supper, 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

BE * ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2 Nowe, brethren, I commend you, that yee remember ‖ all my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3 But I will that yee know, that Christ is the * head of euery man: and the man is the womans head: and God is Christes head.

4 Euery man a praying, or ‖ prophecying hauing any thing on his head, b dishonoureth his head.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or c prophecieth bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be ‖ shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

7 For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as he is the * d image and glory of God: but the woman is the e glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 * For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue f power on her head, because of the g Angels.

11 Neuertheles, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the h Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

14 Doeth not nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long k haire, it is a shame vnto him.

16 But if any man lust to bee contentious, wee haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 ¶ Nowe in this that I declare, I praise you not, that yee come together, not with profite, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleeue it to bee true m in some part.

19 For there must bee n heresies euen among you, that they which are approoued among you, might be knowen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lordes supper.

21 For euery man when they shoulde eate, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungrie, and another is drunken.

22 Haue yee not houses to eate and to drinke in? despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the o Lorde that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lorde Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 *And when he had giuen thankes, he brake it, and sayde, Take, eate: this is my body, which is p broken for you: this doe yee in remembrance of me.

25 After the same maner also he tooke the cuppe, when hee had supped, saying, This cuppe is the newe Testament in my blood: this doe as oft as yee drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as yee shall eate this bread, and drinke this cuppe, yee shewe the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoeuer shall eate this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lorde q vnworthily, shalbe guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 *Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because hee discerneth not r the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many s sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tarie one for another.

34 And if any man bee hungrie, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 The diuersities of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be vsed to the edifying of Christes Church, 12 As the members of mans body serue to the vse one of another.

NOw concerning spirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you a ignorant.

2 Ye knowe that yee were Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the b dumme idoles, as ye were led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man c speaking by the d Spirite of God, calleth Iesus * execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lorde, but by the holy Ghoste.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to e profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wisdome: and to another the word of f knowledge, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen g faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the giftes of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another h the operations of great workes: and to another, i prophecie: and to another, k the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues, and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh euen the selfe same spirite, distributing to euery man seuerally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirite are we all baptized into l one body, whether we be Iewes or Grecians, whether we be bond, or free, and haue beene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were al one member, where were the body?

20 But nowe are there many members, yet but m one body.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no neede of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no neede of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to bee n more feeble, l That we might be one body with Christ, and the whole Church one Christ: of the which coniunction, baptisme and the Lords Supper are effectuall signes: for by baptisme we are regenerate into one spirit, and by the Lords supper we are incorporate into Christs body to bee gouerned by the same Spirit.

m And therefore what soeuer the diuersitie is, yet the profite ought to bee common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

23 And vpon those members of the body, which we thinke most vnhonest, put wee most o honestie on: and our vncomely parts haue more comelinesse on.

24 For our comely parts neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacked,

25 Lest there should bee any diuision in the body: but that the members should p haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member bee had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature, office, and prayse thereof.

THough I speake with the tongues of t men and a Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasse, or a tinckling cymball.

2 And though I had the gift of prophetie, and knew all secrets, and al knowledge, yea, if I had b all faith, so that I could remoue * mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my bodie, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long: it is bountifull: loue emieth not: loue doeth not boast it selfe it is not puffed vp:

5 It disdayneth not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the trueth:

7 It suffereth all things: it beleeueth c all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth d all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, though that prophecyings bee abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For e wee know f in part, and we ‖ prophecie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shall be abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstoode as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For nowe wee see g through a glasse darkely: but then shall wee see face to face. Nowe I knowe in part: but then shall I knowe euen as I am ‖ knowen.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, and loue, euen these three: but the h chiefest of these is loue.

t If the Angels had tongues, and I had the vse thereof, and did not bestow them to profite my neighbour, it were nothing but vaine babbling.

b Faith is here taken for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22. and also for that faith (called historicall) which beleeueth the mightie power of Christ, but cannot apprehend Gods mercie through him: and this deuils haue, Iam. 2. 19. and therefore is separated from charitie, but the faith that iustifieth in effect cannot, as 1. Iohn 2. 9. Matt. 17. 20. Luke 17. 6.

c Not that it suffereth it selfe to be abused, but iudgeth others by all loue and humanitie.

d Which may bee without offence of Gods word.

e Knowledge it selfe shalbe perfected in the world to come, and not abolished: but the maner of knowing and teaching shal cease, when we shall be before Gods presence, where we shall neyther neede scholes nor teachers.

f That is, imperfectly. ‖ Or, teach.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Hee exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirituall giftes, 5 But chiefly prophecying. 34 Hee commandeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

FOllow after loue, and couet spirituall giftes, and rather that ye may a prophecie.

2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man b heareth him: howbeit in the c spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But hee that prophecieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh a strange language, edifieth d himselfe: but he that prophecieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I woulde that yee all spake strange languages, but rather that yee prophecied: for greater is hee that prophecieth, then hee that speaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profite you, except I speake to you, eyther by e reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

7 Moreouer, things without life which giue a sounde, whether it bee a ‖ pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the soundes, howe shall it bee knowen what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sounde, who shall prepare himselfe to battell?

9 So likewise you, by the tongue, except ye vtter wordes that haue signification, how shall it bee vnderstoode what is spoken? for ye shall speake in the f ayre.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces (as it commeth to passe) in the worlde, and none of them g is dumme.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I shall bee vnto him that speaketh, h a Barbarian, and he that speaketh, shall be a Barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, forasmuch as yee couet spirituall gifts, seeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh a strange tongue, pray, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirite i prayeth: but mine vnderstanding is without k fruite.

f Your words shall be lost: for ye shall neither glorifie God thereby, nor profit man. ‖ Or, as the thing requireth.

g That is, they may be able to be vnderstood.

h He condemneth the Corinthians of barbarousnesse in that thing, whereby they thought to haue attained to the greatest praise of eloquence.

i And doeth his part.

k Not in respect of him that prayeth, but in respect of the Church, which is nothing edified thereby.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else, when thou blessest with the spirit, how shall hee that occupieth the roome of the vnlearned, say Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verely giuest thankes well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake fiue wordes with mine vnderstanding, that I might also instruct others, then tenne thousande wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in vnderstanding, but as concerning malicionsnesse be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Lawe it is written, By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, sayth the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleeue: but to them that beleeue not: but prophecying serueth not for them that beleeue not, but for them which beleeue.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tonguss, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleeue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainely that God is in you indeede.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a Psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two, or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuciled to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also the Law sayth.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbandes at home, for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the worde of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly and by order.

1Or, giue thanks by singing.

Ephes.3.7.
d For he was but the instrument and minister, and giueth the whole glory to God.

I am: and his grace which is in mee, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleeued.

12 ¶ Nowe if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching [e] vaine, and your [f] faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for wee haue testified of God, that hee hath raised vp Christ: whome hee hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not rayled.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is [g] vaine: ye are yet in your [h] sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life [i] onely wee haue hope in Christ, wee are of all men the most miserable.

20 But nowe is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the [*] first fruites of that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in [k] Christ shall [l] all be made aliue, 23 But euery man in his [*] owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward, they that are of Christ, at his comming shall rise againe.

24 Then shall be the ende, when he hath [m] deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when hee hath put downe all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must raigne [*] till hee hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemie that shalbe destroied, is death.

27 [*] For hee hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he sayth that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be [n] all in all.

29 Els, what shall they doe which are baptized [o] [p] for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are wee also in ieopardie euery houre?

31 [q] By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die dayly.

32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after the [r] maner of men, what aduantageth it mee, if the dead be not rayled vp? [*] let vs eate and drinke: for to morowe we shall die.

33 Be not deceiued: [*] euill speakings corrupt good maners.

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, Howe are the dead rayled vp? and with what body come they forth?

36 O foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a body at his pleasure, euen to euery seede his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one [s] flesh of men, and an other flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.

40 There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the [t] sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sowen in corruption, and is rayled in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in [u] dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sowen in weaknesse, and is raised in power.

44 It is sowen a naturall body, and is rayled a [x] spirituall body, there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 As it is also written, The first man [*] Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a [y] quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first made which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is the Lord [z] from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as wee haue borne the [a] image of the earthly, so shall wee beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that [b] flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shewe you a secret thing, We shall not all sleepe, but wee shall all be [c] changed, e Christs death is not effectuall, except hee rise from death.

f For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.

g As mortification and remission of sinnes depend on Christes death: so our quickening and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.

The ſecond Epiſtle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS nothing can bee written either ſo perfectly, or with ſo great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and reſiſted by ſome: ſo the firſt Epiſtle written by Saint Paul to the Corinthians, beſides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, ſheweth a loue toward them farre paſſing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profite all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their ſtubburneſſe, and contemne the Apoſtles authoritie. By reaſon whereof S. Paul, being let with iuſt occaſions to come vnto them, wrote this Epiſtle from Macedonia, minding to accompliſh the worke which he had begun among them. Firſt therefore hee wiſheth them well in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessarie schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, hee should haue bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing hee doeth repent: and also in that hee was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authoritie, he confuteth their arrogant brags, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospell in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorowe which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisedome to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the truth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas hee contrariwise, sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his comming hee menaceth such as rebell against his authoritie, that hee will declare by liuely example that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 Hee declareth the great profite that commeth to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that he deferred his comming contrary to his promise, hee prooueth his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable truth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

PAUL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all the Saints which are in all [a] Achaia:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

3 [b] Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, 4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the [c] sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether wee be afflicted, it is for your consolation, and [d] saluation, which [e] is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether wee be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as we knowe that as yee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how wee were pressed [f] out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we [g] receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God, which raiseth the dead,

10 Who deliuered vs from so [h] great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom wee trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs,

11 * So that yee labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thankes may bee giuen by many persons for vs.

12 [i] For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly pureness, and not in fleshly wisedome, [k] but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwards.

13 For wee [l] write none other things vnto you, then that ye reade, or else that yee acknowledge, and I trust yee shall acknowledge vnto the ende.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that wee are your [m] reioycing, euen as yee are [n] ours, in the [o] day of our Lorde Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace, 16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth toward Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnesse? or minde I those things which I minde, [p] according to the flesh, that with mee should be [q] Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 Yea, [r] God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is, by mee, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was [s] Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glory of God through vs.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs.

22 Who hath also * sealed vs, & hath giuen the * earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

e As God onely worketh all things in vs: so doeth he also our saluation by his free mercie, and by such meanes as he hath here left in this life for vs to be exercised in.

f Hereby hee sheweth his own infirmitie, that it might appeare how wonderfully Gods graces wrought in him.

q Now to affirme one thing, and then to denie it, which is a signe of inconstancie.

w In that I say I came not because I would spare you, I meane not that I haue authoritie to alter true religion, or to binde your consciences. but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you.

24 Not that wee x haue dominion ouer your faith, but wee are helpers of your ioye: for by x faith ye stand.

x And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towardes them, 7 Requiring likewise that they would bee fauourable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 Hee also reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine, 17 Confuting thereby such quarrell pickers as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the ouerthrow of his doctrine.

BVt I determined thus in my selfe, that I woulde not come againe to you in heauinesse.

a Which was giuen to Satan, but now doth repent.

2 But if I will make you sorie, who is he then that should make mee gladde, but the same which is a made sorie by me?

b Which made you and him sory in my former epistle.

3 And I wrote b this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I should take heauinesse of them, of whome I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

c After this adulterer did repent and amend, Paul did so vtterly cast off all sorow, that he denieth that in maner he was any whit sorie.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that yee should be made sorie, but that yee might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

d And so should increase his sorowe which I would diminish.

5 And if any haue caused sorowe, the same hath not c made mee sorie, but partly (lest I should d more charge him) you all.

e The adulterer, which interteined his mother in lawe.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

f That at my intercession you would declare by the publike consent of the Church that you imbrace him againe as a brother, seeing he was excommunicate by the common consent.

7 So that nowe contrariwise yee ought rather to forgiue him, and comfort him, lest the same e should bee swallowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would f confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might knowe the proofe of you, whether ye would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgiue any thing, I forgiue also: for verely if I forgaue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your sakes forgaue I it in the g sight of Christ, g That is, truely, and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ.

11 Least Satan should h circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

h By our rigorous punishing.

12 ¶ Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christes Gospel, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest ‖ in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, & went away into Macedonia.

k In working mightily by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumph.

l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Christes death as a common death, and be thereat offended, or els in them which perish.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the trueth which hee preached. 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false Apostles, 7. 13 He maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

DO a we begin to praise our selues again? or neede wee as some other, Epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

a Meaning him selfe, Timotheus, and Siluanus.

2 Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men,

3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ b ministred by vs, and written, not with inke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in c tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

b Who were Gods pen.

c The hardnesse of mans heart, before he be regenerate, is as a stonie table, Ezek. 11.19. and 36.26. but being regenerate by the spirit of God, it is as soft as flesh, that the grace of the Gospel may be written in it, as in new tables, Ierem. 31.31, 32, 33.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thing any thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God.

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the newe Testament, not of the d letter, but of the e Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the f Spirit giueth life.

d Whose minister Moses was.

e Which Christ gaue.

f Meaning, the spiritual doctrine, which is in our hearts.

7 If then the ministration g of death written with letters, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moses for the h glory of his countenance (which glorie is done away)

g Thus he nameth the Law, in comparison of the Gospel.

h After that God had spoken with him, and giuen him the law.

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministerie of i condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of k righteousnesse exceede in glorie.

i For the Lawe declareth all men to be vnder condemnation.

k Meaning, of the Gospel, which declareth that Christ is made our righteousnesse.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this poynt, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should bee aboliished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

l In preaching the Gospel. Exod. 34.33.

12 Seeing then that wee haue such trust, we vse l great boldnesse of speach.

13 * And wee are not as Moses, which m put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ende

m Moses shewed the Law as it was couered with shadowes, so that the Iewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the ende thereof: against the Gospel setteth foorth the glory of God cleerely, not couering our eyes, but driuing the darknesse away from them.

of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is laid ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheless, when their heart shall be turned to the Lorde, the vaile shall be taken away.

17 Nowe the n Lord is the * Spirite, and where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But wee all beholde as in a o mirrour the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee declareth his diligence and roundnesse in his office. 8 And that which his enemies tooke for his disaduantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which hee endured, be turneth to his great aduantage, 11. 17 Shewing what profite commeth thereby.

THerefore, seeing that we haue this ministerie, as wee haue receiued mercie, p we faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the b cloakes of shame, and * walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approoue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospell bee then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the c god of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospell of Christ, which is the d image of God, shoulde not shine vnto them.

5 For wee preach not our e selues, but Christ Iesus the Lorde, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God that * commandeth the light to shine out of darkenesse, is hee which hath shined in f our heartes, to giue the g light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we haue this b treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouertie.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where wee beare about in our body the i dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For wee which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then h death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because wee haue the same l Spirit of faith, according as it is written, * I beleeued, and therefore haue I spoken; wee also beleeue, and therefore speake, 14 Knowing that hee which hath raysed vp the Lord Iesus, shall m raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plenteous grace by the thankesgiuing of n many, may redound to the praise of God.

16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man ‖ perish, yet the inwarde man is o renued dayly.

17 For our p light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre most excellent, and an eternall weight of glory:

18 While wee looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, are temporall: but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

a For any troubles or afflictions.
b Meaning, such shifts and pretences as become not them that haue such a great office in hand.
Chap. 2.17.
c To wit, Satan, Iohn 12.31. and 14.30. Eph. 6.12.
d In whom God doth shew himselfe to be seene: and here Christ is called so in respect of his office.
e As they, which preach for gaine, or els which rather seeke to bee seene & knowen, then to edifie.
Gene. 1.3.
f Which are your seruants.
g That we hauing receiued light, should communicate the same with others, & therefore Christ calleth them the light of the world, Mat. 5.14.
h Albeit the ministers of the Gospel be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they cary is nothing worse or inferior.
i All the faithfull, and chiefly the Ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: and also that the members should be conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mightie power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerors.
k By our death you haue life: so that the fruit of our afflictions commeth to you.
l The same faith by the inspiration of the holy Ghost.
Psal. 116.10.
m In deliuering vs from these dangers, which is as it were a restoring from death to life.
n That I being deliuered and restored to you againe, may not onely my selfe giue God thanks for this infinite benefite of deliuerance, but also you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction and comfort, may abundantly set forth his glory. ‖ Or, be corrupted.
o Groweth stronger.
p Which is so called in respect of the euerlasting life.

CHAP V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vilitie that commeth by the crosse. 4 How wee ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 By whom, 9 And for what ende. 14. 19 Hee setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 And the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

FOr wee knowe that if a our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroyed, wee haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with handes, but eternall in the heauens.

2 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen.

3 ‖ Because that if we be clothed, we shall not be found * naked.

4 For in deede wee that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, ‖ because wee would not be vnclothed, but would be clothed vpon, that mortalitie might be swallowed vp of life.

5 And hee that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the * earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway b bold, though wee knowe that whiles wee are ‖ at home in the body, wee are absent from the Lord.

7 (For wee c walke by faith, and not by sight)

8 Neuertheless, wee are bolde, and loue rather to remooue out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Wherefore also wee couet, that both dwelling d at home, and remooning e from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 * For wee must all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that hee hath done, whether it be f good or euill.

11 Knowing therefore the g terrour of the a After this body shalbe dissolued, it shalbe made incorruptible and immortall.

‖ Or, if so be wee shalbe found clothed, and not naked, Reuel. 16.15.
‖ Or, wherein.
Chap. 1.22.
b Not onely quiet in minde, but also ready to sustaine all dangers: being assured of the good successe thereof.
‖ Or, strangers in the body.
c For here onely we beleeue in God, and see him not.
d In this body.
e Out of this body, to heauen.
Rom. 14.10.
f That is, either glorie or shame.
g His fearefull iudgement.

h He prooueth the dignitie of his ministerie by the fruite and effect thereof, which is to bring men to Christ.

i By imbracing the same faith which we preach to others.

k As they, which more esteemed the outwarde shew of wisdome and eloquence, then true godlinesse.

l As the aduersaries said, which could not abide to heare them praised.

m Our follie serueth to Gods glorie.

n Therefore whosoeuer giueth place to ambition or vaine glorie, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

o As the onely faithfull doe in Christ.

p According to the estimation of the world: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.

q We doe not esteeme, nor commend Christ himselfe now, as hee was an excellent man: but as hee was the Sonne of God partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and doe you thinke, that I will flatter my selfe or any man in setting forth his giftes? Yea, when I praise my ministerie, I commend the power of God: when I commend our worthie facies, I prayse the mightie power of God set foorth by vs wormes and wretches.

r Let him be regenerate, and renounce himselfe, els all the rest is nothing. *Isa.*43.19. *Reuel.*21.5.

s Therefore without Christ wee cannot enioy the life euerlasting, nor come to God.

t That is a sacrifice for sinne.

u By imputation, when we shall be clad with Christes iustice.

the Lord, wee [k] perswade men, and we [i] are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that wee are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For wee praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that yee may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the [l] face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether wee be [l] out of our wit, we are it [m] to God: or whether wee be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because wee thus iudge, that if one bee dead for all, then were [n] all dead,

15 And he died for all, that they [o] which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which dyed for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore, henceforth knowe wee no man [p] after the flesh, yea though wee had knowen Christ after y flesh, yet now henceforth [q] know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a [r] new creature. [*] Olde things are passed away: beholde, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was [s] in Christ, and reconciled the worlde to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Nowe then are wee ambassadours for Christ: as though God did beseech you thrugh vs, we pray you in Christes stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to bee [t] sinne for vs, which knewe no sinne, that wee should bee [u] made the righteousnesse of God in him.

b By the infidels, if they saw no fruite come thereof.

c He declareth with what weapons he resisted his afflictions.

d Who is the efficient cause.

e Which is the finall cause.

f By the Gospel and the power of God & his owne integritie, he ouerthrew Satan, and the world, as with weapons, on euery side most ready.

g Signifying his most vehement affection.

h Their iudgement was so corrupted, that they were not likewise affectioned towards him, as he was towards them.

i Shewe like affection towards me.

k He seemeth to allude to that which is written, Deut.22.10. where the Lord commaundeth that an oxe and an asse be not yoked together, because the match is vnequall: so if the faithfull marrie with the infidels, or els haue to doe with them in any thing vnlawfull, it is here reproued. *Eccl.*13.18. ‖ Or, the deuil. 1. *Cor.*3.16. & 6.19.

l So called, because he hath not only life in himselfe, but giueth it also to all liuing creatures. *Leuit.*26.11,12. *Isa.*52,11, *Iere.*31.1.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to Christian life, 11 And to beare him like affection, as hee doeth them: 14 Also to keepe themselues from all pollution of idolatrie both in body and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

WE wee therefore as workers together beseech you, that yee receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

2 For hee saith, [*] I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: beholde now the accepted time, beholde now the day of saluation.

3 Wee giue no occasion of offence in any

a To wit, Gods free mercie, wherein he hath powred foorth his infinite loue.

thing, that our ministerie should not be [b] reprehended.

4 But in all things wee approoue our selues as [*] the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,

6 By [c] watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindenesse, by the [d] holy Ghost, by [e] loue vnfained,

7 [f] By the word of trueth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour, and dishonour, by euill report and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true:

9 As vnknowen, and yet knowen: as dying, and beholde, wee liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As sorowing, and yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing al things.

11 [g] O Corinthians, our [h] mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

12 Yee are not kept straite in vs, but yee are kept straite in your owne [i] bowels.

13 Now for the same recompence, I speake as to my children, [i] Bee you also inlarged.

14 [k] Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for [*] what felowship hath righteousnesse with vnrighteousnesse? and what communion hath light with darkenesse?

15 And what concord hath Christ with [*] Belial? or what part hath the beleeuer with the infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idoles? [] for yee are the Temple of the [l] liuing God: as God hath sayd, [] I will dwell among them, and walke there: and I will bee their God, and they shalbe my people.

17 [*] Wherefore, come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayeth the Lord: and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 [*] And I will bee a Father vnto you, and yee shall be my sonnes and daughters, sayeth the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee exhorteth them by the promises of God to keepe themselues pure, 3.7 Assuring them of his loue, 8.13 And doeth not excuse his severitie toward them, but recyteth thereat, considering what profite came thereby. 10 Of two sortes of sorow.

SEeing then wee haue these promises, dearely beloued, let vs [a] cleanse our selues from all filthinesse of the [b] flesh and spirite, and grow vp vnto full holinesse in the feare of God.

a Consider this well, yee that serue idoles with your bodies, and yet thicke your consciences pure toward God: God will one day finite you for your halting.

b Of body and soule.

c That we may teach you.
d By greedy couetousnesse.

e He had neither rest in body nor Spirit: and it seemeth that he alludeth to that which is written, Deuter. 32.25. For the crosse to mans eye is common both to the godly and to the wicked, although to contrary ends.
f This ioy ouercame all my sorowes.
1. Pet. 1. 19.
g Whose heart Gods Spirit doth touch, he is sory for his sinnes committed against so mercifull a Father, and these are the fruites of his repentance, as witnesse Dauids and Peters teares: others which are sory for their sinnes onely for feare of punishment and Gods vengeance, fall into desperation, as Cain, Saul, Ahitophel, and and Iudas.
h In asking God forgiuenesse.
i For in iudging and chastising your selues, you preuented Gods anger.
‖ Or, heart.
k The Greeke worde signifieth his bowels, whereby is meant most great loue and tender affections.
l Both in thinking & reporting well of you.

2 c Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: wee haue corrupted no man: wee haue d defrauded no man.
3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue sayde before, that yee are in our hearts, to die and liue together.
4 I vse great boldnesse of speach toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.
5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on euery side, fightings e without, and terrours within.
6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus.
7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to mee-ward, so that I reioyced f much more.
8 For though I made you sorie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.
9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorie, but that ye sorowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.
10 * For godly sorow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorow causeth death.
11 For beholde, this thing that yee haue bene g godly sorie, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what h clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what i punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues, that yee are pure in this matter.
12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care towarde you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.
13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his ‖ spirite was refreshed by you all.
14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.
15 And his k inwarde affection is more abundant toward you, when hee remembreth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.
16 I reioyce therefore that I may l put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, hee exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saints, commending their good beginning. 23 After hee commendeth Titus, and his fellowes vnto them.

WE doe you also to wit, brethren, of the a grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,
2 Because in great tryall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie b abounded vnto their riche liberalitie.
3 For to their power (I beare recorde) yea, and beyonde their power, they were willing,
4 And prayed vs with great instance that wee would receiue the c grace, and fellowship * of the ministring which is toward the Saints.
5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,
6 That we should exhort Titus, that as he had begunne, so he would also accomplish the same grace among you also.
7 Therefore, as yee abound in euery thing, in faith and worde, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so see that yee abound in this grace also.
8 This say I not by commaundement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore prooue I the naturalnesse of your loue.
9 For yee knowe the grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ, that hee being rich for your sakes became poore, that yee through his pouertie might be made rich.
10 And I shewe my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to d will, a yeere agoe.
11 Nowe therefore perfourme to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may perfourme it of that which yee haue.
12 For if there bee first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.
13 Neither is it, that other men should bee eased and you grieued.
14 But vpon like condition, at this time your e aboundance supplieth their lacke, that also their aboundance may be for your lacke, that there may be f equalitie:
15 As it is written, * Hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.
16 And thankes bee vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.
17 Because hee accepted the g exhortation, yea, he was so carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.
18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose prayse is h in the Gospell throughout all the Churches,
19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to bee a fellowe in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde)
20 Auoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs, 21 * Prouiding for i honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

22 And

a This benefite of God appeared in two things, first, that the Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others: and next, that being in great pouertie, were very liberall towards others.
b So that a most abundant riuer of riches flowed out of their pouertie.
c So he calleth their liberalitie, either because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they receiued them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof. Chap. 9. 12.
d Euery man may doe good that hath abilitie thereunto: but to will, and haue a minde to doe good, commeth of perfect charitie.
e That as you helpe others in their neede, so others shall relieue your want.
f That both you and others, as occasion shal serue, may relieue the godly according to their necessities. Exod. 16. 18.
g And willingly offered himselfe to gather your almes.
h In preaching the Gospell. Some vnderstand this to be spoken of Luke, others, of Barnabas. Rom. 12. 17.
i His well doing is approoued before God and man.

22 And wee haue sent with them our brother whome wee haue oft times proouen to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellowe and helper to youward: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the k glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shewe toward them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioycing that wee haue of you.

k That is, by whome Christes glory is greatly aduanced.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 He exhorteth to giue almes cheerefully. 7 Shewing what fruite will come thereof.

FOr as touching the ministering to the Saints, it is superfluous for mee to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, & say, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Nowe haue I sent the brethren, least our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue sayde) be readie:

4 Least if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I meede not to say, you) should bee ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your benevolence appointed afore, that it might be ready, and come as of benevolence, and not as of sparing.

Prou. 11.25. 2.cor.12.8. Eccius. 35.10.

a Least they should giue but litle, distrusting to impouerish themselues thereby, he sheweth that God will so blesse their liberall hearts, that both they shall haue ynough for themselues, and also to helpe others withall.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessitie: * For God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that yee alwayes hauing a all sufficiencie in all things, may abound in euery b good worke, b That ye may doe good and helpe others at all times. Psal. 112.9.

9 * As it is written, c He hath sparsed abroad, and hath giuen to the poore: his benevolence remaineth for euer.

c Dauid speaketh of ỹ man which feareth God and loueth his neighbour.

10 Also hee that ministreth seede to the sower, will minister likewise bread for food, and multiplie your seede, and increase the fruits of your benevolence, 11 That on all parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministration of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thanksgiuing of many vnto God,

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministration prayse God for your voluntarie subiection to the Gospel of Christ, and for you liberall distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by d their prayer for you, ‖ desiring after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.

d Besides that by their liberalitie God shalbe praysed, they also shalbe commended to God by their prayers whom they haue holpen, yea, and all men shal reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God.

‖ Or, greatly affectioned toward you.

15 Thankes therefore be vnto God for his vnspeakeable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false Apostles and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience. 11 And sheweth what his power is. 13 And how he vseth it.

NOwe I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenes and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am a base, but am bolde toward you being absent:

a These words his backbiters vsed, thinking thereby to diminish his authoritie, as vers. 10.

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked b according to the flesh.

b As though we boasted of our selues by a carnal affection.

3 Neuertheless, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh.

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)

5 Casting downe the imagnations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ.

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that hee is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christes, euen so are we Christes.

c Meaning a certaine man among them, which thus spake of Paul.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lorde hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

d He that measureth any thing must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure a thing by it selfe: so these boasters must measure themselues by their worthie actes: and if they will compare with others, let them shew what countreys, what cities, and people they haue wonne to the Lord: for who will prayse that souldier, which onely at the table can finely talke of warres, and when he commeth to the brunt, is neither valiant nor experi?

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, e saith he, are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speach is of no value.

e That is, the giftes and vocation, which God had giuen him to winne others by.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in worde by letters when wee are ablent, such will we be also in deede, when we are present.

12 For wee dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which prayse themselues: but they vnderstand not that they d measure themselues with themselues, and compare themselues with themselues.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the e measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For we stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attayned vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospell of Christ,

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly,

16 And

16 And to preach the Goſpell in thoſe regions which are beyond you: not to reioyce in [f] another mans line, that is, in thoſe things that are prepared already.

17 *But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For hee that praiſeth himſelfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord praiſeth.

f God gave the whole world to the Apoſtles to preach in, ſo that Paul here meaneth by the line, his portion of the countreyes where he preached. Ierem.9.24.1.cor.1.31.

CHAP. XI.

1 Hee declareth his affection towarde them, 5 The excellencie of his miniſterie, 9 And his diligence in the ſame. 13 The fetches of the falſe Apoſtles, 16 The peruerſe iudgement of the Corinthians, 22. And his owne prayſes.

WOulde to God yee coulde ſuffer a litle my [a] fooliſhneſſe, and in deede, [b] yee ſuffer me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielouſie: for [c] I haue prepared you for one huſband, to preſent you as a pure virgine to Chriſt:

3 But I feare leaſt as the * ſerpent beguiled Eue through his ſubtiltie, ſo your mindes ſhould be corrupt from the ſimplicitie that is in Chriſt.

4 For if hee that commeth preacheth an other [d] Ieſus then him whome wee haue preached: or if yee receiue another [e] ſpirite then that which yee haue receiued: eyther another Goſpell, then that yee haue receyued, ye might well haue ſuffered him.

5 Verily I [f] ſuppoſe that I was not inferiour to the very chiefe Apoſtles.

6 And though I bee [g] rude in ſpeaking, yet I am not ſo in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifeſt to the vtmoſt, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, becauſe I abaſed my ſelfe, that ye might be exalted, and becauſe I preached to you the Goſpell of God freely?

8 I [h] robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you ſeruice.

9 And when I was preſent with you, and had neede, I was [i] not ſlouthfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia ſupplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my ſelfe, that I ſhould not * be grieuous to you.

10 [k] The trueth of Chriſt is in me, that this reioycing ſhall not be ſhut vp againſt me in the regions of Achata.

11 Wherefore? becauſe I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occaſion from them which deſire [l] occaſion, that they might be found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

a He calleth the prayſing of himſelfe dotage, to the which thing the arrogancie of the falſe Apoſtles compelled him who ſought nothing els, but to ouerthrowe the Church by diminiſhing the authoritie of his miniſterie.

13 For ſuch falſe [m] Apoſtles are deceitfull workers, and tranſforme themſelues into the Apoſtles of Chriſt.

14 And no marueil: for Satan himſelfe is tranſformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his miniſters tranſforme themſelues, as though they were the miniſters of righteouſneſſe, whoſe ende ſhall be according to their workes.

16 I ſay againe, let no man thinke, that I am fooliſh: or els take me euen as a foole, that I alſo may boaſt my ſelfe a little.

17 That I ſpeake, I ſpeake it not after the * Lord: but as it were fooliſhly, in this my great boaſting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce [o] after the fleſh I will reioyce alſo.

19 For yee ſuffer fooles gladly, becauſe that ye are wiſe.

20 For ye ſuffer men if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himſelfe, if a man ſmite you on the face.

21 [p] I ſpeake as concerning the reproch: as though that wee had bene [q] weake: but wherein any man is bolde (I ſpeake fooliſhly) I am bold alſo.

his boasting vpon the Corinthians. 14 Hee sheweth what good will he beareth them, 20 And professeth to come vnto them.

IT is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

2 * I knowe a man a in Christ aboue fourteene yeeres agone, (whether he were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the b third heauen.

3 And I knowe such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that hee was taken vp into paradise, c heard words which cannot bee spoken, which are not ‖possible for man to vtter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not bee a foole: for I will say the trueth, but I refraine lest any man should thinke of mee aboue that he seeth in mee, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should bee exalted out of measure, through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto mee d a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lorde e thrise, that it might depart from me.

9 And hee sayde vnto mee, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made f perfect through weakenesse. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore g I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christes sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: yee haue compelled mee: for I ought to haue beene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferiour vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, wherein yee were inferiours vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not beene ‖slouthfull to your hinderance? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the h third time I am readie to come vnto you, and yet will I not be slouthfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but i you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestowe, and will be bestowed for your ‖soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But bee it that I charged you not * yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked wee not in the selfe same spirite? walked we not in the same steppes?

19 Againe, thinke yee that we excuse our selues vnto you? wee speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearely beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, lest when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall bee found vnto you m such as yee would not, and least there bee strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backebitings, whisperings, swellings, and discord.

21 I feare least when I come againe, my God * abase me among you, and I shall bewaste many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the vncleannesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He threatneth the obstinate, 5 And declareth what his power is by their owne testimonie. 10 Also hee sheweth what is the effect of this Epistle, 11 After hauing exhorted them to their duetie, he wisheth them all prosperitie.

THis is the * third time that I come vnto you. * In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall euery word stand.

2 a I told you before, and tell you before: as though I had beene present the second time, so write I now being absent, to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare,

3 Seeing that yee seeke experience of Christ, that speaketh in me, which towarde you is not weake, but is mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning his b infirmitie, yet liueth he through the power of God. And wee no doubt are weake in him: c but wee shall liue with him, through the power of God towarde you.

5 * Proue your selues whether yee are in the faith: examine your selues: know ye not your owne selues, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that yee shall knowe that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God, that yee doe none euill, not that we should seeme approoued, but that yee should doe that which is honest: though we be as d reprobates.

8 For wee can not doe any thing against the trueth, but for the trueth.

9 For we are glad when we are weake, and that ye are e strong: this also wee wish for, euen your perfection.

Vvv.i. 10 Therefore

10 Therefore write I these things being absent, lest when I am present, I shoulde vse sharpenesse, according to the power which the Lorde hath giuen me, to edification, and not to destruction.

g Commit not by your negligence, that that which is ordeined to saluatiō, turne to your destruction,

The second Epistle to the Corinthians, written from Philippi, a citie of Macedonia, and sent by Titus and Lucas.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Galatians, after they had bene instructed by Saint Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false Apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Lawe must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he prooueth that the graunting thereof, is the ouerthrowe of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had beene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authoritie, but spake of himselfe, he prooueth both that he is an Apostle ordeyned by God, and also that he is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any works or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the ende thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to imbrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the greenes of mans traditions: finally he shewethwherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered themselues to be seduced by the false apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Lawe were necessarie to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 Hee sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to bee equall with the chiefe Apostles.

e For what is more contrary to our free iustification by faith, then the iustification by the Law, or our workes? therfore to ioyne these two together, is to ioyne light with darkenesse, death with life, and doeth vtterly ouerthrow the Gospel.

6 I marualle that yee are so soone remooued away vnto another ‖ Gospell from him that hath called you in the d grace of Christ,

7 Which is not another Gospel, saue that there bee some which trouble you, and intend to e peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that wee, or an f Angell from heauen preach vnto you otherwise, then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be ‖ accursed.

11 * Nowe I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of mee, was not after h man.

h That is, doctrine inuented by man, neyther by mans authoritie doe I preach it.

12 For neyther receiued I it of man, neyther was I taught it, but by the i reuelation of Iesus Christ.

23 And they glorified God for me.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 Hee sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferiour to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that hee hath reproued Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After hee commeth to the principal scope, which is to proue that iustification onely commeth of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Law.

THen fourteene yeeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also,

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and [a] communicated with them of the Gospell which I preach among the Gentiles, * but particularly with them that were the chiefe, least by anymeanes I should runne, or had runne ‡ in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with me, though hee were a Grecian, was [b] compelled to be circumcised.

4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in priuily to spie out our libertie, which wee haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whome we [c] gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the trueth of the Gospell might continue with you.

6 And of them which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they [d] were in time passed, it maketh no matter to mee: [e] God accepteth no mans person) neuertheles, they that are the chiefe, [e] did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise, when they sawe that the Gospell ouer the vncircumcision, was committed vnto me, as the Gospell ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For hee that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mightie by mee toward the Gentiles)

9 And when Iames, and Cephas, and Iohn knew of the grace that was giuen vnto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to mee and to Barnabas the [f] right hands of fellowship, that wee should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision, 10 * Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstoode him ‡ to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from Iames, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, hee withdrewe and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I sawe, that they went not the ‡ right way to the trueth of the Gospel, I sayd vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Iewe, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why [h] constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 Wee which are Iewes by nature, and not [i] sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: euen wee I say, haue beleeued in Iesus Christ, that wee might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe, because that by the workes of the Lawe no ‖ flesh shall be iustified.

17 * If then while we seeke to be made righteous by Christ, wee our selues are found [k] sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God [l] forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, [m] I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Lawe am dead to the Lawe, and that I might liue vnto God, I am [n] crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet [o] not I nowe, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the [p] flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued mee, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I do not abrogate the [q] grace of God: for if righteousnesse be by the Lawe, then Christ died ‖ without a cause.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing, that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospell vnto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the workes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, Cursed is euery man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Lawe in the sight of God, it is euident: for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the Lawe is not of faith: but the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when hee was made a curse for vs (for it is written, Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that we might receiue the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speake as men doe, Though it be but a mans couenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. Hee saieth not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Law which was foure hundreth and thirtie yeeres after, can not disanull the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Lawe, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordeined by Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Nowe a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one.

21 Is the Lawe then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Lawe giuen which could haue giuen life, surely righteousnesse should haue bene by the Lawe.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should bee giuen to them that beleeue.

23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Lawe, and shut vp vnto the faith, which should afterward be reuealed.

24 Wherefore the Law was our schoolemaster to bring vs to Christ, that wee might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a schoolemaster.

26 For yee are all the sonnes of God by faith, in Christ Iesus.

27 For all yee that are baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

28 There is neither Iewe nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Iesus.

29 And if ye be Christes, then are yee Abrahams seede, and heires by promise.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeined. 3 Which being shadowes must end when Christ the trueth commeth. 9 He moueth them by certaine exhortations, 22 And confirmeth his argument with a strong example, or allegorie.

NOw I say, that the heire as long as hee is a childe, differeth nothing from a seruant, though he be Lord of all,

2 But is vnder tutours and gouernours, vntill the time appointed of the Father.

3 Euen so, wee when wee were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the world.

4 But when the fulnesse of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, and made vnder the Lawe,

5 That hee might redeeme them which were vnder the Lawe, that wee might receiue the adoption of his sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirite of his Sonne into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more a seruaunt, but a sonne: nowe if thou bee a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ.

a The Church of Israel was vnder the Law as the pupill subiect to his tutor, euen vnto the time of Christ, when she waxed strong, and then her tutelship ended.

b That is, the Law, which before he called a scholemaster, Chap.3.25.

e For our adoption vnto Christ is sealed by him.

f He instructeth both Iewes & Gentiles to call God their Father in euery language, so that none are excepted.

g Which maiest not vse thy liberty.

h When ye receiued the Gospel, ye were idolaters: therefore it is shame for you to refuse libertie, and become seruants, yea, and seeing the Iewes desire to be out of their tutelship.
i Not in deede, but in opinion.
k The Galatians of Painims began to be Christians, but by false apostles were turned backeward to beginne anewe the Iewish ceremonies, and so in stead of going forward toward Christ, they ranne backeward from him.
l Ye obserue dayes, as Sabbaths, newe moones, &c. ye obserue moneths, as the first and seuenth moneth: ye obserue times, as Easter, Whitsuntide, the feast of Tabernacles: ye obserue yeres, as the Iubile, or yeere of forgiuenesse, which beggerly ceremonies are most pernicious to them which haue receiued the sweete libertie of the Gospel, and thrust them back into superstitious slauerie.
m So friendfull to mee, as I am affectioned toward you.
n For I pardon you, if you repent.

8 But euen then, when yee [h] knewe not God, ye did seruice vnto them, which by nature are not gods.
9 But nowe seeing yee knowe God, yea, rather are knowen of God, how turne [k] yee againe vnto impotent and beggerly rudiments, whereunto as from the beginning yee will be in bondage againe?
10 Ye obserue [l] dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeeres.
11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.
12 Be yee as [m] I: for am euen as you: brethren, I beseech you: yee haue not hurt [n] me at all.
13 And yee knowe, howe through [o] infirmitie of the flesh I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first.
14 [p] And the triall of mee which was in my flesh, yee despised not, neither abhorred: but yee receiued mee as an [q] Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.
15 What was then your felicitie? For I beare you record, that if it had bene possible, yee would haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.
16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the trueth?
17 They are ielous ouer you [r] amisse: yea, they would exclude [s] you, that yee should altogether loue them.
18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you, 19 My little children, of whom I trauaile in birth againe, vntill Christ be [t] formed in you.
20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doubt of you.
21 Tell mee, yee that will be vnder the lawe, doe ye not heare the Lawe?
22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, * one by a seruant, and * one by a free woman.
23 But hee which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.
24 By the which things an other thing is meant: for these mothers [u] are the two Testaments, the one which is [x] Agar of mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in [y] Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which nowe is) and shee is in bondage with her children.
26 But Ierusalem, which is [z] aboue, is free: which is the mother of vs all.
27 For it is written, * Reioyce thou barren that bearest no children: breake foorth, and crie, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hath many moe children, then shee which hath an husband.
28 * Therefore, brethren, we are after the maner of Isaac, children of the promise.
29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is now.
30 But what saith the Scripture? * Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not bee heire with the sonne of the free woman.
31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the free woman. †

Rom.9.8. Gen.21.10. a For we are in the Church of Christ, which is our mother, and not of the Synagogue, which is a seruant vnder the Lawe.
† By the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free.

CHAP. V.

2 He laboureth to draw them away from circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battel betwixt the spirit and the flesh, and the fruites of them both.

STand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and bee not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.
2 * Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be [a] circumcised, Christ shall profite you nothing.
3 For I testifie againe to euery man, which is circumcised, that hee is bound to keepe the whole Lawe.
4 Ye are * abolished from Christ, whosoeuer are iustified by the Law, ye are fallen from grace.
5 For wee through the Spirite [d] waite for the hope of righteousnesse through faith.
6 For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision auaileth any thing, neither vncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue.
7 Yee did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the [e] trueth?
8 It is not the perswasion of him that [d] calleth you.
9 * A little [e] leauen doeth leauen the whole lumpe.
10 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that yee will bee none otherwise [f] minded: but hee that troubleth you, shall beare his condemnation, whosoeuer he be.
11 And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the [g] slaunder of the Crosse abolished.
12 Woulde to God they were euen cut off, which doe disquiet you.
13 For brethren, ye haue beene called vnto libertie: onely vse not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.
14 For [h] all the Lawe is fulfilled in one worde, which is this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.
15 If yee bite and deuoure one another, take heede least yee be consumed one of another.
16 Then I say, * Walke in the [i] Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lustes of the flesh.
17 For the [k] flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

rit, and the Spirite against the flesh: and these are contrary one to the other, so that yee cannot doe the same things that yee would.

18 And if ye be led by the l Spirit, ye are not vnder the Lawe.

19 Moreouer the workes of the flesh are manifest, which are adulterie, fornication, vncleannesse, wantonnesse,

20 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, debate, emulations, wrath, contentions, seditions, heresies, 21 Enuie, murthers, drunkennesse, gluttonie, and such like, whereof I tell you before, as I also haue tolde you before, that they which doe such things, shal not inherite the kingdome of God.

22 But the fruite of the Spirite is loue, ioy, peace, long suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faith, 23 Meekenesse, temperancie: against such there is m no lawe.

24 For they that are Christs, n haue crucified the flesh with the affections and the lustes.

25 If wee liue in the Spirite, let vs also walke in the o Spirit.

26 Let vs not bee desirous of vaine glorie, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

n Christ hath not onely remitted their sinnes, but sanctified them into newnesse of life.

CHAP. VI.

1 Hee exhorteth them to vse gentlenesse toward the weake, 2 And to shewe their brotherly loue and modestie: 6 Also to prouide for their ministers, 9 To persuere, 14 To reioyce in the crosse of Christ, 15 To newnesse of life, 16 And last of all, wisheth to them with the rest of the faithfull all prosperitie.

BRethren, if a man bee a fallen by occasion into any fault, yee which are spirituall, restore such one with the spirite of meekenesse, considering thy selfe, lest thou also bee tempted.

2 Beare yee one anothers burden, and so b fulfill the Lawe of Christ.

3 For if any man seeme to himselfe, that he is some what, when hee is c nothing, hee deceiueth himselfe in his imagination.

4 But let euery man proue his owne worke, and then shall he haue d reioycing in himselfe onely and not in another.

5 * For euery man shall beare his owne burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the worde, make him that hath taught him, partaker of all his e * goods.

7 Be not deceiued: God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man soweth, that shall hee also reape.

8 For he that f soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but hee that soweth to the spirite, shall of the spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 * Let vs not therefore be weary of wel doing: for in due season wee shall g reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs doe good vnto all men, but specially vnto them which are of the houshold of faith.

11 ¶ Yee see howe large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to haue a faire shewe h in the flesh, they constraine you to bee circumcised, onely because they would not suffer persecution for the i crosse of Christ.

13 For they themselues which are circumcised, keepe not the Lawe, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might reioyce k in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I shoulde reioyce, but in the crosse of our Lorde Iesus Christ, whereby the l world is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision auayleth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new m creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace shalbe vpon them, and mercie, and * vpon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man o put me to businesse: for I beare in my body the p markes of the Lord Iesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

¶ Vnto the Galatians written from Rome.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHile Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, hee assureth them of saluation, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to this eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospell, the knowledge of the which mysterie hee prayeth God to confirme toward them. And to the intent they shoulde not glorie in themselues, hee sheweth them their extreme miserie, miserie wherein they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom the promises were not made, and yet, by the free mercy of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfect vnderstanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindfull of so great benefites, neither to be mooued with the false apostles, which seeke to ouerthrow their faith, and tread vnderfoote the Gospell, which was not preached to them, as by chaunce or fortune, but according to the eternall counsell of God: who by this meanes only preserueth his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, forasmuch as God thereby raigneth among men, and causeth it to bring foorth most plentifull fruits, as innocencie, holinesse, with all such offices appertaining to godlinesse. Last of all, hee declareth not onely in generall, what ought to bee the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euery mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his salutation, 4 Hee sheweth that the chiefe cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good will toward them, giuing thankes and praying God for their faith. 21 The maiestie of Christ.

1.Cor.1.2. 2.Cor.1.3. 1.pet.1.3.

PAUL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, to the * Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Iesus:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

a As with the knowledge of God in Christ, with faith, hope, charitie, and other gifts.

3 *Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lorde Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all a spirituall blessing in heauenly things in Christ, b This election to life euerlasting can neuer bee changed: but in temporall offices which God hath appointed for a certaine space, when the terme is expired, hee changeth his election, as we see in Saul & Iudas.

4 *As he hath b chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world, that we *should be c holy, & without blame before him in loue:

Col.1.22.

c When Christs iustice is imputed ours.

5 Who hath predestinate vs, to be d adopted through Iesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will.

d Whereas wee were not the naturall children, he receiued vs by grace, and made vs his children.

6 To the e praise of the glory of his grace, wherewith hee hath made vs accepted in his beloued, e The principall end of our election is to praise and glorifie the grace of God.

7 By whome wee haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiuenesse of sinnes, according to his rich grace:

8 Whereby he hath bene aboundant toward vs in all wisdome & vnderstanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs the mysterie of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed f in him, f That is, in Christ.

10 That in the dispensation of the fulnesse of the times hee might gather together in one g all things, both which are in heauen and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

g By this he meaneth y whole body of the Church, which he deuideth into them which are in heauen, and them which are in earth: also the faithfull which remaine in earth stand of the Iewes and the Gentiles.

11 In whome also wee are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will,

12 That h wee, which first trusted in Christ, should be vnto the praise of his glory:

h To wit, the Iewes.

13 In whome also yee haue trusted after that yee heard the worde of truth, euen the Gospel of your saluation, wherein also after that yee beleeued, yee were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, i vntill the redemption of the possession purchased vnto the praise of his glory.

i Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom. 6. 22. yet we hope for this second redemption which shalbe when we shal possesse our inheritance in the heauens, whereof we haue the holy Ghost for a gage, as Chap. 4. 30.

15 Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I cease not to giue thankes for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lorde Iesus Christ the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisedome, and reuelation thrugh the knowledge of k him, k Of Christ. Col 2.12.

18 That the eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightned, that yee may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatnesse of his power toward vs, which beleeue, *according to the working of his mightie power, 23 Which is his body, euen the m fulnesse of him that filleth all in all things.

CHAP. II.

5 To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the only cause of saluation, 11 He sheweth them what maner of people they were before their conuersion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

Chap.6.12. a Meaning, Satan.

3 Among whome wee also had our conuersation in time past, in the lustes of our flesh, in fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the minde, and were b by nature the children of wrath, as well as others.

b Not by creation, but by Adams transgression, and so by birth.

4 But God which is rich in mercie, through his great loue where with hee loued vs,

5 Euen when wee were dead by sinnes, hath quickened vs c together * in Christ, by whose grace ye are saued, c Both Iew and Gentile. *Or, with Christ.

6 And hath [d] raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ Iesus,

7 That hee might shewe in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnesse towarde vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are yee saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God, 9 Not of workes, least any man should boast himselfe.

10 For wee are [e] his workemanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordained, that wee should walke in them.

11 Wherefore [f] remember that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called [a] vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with handes, 12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliants from the common wealth of Israel, and were [b] strangers from the [g] couenants of promise, and had no [h] hope, and were [i] without God in the world.

13 But nowe in Christ Iesus, yee which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the [k] stop of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his [k] flesh the hatred, that is, the Lawe of commaundements which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one newe man in himselfe, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one [l] body by his ‖ crosse, and slay hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were neere.

18 [m] For through him wee both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Nowe therefore yee are no more straungers and forreiners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the housholde of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone,

21 In whome all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord, 22 In whome yee also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

FOr this cause, I Paul am the [a] prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If yee haue heard of the [b] dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen mee to youward,

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto mee (as I wrote aboue in few words,

4 Whereby when yee reade, yee may knowe mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was [d] not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reuealed vnto his holy Apostles, and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheiters also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a Minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto me [m] through the working of his power.

8 [c] Euen vnto me the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the [e] Gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make [f] cleare vnto all men what the felowship of the [e] mysterie is, which from the beginning of the world hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent, that now vnto [e] principalities and powers in heauenly places might be knowen [f] by the Church the manifold wisedome of God,

11 According to the eternall purpose, which hee wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord, 12 By whome wee haue boldnesse and entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that yee faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, 15 (Of whom is named the whole [g] familie in [h] heauen and in earth)

16 That he might graunt you according to the riches of his glory, that yee may be strengthened by his spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwel in your [i] hearts by faith, that ye, being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 May be able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the [k] breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that yee may be filled with all [l] fulnesse of God.

20 [m] Vnto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding abundantly aboue all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in [m] vs, 21 Bee prayse in the Church by Christ Iesus, throughout [l] all generations for euer, Amen.

l That all the graces of God may abound in you.

m In that we feele Christ in vs.

a For the Lords cause.

2 With all humblenesse of minde, and meekenesse, with long sustering, supporting one another through loue,

3 Endeuouring to keepe the vnitie of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one [b] body, and one [c] Spirit, euen as yee are called in one hope of your vocation.

5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

6 * One God and Father of all, which is [d] aboue all, and [e] through all, and in you all.

7 * But vnto euery one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the [f] gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he sayth, * When he ascended vp on high, hee [g] led captiuitie captiue, and gaue gifts vnto men.

9 (Now, in that he ascended, what is it but that hee had also descended first into the lowest partes of the earth?

10 Hee that descended, is euen the same that ascended, farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill [h] all things)

11 * Hee therefore gaue some to bee Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Euangelists, and some Pastours, and Teachers,

12 For the [i] gathering together of the Saints, for the worke of the ministerie, [k] and for the edification of the body of Christ,

13 Till we all meete together (in the vnitie of faith and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a [l] perfect man, and vnto the measure of the age of the fulnesse of Christ, 14 That wee henceforth be no more children, wauering and caried about with euery winde of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftinesse, whereby they lay in wayte to deceiue.

15 But let vs followe the trueth in loue, and in all things growe vp vnto him, which is the [m] head, that is, Christ, 16 By whom all the body being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectuall power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiueth increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in loue.

17 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lorde, that yee henceforth walke not as * other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their [n] minde,

18 Hauing their cogitation darkened, and being strangers from the life of [o] God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [p] hardnesse of their heart:

19 Which being [‖] past * feeling, haue giuen themselues vnto wantonnesse, to worke all vncleanesse, euen with greedinesse.

20 But ye haue not so learned Christ,

21 If so be yee haue heard him, and haue bene taught by him, as the [q] trueth is in Iesus,

22 That is, * that yee cast off, concerning the conuersation in time past, the [r] olde man, which is corrupt through the deceiueable lustes,

23 And bee renewed in the spirit of your minde,

24 * And put on the new man, which [s] after God is created in righteousnesse, and true holinesse.

25 * Wherefore cast off lying, and speake euery man trueth vnto his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 * Bee [t] angry, but sinne not: let not the sunne goe downe vpon your wrath, 27 * Neither giue place to the deuill.

28 Let him that stole, steale no more: but let him rather labour, and worke with his hands the thing which is good, that he may haue to giue vnto him that needeth.

29 * Let no corrupt communication proceede out of your mouthes: but that which is good to the vse of edifying, that it may minister [u] grace vnto the hearers.

30 And [x] grieue not the holy Spirit of God, by whom yee are * sealed vnto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitternesse, and anger, & wrath, crying, and euill speaking be put away from you, with all maliciousnesse.

32 * Be ye courteous one to another, and tender hearted, forgiuing one another, euen as God for Christes sake forgaue you.

BEe yee therefore followers of God, as deare children,

2 * And walke in loue, euen as Christ hath loued vs, and hath giuen himselfe for vs, to bee an offering and a sacrifice of a sweete [a] smelling sauour to God.

3 * But fornication, and all vncleanesse, or couetousnesse, let it not be once named among you, as it becommeth Saints, 11 And haue no fellowship with the vnfruitfull workes of darkenesse, but euen rebuke them rather.

12 For it is shame euen to speake of the things which are done of them in secret.
13 But all things when they are reproued of the light, are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest.
14 Wherefore he sayth, a Awake thou that sleepest, and stand vp from the dead, and Christ shall giue thee light.
15 Take heede therefore that yee walke circumspectly, not as fooles, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time: for the dayes are euill.
17 Wherefore, be yee not vnwise, but vnderstand what the will of the Lord is.
18 And be not drunke with wine, wherin is excesse: but be fulfilled with the Spirit,
19 Speaking vnto your selues in psalmes, and ‖hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing, and making melodie to the Lorde in your hearts,
20 Giuing thanks alwayes for all things vnto God euen the Father, in the name of the Lord Iesus Christ, 21 Submitting your selues one to another in the feare of God.
22 ¶ Wiues, submit your selues vnto your husbands, as vnto the Lord.
23 For the husband is the wiues head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and the same is the sauiour of his body.
24 Therefore, as the Church is in subiection to Christ, euen so let the wiues be to their husbands in euery thing.
25 ¶ Husbands, loue your wiues, euen as Christ loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it,
26 That he might sanctifie it, & cleanse it by the washing of water thoug the worde,
27 That he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Church, not hauing spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blame.
28 So ought men to loue their wiues, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.
29 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doeth the Church.
30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shal cleaue to his wife, and they twaine shalbe one flesh.
32 This is a great secret, but I speake concerning Christ, & concerning the Church.
33 Therefore euery one of you, doe yee so let euery one loue his wife, euen as himselfe, and let the wife see she feare her husband.

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGVMENT.

PAul being warned by the holy Ghost to goe to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospell vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauailed from place to place, till at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome. whereof the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with relieue vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stoode manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good will towarde them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrinke: for the Gospell thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, hee confuteth their false doctrine, by prouing only Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with testification of his affection toward them, and thankfull accepting of their benevolence.

PAul and Timotheus the seruants of Jesus Christ, to all the Saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the a Bishops, and Deacons:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 *I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memorie,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the b fellowship which yee haue in the Gospel, from the c first day vnto now.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing, that hee that hath begunne this good worke in you, will performe it vntill the d Day of Jesus Christ,

7 As it becommeth mee so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance, e that both in my bonds, and in my defence and confirmation of the Gospel, you al were partakers of my f grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may discerne things that ‖differ one from another, that yee may bee pure, and g without offence, vntill the day of Christ, g That so you increase in godlines, that not only ye can put difference betweene good & euil: but also that ye profit more and more without slipping backe, or standing in a stay.

11 Filled with the fruites of h righteousnesse, which are by Jesus Christ vnto the glory and praise of God.

h Righteousnesse is the tree, good works the fruite.

12 ¶ I would yee vnderstood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel, i Which I suffeine for Christs cause.

13 So that my bonds in i Christ are famous throughout all the k iudgement hall, and in all other places, k That is, in the court or palace of the Emperour Nero.

14 And so much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bonds, and dare more frankly speake the l worde.

l Or, professe the Gospel, considering my constancie.

15 Some preach Christ, euen through enuie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preach Christ of contention and not ‖ purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bands:

‖ Or, sincerely.

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all maner of wayes, whether it be m vnder a pretence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

m But with a corrupt minde.

19 For I knowe that this shall turne to my saluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shalbe magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to mee both in life, and in death aduantage.

22 And

n Their pretence was to preach Christ, and therefore their doctrine was true: but they were full of ambition and enuie, thinking to deface Paul and preferre themselues.

o To liue in the flesh is to liue in this brittle body, till we be called to liue euerlastingly: but to liue according to the flesh, or to be in the flesh, signifie, to be destitute of the Spirit, and to be plunged in the filthie concupiscences of the flesh. ‖Or, body. Ephes.4.1. coloss.1.10. 1.thes.2.12. ‖Or, stand.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shal abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioy of your faith, 12 Wherefore my beloued, as yee haue alwayes obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but nowe much more in mine absence, so h make an ende of your owne saluation with i feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his k good pleasure.

14 Doe all things without * murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the sonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughtie and crooked nation, among whome yee shine, as * lights in the world,

17 Yea, and though I be n offered vp vpon the sacrifice, and seruice o of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus to send * Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters, 21 * For all p seeke their owne, and not that which is Iesus Christs.

22 But yee knowe the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send assoone as I know how it will goe with me, 24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessarie to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellow souldier, euen your messenger, and he that ministred vnto me such things as I wanted.

26 For hee longed after all you, and was full of heauinesse, because yee had heard, that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very neere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should haue sorow vpon sorow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, yee might reioyce, and I might bee the lesse sorowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lorde with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

30 Because that for the q worcke of Christ hee r was neere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that seruice which was lacking on your part towarde mee.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee warneth them to beware of false teachers, 3 against whom he setteth Christ, 4 likewise himselfe, 9 and his doctrine, 12 and reprouth mans owne righteousnesse.

MOreouer, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieueth me not to write [a] the same things to you, and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of [b] dogges: beware of euill workers: beware of the [c] concision.

3 For wee are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirite, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence [d] in the flesh:

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof hee might trust in the flesh, much more I:

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the kinred of Israel, of the tribe of Beniamin, *an Ebrewe of the Ebrewes, *by the ‖lawe a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church: touching the righteousnesse which is in the Law, I was vnrebukeable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto me, the same I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lorde, for whom I haue counted all things losse, and doe iudge them to bee dung, that I might winne Christ,

9 And might bee [e] found in him, that is, not hauing mine owne righteousnesse, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, euen the righteousnes which is of God through faith,

10 That I may know him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and bee made conformable vnto his death,

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the [f] resurrection of the dead:

12 [g] Not as though I had already attained to it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am [h] comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behinde, and endeuour my selfe vnto that which is before,

14 And follow hard toward the [i] marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as [k] be [l] perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwise minded, God shall reueile euen the [m] same vnto you.

16 Neuertheless, in that whereunto wee are come, let vs proceede by one rule, *that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, bee followers of mee, and looke on them, which walke so, as yee haue vs for an ensample.

20 But our [p] conuersation is in heauen, from whence also wee looke for the *Sauiour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ,

The Epiſtle of Paul to the Coloſſians.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this Epiſtle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectuall, & true Chriſt, and the fained, counterfeit, and imagined Chriſt, whom the falſe apoſtles taught. And firſt, hee confirmeth the doctrine, which Epaphras had preached, wiſhing them increaſe of faith, to eſteeme ỹ excellency of Gods benefit toward them, teaching them alſo that ſaluation, and whatſoeuer good thing can bee deſired, ſtandeth onely in Chriſt, whom onely we embrace by the Goſpel. But foraſmuch as the falſe brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Goſpel, hee toucheth thoſe flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Coloſsians to ſtay onely on Chriſt, without whom all things are but meere vanitie. And as for circumciſion, abſtinence from meates, externall holineſſe, worſhipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Chriſt, he vtterly condemneth, ſhewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Chriſt are abrogate: ſo that now the exerciſes of the Chriſtians ſtand in mortification of the fleſh, newneſſe of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee giueth thankes vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increaſe of their faith. 13 Hee ſheweth vnto them the true Chriſt, and diſcouereth the counterfeite Chriſt of the falſe apoſtles. 25 Hee approueth his authoritie and charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the ſame.

PAul an Apoſtle of IESVS Chriſt, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To them which are at a Coloſſe, Saints and faithfull brethren in Chriſt: Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 We giue thankes to God euen the Father of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſt, alwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith b in Chriſt Jeſus, and of your loue toward all Saints,

5 For the hopes ſake, which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of trueth, which is the Goſpel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the worlde, and is fruitfull, as it is alſo among you, from the day that yee heard and truely knew the grace of God,

7 As ye alſo learned of Epaphras our deare fellowe ſeruant, which is for you a faithfull miniſter of Chriſt:

8 Who hath alſo declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue c by the ſpirit.

9 For this cauſe wee alſo, ſince the day we heard of it, ceaſe not to pray for you, and to deſire that yee might bee fulfilled with knowledge of d his will, in all wiſedome, and ſpirituall vnderſtanding,

10 * That ye might walke worthy of the Lorde, and pleaſe him in all things, being * fruitfull in all good workes, and increaſing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened vnto all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long ſuffering with ioyfulneſſe,

12 Giuing thankes vnto the father, which hath made vs meete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from ỹ power of darkeneſſe, and hath tranſlated vs into the kingdome * of his deare Sonne,

14 In whome wee haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiueneſſe of ſinnes, 17 And he is before all things, and in him all things conſiſt.

18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning, * and ſ the firſt borne of the dead, that in all things hee might haue the preeminence.

CHAP. II.

1 Hauing protested his good will toward them, 4 Hee admonisheth them not to turne backe from Christ, 8 To the seruice of Angels or any other inuention, or els ceremonies of the Law, 17 Which haue finished their office, and are ended in Christ.

5 * For though I be absent in the [b] flesh, yet am I with you in the [c] spirit reioycing, and beholding your order, and your stedfast faith in Christ.

8 Beware least there bee any man that spoyle you through [d] philosophie, and vaine deceit, through the traditions of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all Principalitie and power:

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with * circumcision made without handes, by putting off the sinnefull body of the flesh, through the circumcision [f] of Christ,

12 In that yee are * buried with him through baptisme, in whome ye are also raised vp together through * the faith [g] of the operation of God which raised him from the dead.

13 * And yee which were dead in sinnes, and in the vncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, forgiuing ‖ you all your trespasses,

14 And putting out the * ‖ [h] hand writing of ordinances that was against vs, which was contrary to vs, hee euen tooke it out of the way, and fastened it vpon the crosse,

15 And hath [i] spoyled the Principalities, and powers, and hath made a shew of them openly, and hath triumphed ouer them in the same crosse.

16 Let no man therefore condemne you in meate and drinke, or in respect of an [k] holy day, or of the newe moone, or of the Sabbath dayes, 17 Which are but a shadowe of things to come: but the body is in Christ.

18 * Let no man [l] at his pleasure ‖ beare rule ouer you by humblenesse of minde and worshipping of Angels, aduancing himselfe in those things which hee neuer sawe, rashly puft vp with his fleshly minde, 19 And holdeth not the head, whereof all the body furnished and knit together by ioynts and bands, increaseth with the increasing of God.

THE

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution (which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospell) arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most carefull for them) sent Timothie to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gaue occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoeuer God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheate, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrowe their faith, taught falsely, as touching the poynt of the resurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to knowe the times, willing them rather to watch, lest the sudden comming of Christ come vpon them at vnawares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee thanketh God for them, that they are so stedfast in faith and good workes, 6 And receiue the Gospel with such earnestnes, 7 That they are an example to all others.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timothens, vnto the Church of the Thessalonias, which is in [a] God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, & peace from God our father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 * Wee giue God thankes alwayes for you all, making * mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceasing, remembring your [b] effectual faith, and [c] diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lorde Iesus Christ, in ỹ sight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that yee are elect of God.

5 For our [d] Gospell was not vnto you in worde onely, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as yee knowe after what maner wee were among you for your sakes.

6 And yee became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with [e] ioy of the holy Ghost,

7 So that ye were as ‖ ensamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the worde of the Lorde, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your faith also which is towarde God, spread abroad in all quarters, that wee needе not to speake any thing.

9 For [f] they themselues shewe of you what maner of entring in wee had vnto you, and how yee turned to God from idoles, to serue the [g] liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whome hee rayled from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from ỹ [h] wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they should not faint vnder the crosse, 2 Hee commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And theirs in obeying. 18 Hee excuseth his absence, that hee could not come and open his heart to them.

FOr ye your selues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in [a] vaine,

2 But euen after that wee had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated at * Philippi (as ye know) wee were bold [b] in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospell of God with much striuing.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as wee were allowed of God, that the Gospell should be committed vnto vs, so wee speake not, as they that [c] please men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 Neyther yet did wee euer vse flattering wordes, as yee knowe, nor coloured couetousnesse, God is record.

6 Neither sought we praise of men, neyther of you, nor of others,

7 When wee might haue bene ‖ chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but wee were gentle among you, euen as a [d] nource cherisheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned towarde you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospell of God onely, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For yee remember, brethren, * our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, because wee would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and iustly, and vnblameably we behaued our selues among [e] you that beleeue.

11 As yee knowe how that wee exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That yee * would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, that when yee receiued of vs the worde of the preaching of God, yee receiued it not as the worde of men, but as it is in deede the worde of God, which also worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, yee are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in [f] Christ Iesus, because yee haue also suffered the same things of your owne

16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might be saued, to[h] fulfill their sinnes alwayes: for the wrath of God is [i] come on them, to the vtmost.
17 Forasmuch, brethren, as wee were kept from you for a season, concerning sight, but not in the heart, wee * enforced the more to see your face with great desire.
18 Therefore wee would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twise) but Satan hindred vs.
19 For what is our hope or ioy, or crowne of reioycing? are [k] not euen you it in the presence of the Lorde Iesus Christ at his comming?
20 Yes, ye are our glory and ioy.

k Therefore I could not forget you, except I would forget my selfe.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee sheweth how greatly hee was affectioned towarde them, how in that he sent Timotheus to them, 10 And also prayed for them.

WHerefore since wee could no longer forbeare, wee thought it good to remaine at Athens [a] alone,
2 * And haue sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, & our labour fellow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching your faith,
3 That no man should bee moued with these afflictions: for ye your selues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.
4 For verily when wee were with you, we tolde you before that wee should suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye know it.
5 Euen for this cause, when [b] I could no longer forbeare, I sent him that I might knowe of your faith, least the [c] tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.
6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith & loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you,
7 Therefore, brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction, and necessitie through your faith.
8 For nowe are wee [d] aliue, if ye [e] stand fast in the Lord.
9 For what thankes can we recompense to GOD againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee reioyce for your sakes before our God,
10 Night and day * praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might [f] accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Nowe God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, guide our iourney vnto you,
12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in loue one towarde another, and towarde all men, euen as wee doe toward you:
13 * To make your hearts stable, and vnblameable in holinesse before God euen our Father, at the comming of our Lorde Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to holinesse, 6 Innocencie, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Describing the end of the resurrection.

AND furthermore wee beseech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lorde Iesus, that [a] yee increase more and more, as yee haue receiued of vs, how yee ought to walke, and to please God.
2 For yee knowe what [b] commandements we gaue you by the Lord Iesus.
3 * For this is the will of God euen your sanctification, [c] and that ye shoulde abstaine from fornication,
4 That euery one of you shoulde knowe, how to possesse his [d] vessell in holinesse and honour,
5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, euē as the Gentiles which knowe not God:
6 * That no man oppresse or defraude his brother in any matter: for the Lorde is auenger of all such things, as wee also haue tolde you before time, and testified.
7 * For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannesse, but vnto holinesse.
8 He therefore that despiseth [e] these things, despiseth not man, but God who hath euen giuen * you his holy Spirit.
9 But as touching brotherly loue, yee neede not that I write vnto you: * for yee are taught of God to loue one another.
10 Yea, and that thing verily yee doe vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but wee beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more,
11 * And that yee studie to bee quiet, and to meddle with your owne businesse, and to worke with your [f] owne handes, as wee commanded you,
12 That yee may behaue your selues honestly towarde them that [g] are without, and that nothing be [h] lacking vnto you.
13 ¶ I would not, brethren, haue you ignorant concerning them which are asleepe, that yee [i] sorowe not, euen as other which haue no hope.
14 For if wee beleeue that Iesus is dead, and is risen, euen so them which sleepe in [k] Iesus, will God [l] bring with him.
15 For this say wee vnto you by the [m] worde of the Lorde, * that wee which liue, and are remayning in the comming of the Lord, shall not preuent them which sleepe.
16 For the Lorde himselfe shall descende from heauen with a showte, and with the voyce of the Archangell, * and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

CHAP. V.

1 He enformeth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lorde, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard such as preach Gods word among them.

BVt of the a times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.

2 For yee your selues knowe perfectly, that the b day of the Lord shall come, euen as a theefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, & safetie, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the c trauaile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenes, that that day should come on you, as it were a theefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let vs not d sleepe as doe other, but let vs e watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the e day, be sober, * putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, & the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obteine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ.

10 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or f sleepe, wee should liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now we beseech you, brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lorde, and g admonish you, 13 That yee haue them in singular loue for h their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 Wee desire you brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake: be patient toward all men.

15 * See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 i Reioyce euermore.

18 In all things giue thankes: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

The first Epistle vnto the Thessalonians written from Athens.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

LEast the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because hee went to other places rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience and other fruits of faith, neither to be mooued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the worlde, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, hee willeth them to correct such sharpely, as liue idlely of other mens labours, whome, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their faith, loue, and patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruit shall come thereof.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ:

2 Grace be with you, & peace from God our father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * Wee ought to thanke God alwaies for you brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you towarde another aboundeth, 1. Thes. 1. 2.

a Which proceedeth of your faith as a most notable fruite.
b The faithfull by their afflictions see as in a cleare glasse, the end of Gods iust iudgement, when as they shall reigne with Christ which haue suffered with him, and the wicked shall feele his extreme wrath and vengeance. Iude 6. 1.Thes.4.16.
c By whom he declareth his might.
d As God is euerlasting, so shal their punishment be euerlasting: & as hee is most mighty of power, so shall their punishment be most sore.
e The free benevolence of Gods goodnes, comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination and vocation: the worke of faith conteineth our iustification, to the which God addeth glorification: and all these he worketh of his meere grace through Christ. f Faith is Gods wonderfull worke in vs, g As the head with the body,

4 So that wee our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your [a] patience, and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer.
5 Which is a [b] token of the righteous * iudgement of God, that yee may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffer.
6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,
7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs * when the Lorde Iesus shall shewe himselfe from heauen with his [c] mightie Angels,
8 In flaming fire, rendring vengeance vnto them that doe not know God, f which obey not vnto the Gospell of our Lorde Iesus Christ,
9 Which shall be punished with [d] euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power,
10 When he shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to bee made marueilous in all them that beleeue (because our testimonie toward you was beleeued) in that day.
11 Wherefore, wee also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfill * all the good pleasure of his goodnes, and the f worke of faith with power, 12 That the Name of our Lorde Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and yee in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

3 He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shall not come, till the departing from the faith come first, 9 And the kingdome of Antichrist, 15 And therefore hee exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught them.

NOw, wee beseech you, brethren, by the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,
2 That yee be not suddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled, neither by [a] spirite, nor by [b] worde, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.
3 * Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day shall not come, except there come a [c] departing first, and that that [d] man of sinne be disclosed, euen the sonne of [e] perdition,
4 Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth himselfe against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that hee doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that he is God.
5 Remember yee not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?
6 And nowe yee knowe what [f] withholdeth that he might be reuealed in his time.
7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth already [g] worke: onely hee which [h] nowe withholdeth, shall let, till hee be taken out of the way.
8 And then shall the wicked man be reuealed, * whome the Lorde shall consume with the [i] Spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightnesse of his comming,
9 Euen him whose [k] comming is by the working of Satan, with all power and signes, and lying wonders,
10 And in all deceiuablenes of vnrighteousnes, among them that [l] perish, because they receiued not the loue of the trueth, that they might be saued.
11 And therefore God shall send them strong delusion, that they should beleeue lies,
12 That all they might be damned, which beleeued not the trueth, but had [m] pleasure in vnrighteousnesse.
13 But we ought to giue thankes alway to God for you, brethren [n] beloued of the Lord, because that God hath [o] from the beginning chosen you to saluation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of [p] trueth, 14 Whereunto hee called you by [q] our Gospell, to obteine the glory of our Lorde Iesus Christ.
15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast and keepe the [r] instructions, which yee haue bene taught, either [s] by word, or by our Epistle.
16 Nowe the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs euerlasting consolation and good hope through grace, e Who as he destroyeth others, so shall he be destroyed himselfe.

f Because the false apostles had perswaded after a sort the Thessalonians, that the day of the Lord was neere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible dissipatiō before: and therefore rather to prepare themselues to patience then to rest and quietnes for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospel should be preached throughout all, Matt. 24. 14.

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN writing this Epistle, Paul seemeth not only to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doeth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Lawe, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, wherby they declared, that professing the Law, they knew not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, he so confesseth his vnworthinesse, that he sheweth to what worthinesse the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore hee willeth prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offring his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And for as much as God hath left ministers as ordinatie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whome the mysterie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this hee sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion, men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the duetie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculation, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing bee taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie, and edification are the ende thereof, 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

3 As I beought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou mayest commaund some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neyther that they giue heede to * fables and genealogies, * which are endlesse, which breede questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospell, and in the the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue, as doe husbandmen, which at length receiue the fruites of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as souldiers doe which seeke only to please their captaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which he preached, commaunding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible, and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authoritie and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods triall come: yet hee reserueth them whom hee hath elected, euen to the ende. And that Timotheus should not bee discouraged by the wicked, hee declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures, both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessarie affaires, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnesse and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that hee had taught him, 12 Whereof his bonds and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

PAUL an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, a according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus, a Being sent of God to preach that life which he had promised in Christ Iesus. Acts 22.3.

2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ our Lord.

b Following the steps of mine ancestors, as Abraham, Isaac, Iacob and others of whom I am come, and of whom I receiued the true religion by succession.

3 I thanke God, * whom I serue from mine b elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindefull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfeined faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

c The gift of God is a certaine liuely flame kindled in our hearts, which Satan and the flesh labour to quench, and therefore wee must nourish it, and stirre it vp.

6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance, that thou c stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of d mine hands.

d With the rest of the Elders of Ephesus, 1. Tim. 4.14.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of e feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

e As though God would destroy vs. 1. Cor. 1.2. Ephes. 1.3,4. Titus 3.5. Rom. 16.25. ephe. 3.9. col. 1,26 tit. 1.2. 1. pet. 1.20.

8 Bee not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lord, neither of mee his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saued vs and called vs with an * holy calling, not according to our * workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Jesus before the * worlde was,

10 But is now made manifest by the f appearing of our Sauiour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.

f Hee speaketh here of his first comming, which though it seemed poore and contemptible, yet was honourable and glorious: therefore our mindes ought to be lifted vp from the consideration of worldly things, to contemplate the maiestie thereof. 1. Tim. 2.7.

11 * Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whom I haue beleeued, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue g committed to him against that day.

g Which is my selfe.

13 Keepe the true patterne of the wholesome wordes, which thou hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That h worthy thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

h The graces of the holy Ghost.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercie vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him, that he may finde mercy with the Lord at that day, and in how many things he hath ministred vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth him to bee constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his, 19 And the marke thereof.

THou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, ‖ by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithfull men, which shalbe able to a teach other also.

‖ Or, in the presence of many witnesses.

a So that the trueth of God may remaine perfect.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth him selfe with b the affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

b As with his household, and other ordinarie affaires.

5 And if any man also striue for a masterie, he is not crowned, except he striue as hee ought to doe.

6 The husbandman c must labour before he receiue the fruites.

c So that the paine must goe before the recompence.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lorde giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ made of the seede of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

d Notwithstanding mine imprisonment the worde of God hath his race, and increaseth.

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bonds: but the word of God is not d bound.

10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the * e elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be * dead with him, we also shall liue with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne with him: * if we denie him, he also will denie vs.

13 * If wee beleeue not, yet abideth hee faithfull: he cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lorde, that they striue not about wordes, which is to no profite, but to the perverting of the heaters.

15 Studie to shewe thy selfe approoued vnto God, a workeman that needeth not to be ashamed, f dividing the worde of trueth aright.

20 Notwithstanding in a h great house are not onely vessels of golde and of siluer, but also of wood and of earth, and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from i these, he shalbe a vessell vnto honour, sanctified, and meete for the Lord, and prepared vnto euery good worke.

22 Flee also from the lustes of youth, and followe after righteousnesse, faith, loue, and peace, with them that * call on the Lord with pure heart.

23 * And put away foolish, and k vnlearned questions, knowing that they engender strife.

4 Traitours, headie, hie minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

5 Hauing a shew of godlinesse, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from such.

6 For of this sort are they which b creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and led with diuers lustes,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the trueth.

8 * And as Iannes and Iambres withstoode Moses, so doe these also resist the trueth, men of c corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their madnesse shalbe euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.

10 ¶ But thou hast fully knowen my doctrine, maner of liuing, d purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience, 11 Persecutions, and afflictions which came vnto mee at * Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Lystri, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered mee.

12 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euill men and e deceiuers, shall waxe worse and worse, deceiuing, and being deceiued.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and art perswaded thereof, knowing of whome thou hast learned them:

15 And that thou hast knowen the holy Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

16 * For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teach, to improoue, to correct and to instruct in righteousnesse,

The second Epistle written from Rome vnto Timotheus the first Bishop elected of the Church of Ephesus, when Paul was presented the second time before the Emperour Nero.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHen Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begunne, Satan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernement of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition would haue thrust in themselues to be pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Lawe brought in many trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to choose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sound doctrine, to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongs other things hee noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates and such outwarde ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or else doeth not obey, hee willeth him to be auoyded.

CHAP. I.

1 He aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernement of the Church. 7 The ordinance and office of ministers. 12 The nature of the Cretians and of them which sowe abroad Iewish fables and inuentions of men.

PAul a ‖seruant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the a faith of Gods elect, and the knowledge of the trueth, which is according to godlinesse,

2 Vnder the hope of eternall life, which God that cannot lie, hath b promised before the* world began:

3 But hath made his worde manifest in due time through the preaching, which is *committed vnto me, according to the commandement of God our c Sauiour.

4 To Titus my naturall d sonne according to the common faith, grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Sauiour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to redresse the things that remayne, and shouldest ordeine elders in euery citie, as I appointed thee,

6 *If any e be vnreprouable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandered of ryot, neither are disobedient.

7 For a Bishop must bee vnreprouable as f Gods steward, not ‖froward, not angry, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre,

8 But harberous, one that loueth ‖goodnesse, wise, g righteous, h holy, temperate,

9 Holding fast the faithfull word according to doctrine, that he also may be able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and improoue them that say against it.

10 For there are many disobedient and vaine talkers and deceiuers of mindes, chiefly i Which were not onely the Iewes, but also the Hebionites and Cerinthians heretikes, which taught that the Law must be ioyned with Christ.

k He calleth Epimenides the Philosopher or Poet, whose verse he here reciteth, a Prophet, because the Cretians so esteemed him: and as Laertius writeth, they sacrificed vnto him, as to a God, forasmuch as he had a marueilous gift to vnderstand things to come, which thing Satan by the permission of God hath opened to the Infidels from time to time, but it turneth to their greater condemnation. 1. Tim. 1. 4. Rom. 14. 20.

12 One of themselues, euen one of their owne k prophets said, The Cretians are alwayes lyars, euill beasts, slowe bellies.

13 This witnesse is true: wherefore rebuke them sharpely, that they may bee sound in the faith, 14 And not taking heede to * Iewish fables and commaundements of men, that turne from the truth.

15 Vnto the pure * are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and vnbeleeuing, is nothing pure, but euen their minde and consciences are defiled.

16 They professe that they knowe God, but by l workes they deny him, and are abominable and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 How commendeth vnto him the wholesome doctrine, and telleth him how he shall teach all degrees to behaue themselues. 11 Through the benefite of the grace of Christ.

BVt speake thou the things which become * wholesome doctrine,

2 That the elder men bee sober, honest, discrete, sounde in the faith, in loue, and in patience:

3 The elder women likewise, that they bee in such behauiour as becommeth holinesse, not false accusers, not giuen to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the yong women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children,

5 That they be discreete, chaste, b keeping at home, good, and * subiect vnto their husbands, that the worde of God be not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 Aboue all things shewe thy selfe an ensample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integritie,

8 And with the wholesome word, which cannot be reproued, that hee which withstandeth, may be ashamed, hauing nothing concerning you to speake euill of.

9 * Let seruants be subiect to their masters, and please them in all things, not answering againe,

10 Neither pikers, but that they shew all good faithfulnesse, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our sauiour in all things.

11 * For the grace of God, that bringeth c saluation vnto all men, hath appeared,

12 And teacheth vs that we should denie vngodlinesse, and worldly lustes, and that we should liue soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present world, 13 Looking for the blessed hope, and appearing of the glory of the mightie God, and of our Sauiour Iesus Christ.

14 Who gaue himselfe for vs, that hee might redeeme vs from all iniquitie, and purge vs to be a d peculiar people vnto himselfe, zealous of good workes.

15 These things speake, and exhort, and rebuke with all e authoritie. See that no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Of obedience to such as be in authoritie. 9 He warneth Titus to beware of foolish and vnprofitable questions. 12 Concluding with certaine priuate matters, 15 And salutations.

PVt them in remembrance that they * a be subiect to the principalities and powers, and that they be obedient, and ready to euery good worke.

2 That they speake euill of no man, that they be no fighters, but soft, shewing all meekenesse vnto all men.

3 * b For wee our selues also were in times past vnwise, disobedient, deceiued, seruing the lustes and diuers pleasures, liuing in maliciousnesse and enuie, hatefull, and hating one another.

4 But when the bountifulnesse and loue of God our Sauiour toward man appeared,

5 * Not c by the workes of righteousnes, which wee had done, but according to his mercie he saued vs, by the d washing of the new birth, & the renewing of the holy Ghost,

6 Which hee shed on vs aboundantly, through Iesus Christ our Sauiour,

7 That we, being iustified by his grace, should be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue beleeued in God, might be carefull to shewe foorth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

9 * But stay foolish questions, & genealogies, & contentions, & brawlings about the Law: for they are vnprofitable and vaine.

10 e Reiect him that is an heretike, after once or twise admonition, 11 Knowing that hee that is such, is f peruerted, and s sinneth being damned of his owne selfe.

12 When I shall sende Artemas vnto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me vnto Nicopolis: for I haue determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas h the expounder of the Law, and Apollos on their iourney diligently, that they lacke nothing.

14 And let ours also learne to shew forth good workes for necessarie vses, that they be not vnfruitfull.

15 All that are with mee, salute thee. Greete them that loue vs in the faith. Grace be with you all, Amen.

THE

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGVMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnesse, and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the baseneſse of his matter, hee flieth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments prouing the duetie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 Hee reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgiue his seruant Onesimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

PAVL a prisoner of Iesus Christ, & our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend & fellow helper,

2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I * giue thankes to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 (When I heare of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the [a] fellowshippe of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that what goeuer good thing is in you [b] through Christ Iesus, may be knowen.

7 For wee haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints [c] hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore, though I be very bolde in Christ to commaund thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my sonne * Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is, mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue retained with me, that in thy steade hee might haue ministred vnto me in the bonds of the Gospel.

14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefite should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore [d] departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer, 16 [e] Not now as a seruant, but aboue a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, spectally to me: how much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our thinges [f] common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I doe not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my [g] bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Moreouer also prepare mee lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shall be giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner [h] in Christ Iesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow helpers.

25 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGVMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the authour thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although wee know not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby hee principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an ende: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophecies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and hee the Lord, but so Lorde, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe: for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priests were but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. verse 18. to the twentie and fiue verse of the same Chapter: yea and is the king to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25. to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the olde fathers, we must constantly stantly beleeue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisedome, and governed by his power, wee may stedfastly and couragiously persuere euen to the ende, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that wee may both be thankefull to God, and ductifull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 aboue the Angels, 7 and of their office.

AT sundry times and in diuers maners a God spake in the old time to our Fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these b last dayes hee hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom hee hath made heir of all things, c by whom also he made the worlds,

3 * Who being the brightnesse of the glory, and the d engraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mightie word, hath by himselfe e purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the maiestie in the highest places,

4 And is made so much more excellent then the f Angels, inasmuch as he hath obteined a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels said hee at any time, * Thou art my Sonne, g this day begate I thee? and againe, I * will be his Father, and he shalbe my Sonne?

6 And againe when hee bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the worlde, hee saith, * And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he sayth, * He maketh the h Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the Sonne he saith, * O God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the i scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righteousnesse.

9 Thou hast loued righteousnesse, and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath k anoynted thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy fellowes.

10 And, * Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou doest remaine: and they all shall waxe olde as doeth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels sayde hee at any time, * Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole?

14 Are they not all ministring spirits, sent forth to minister, for their sakes which shall be heires of saluation?

a God, who is euer constant, and mercifull to his Church, declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundry sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all truth to vs by his Sonne.

b So that now we may not credite any newe reuelations after him.

c He intreateth here of Christ, both as touching his person, which is very God and very man, by whom all things are made, and also as touching his office, whereby he is King, Prophet, and Priest. Wisd.7.26. Colos.1.15.

d The liuely image & patterne, so that he that seeth him, seeth the Father, Iohn 14.9. for else the person of the Father is not seene, but apprehended by faith.

e So that our sinnes can be purged by none other meanes.

f Much more then, then all other things created.

Psal.2.7. chap.5.5. act.13.33. g Because he was at the time appointed, declared to the world. 2.Sam.7.14. 1.chro.22.10. Psal.97.7. Psal.104.4. h Hee compareth the Angels to the windes, which are here beneath as Gods messengers. Psal.45.6,7. i The administration of thy kingdom is iust. k This is meant in that that the word is made flesh, and that the holy Ghost was powred on him without measure, that wee may all receiue of him euery one according to his measure. Psal.102.25. Psa.110.1. mat.22.44. 1.cor.15.25. chap.10.12.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new Lawe which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to be offended at the infirmitie and lowe degree of Christ, 10 Because it was necessarie that for our sakes he should take such an humble state vpon him, that he might be like vnto his brethren.

WHerefore we ought diligently to giue heede to the things which wee haue heard, lest at any a time wee should let them slippe.

2 For if the b worde spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward,

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so c great saluation, which at the first begainne to bee preached by the Lorde, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by d them that heard him,

4 * God bearing witnesse thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the e world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But * one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, f What is man, that thou shouldest be mindfull of him! or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him!

7 Thou madest him a litle inferiour to the Angels: thou crownedst him with g glorie and honour, and hast set him aboue the workes of thine hands.

8 * Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. h But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

9 But we see Iesus k crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a litle inferiour to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whome are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that hee brought many children vnto glory, that hee should consecrate the l Prince of their saluation through m afflictions.

11 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all n of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, * I will declare thy Name vnto my o brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing prayses to thee.

a We must diligently keepe in memorie the doctrine, which we haue learned, lest like vessels full of chaps we leake, and runne out on euery part.

b Which was the Law giuen to Moses by the hands of Angels, Gal.3.19. Actes 7.53.

d That is, the Apostles. Marke 16.20.

e Which Esay calleth the new heauens, and the new earth, Chap.65.17. Where of Christ is the Father, Iesa. 9.6. that is, the head of vs his members. Psal.8.4.

f He speaketh here chiefly of the faithfull, which are made through Christ, citizens of the world to come, where they shall enioy with their prince all their things which now they haue onely but in part.

g In making him fellow heire with Christ. Mat.28.18. 1.cor.15.27. philip.2.9,10,11. h To them which obiect that they see not these things accomplished in man, the Apostle answereth that they are fulfilled in Christ our captaine, who leadeth him to the same glory with him. i To man as he is of Christ. k By his vertue which most manifestly appeareth in the Church. l Iesus Christ by humbling himselfe, and taking vpon him the forme of a seruant, which was our flesh, and mortalitie, giueth vs assurance of our saluation. m Therefore wee by afflictions are made like to the Sonne of God. n The head and the members are of one nature: so Christ which sanctifieth vs, and we that are sanctified, are all one by the vnion of our flesh. Psal,22.22.

o This proueth Christes humanitie.

13 And

Isai speaketh this of himselfe & his disciples, but properly it is applied to Christ the head of all ministers.

And Gods anger.
Not the nature of Angels but of man.
Not onely as touching nature but also qualities,onely sinne except.

13 And againe, *I will put my trust in him. And againe, *Beholde, here am I,and the children, which God hath giuen me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, hee also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that hee might destroy *through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuill,

15 And that hee might deliuer all them, which for feare of death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

16 For hee in no sort tooke the Angels, but he tooke the seede of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethren, that hee might be mercifull, and a faithfull high Priest in things concerning God, that hee might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

18 For in that hee suffered, and was tempted, hee is able to succour them that are tempted.

u Forasmuch as he is exercised in our miseries, we may bee assured,that at all times in our tentations he will succour vs.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee requireth them to bee obedient vnto the worde of Christ, 3 Who is more worthie then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts,and not beleeue, that they might haue eternall rest.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, *consider the Apostle and high Priest of our profession, Christ Iesus:

Take heede to his words and receiue him.
Of that doctrine which we beleeue,and ought to confesse.

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed him,euen as *Moses was in all his house.

To be the ambassadour and hie Priest.
*Numb.12.7.
Moses was but part of the house, that is, of the Church whereof the pastors are the liuely stones,but Christ builded it, and layde the stones: therefore he deserueth more prayse.

3 For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses,in as much as hee which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, but he that hath built all things,is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithfull in all his house,as a seruant, for a witnesse of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose house wee are, if wee holde fast the confidence, and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost sayeth, *To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your heartes, as in the prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernesse.

9 Where your fathers tempted me, proued mee, and saw my workes fourtie yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and sayd, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest.

12 Take heede, brethren, lest at any time there be in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another dayly, while it is called To day, least any of you be hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the ende the beginning, wherewith we are vpholden, 15 So long as it is sayd, To day if yee heare his voyce, harden not your heartes, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whome was hee displeased fourtie yeeres? was hee not displeased with them that sinned, *whose carkeises fell in the wildernesse?

18 And to whome sware hee that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So wee see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

CHAP. IIII.

2 The worde without faith is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of vnbeleeuers. 12 The nature of the worde of God.

Let vs feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme to bee deprined.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospell preached as also vnto them: but the worde that they heard, profited not them, because it was not mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleeued, doe enter into rest, as hee sayde to the other, *As I haue sworne in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the workes were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For hee spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, *And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remayneth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whome it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeliefes sake:

7 Againe hee appointeth in Dauid a certain day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is sayd, *This day if ye heare his voyce,harden not your hearts.

8 For if Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

l Therefore when we heare his worde, we must tremble, knowing thereby that God soundeth our hearts.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the worde of God is liuely, and mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and g entreth through, euen vnto the deuiding asunder of the h soule and the i spirit, and of the ioyntes, and the marowe, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and k open vnto his eyes, ‖ with whom we haue l to doe.

14 Seeing then that wee haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For wee haue not an hie Priest, which cannot bee touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of neede.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leuitical Priestes, shewing wherein they ayther agree, or disagree. 11 Afterward he reproueth the negligence of the Iewes.

a He sheweth that man can haue none accesse to God without an hie Priest, because that of him selfe he is prophane and sinfull.

e Who was both Priest and King.

f When he liued in this world.

g He meaneth that most earnest prier which Christ prayed in the garden, where he sweat drops of blood.

h Being in perplexitie, and feazing the horrors of death.

i He digresseth till hee come to the beginning of the 7. chap.

FOr euery high Priest is taken from among men, and is a ordeyned for men, in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both b giftes, and c sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them d that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that he also is compassed with infirmitie,

3 And for the same sake hee is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 * And no man taketh this honour vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but hee that said vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, * Thou art a Priest for euer after e the order of Melchi-sedec.

7 Which in the f dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with g strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard h in that which he feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned hee obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the authour of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an hie Priest after the order of Melchi-sedec.

11 i Of whome we haue many things to say, which are hard to be vttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time ye ought to bee teachers, yet haue yee neede againe that wee teach you the first ‖ principles of the worde of God: and are become such as haue neede of k milke, and not of strong meate.

‖Or, rudiments.

k Reade 1. Cor. 3. 2.

13 For euery one that vseth milke, is inexpert in the l word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

l That is, the Gospel, which is the true knowledge that teacheth vs where we haue our iustice.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wittes exercised, to discerne both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 He proceedeth in reproouing them, & exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be stedfast and patient, 18 forasmuch as God is sure in his promise.

THerefore leauing the doctrine of the a beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation b of repentance from dead workes, and of faith toward God, a That is, the first rudiments of our Christian religion.

2 Of the doctrine of c baptismes, and laying on of hands, & of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

b Hee meaneth fiue points of the catechisme which was then in vse: the confession of a mans owne faith: the summe of the faith: a briefe explication of baptisme, and laying on of handes: the article of the resurrection, and the last iudgement.

3 And this will we doe, d if God permit.

4 * For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost, c Then the vse of baptisme was declared, when on the solemne dayes appoynted to baptize, the Church came together.

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they e crucifie againe to them selues the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

d It is Gods singular gift to increase in knowledge, and to go forward in the vnderstanding of Gods word. Mat. 12. 31, 32. 2. pet. 2. 20. chap. 10. 26.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that commeth oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes meete for them by whom it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briers, is reprooued, & is neere vnto cursing, whose ende is to be burned.

e They which are apostates, and sinne against the holy Ghost, hate Christ, crucifie and mocke him, but to their own destruction, and therefore fall into desperation, & cannot repent.

9 But beloued, wee haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that hee should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which ye shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saintes, and yet ministre.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence, to the f full assurance of hope vnto the ende, 12 That ye be not slouthfull, but followers of g them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

f Whereby it may appeare, that you are fully perswaded of life euerlasting. g As the holy fathers, Prophets, and Martyrs, that were before vs. Gene. 12. 2. and 17. 4. and 22. 17.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because hee had no greater to sweare by, he sware by himselfe, 14 Saying, * Surely I will abundantly blesse thee and multiply thee marueilously.

15 And so after that hee had tarried patiently, he enioyed the promise.

16 For men verely sweare by him that is greater then themselues, and an othe for confirmation is among them an ende of all strife.

17 So God willing more abundantly to shewe vnto the heires of promise the stablenesse of his counsell, bound himselfe by an othe,

18 That by two immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God should lie, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to hold fast the hope that is set before vs,

19 Which wee haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and stedfast, and it entreth into that which is within the vaile, 20 Whither the fourrunner is for vs entred in, euen Iesus that is made an hie Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

l Which is heauen, whither Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

CHAP. VII.

He compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchi-sedec, 11 Also Christes Priesthood aboue the Leuites.

Gen. 14. 18.

FOr this Melchi-sedec a was king of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, whomet Abraham, as hee returned from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousnesse: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

3 Without b father, without mother, without kinred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neyther ende of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Nowe consider howe great this man was, vnto whom euen the c Patriarke Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.

5 For verily they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthood, haue a d commandement to take according to the Lawe, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kinred is not counted among them, e receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And heremen that die, receiue tithes: but there hee receiueth them, of whome it is witnessed, that he liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchi-sedec mette him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthoode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthoode bee changed, then of necessitie must there bee a change of the f Lawe.

13 For hee of whom those things are spoken, pertayneth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lorde sprung out of Iuda, concerning which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the g Lawe of the carnall commandement, but after the power of the endelesse life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, h Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because of the weakenes thereof, and vnprofitablenesse.

19 For the Lawe made nothing perfite, but i the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, wherby we draw neere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe:

21 But this, hee is made with an othe by him that sayde vnto him, k The Lorde hath sworne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec)

22 By so much is Iesus made a suretie of a better l Testament.

23 And among them many were made priests, because they were not suffered to endure by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath an m euerlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, hee is able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needed not dayly as those hie Priests to offer vp sacrifice, n first for his owne sinnes, & then for the peoples: for that did he o once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the Lorde maketh men high Priestes, which haue infirmitie: but the worde of the othe that was since the lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

g The Law and the Priesthood are both of one condition: for that both Aarons and Moses office pertaine to Christ, which is Priest and Lawmaker.

h Which stood in outward and corporall ceremonies. Psal. 110. 4. chap. 5. 6.

i For the Lawe hath no vertue nor profit, till a man be come to Christ.

Or, is a an introduction of a better hope.

Psal. 110. 4.

Or, couenant.

k Therefore others are blasphemous, that either make them selues his successors, or pretend any other sacrifice.

l The fruite of the Priesthood is to saue, and that dayly and perfectly, not by supplying that that wanteth, but by taking away the Law, which is vnperfect by reason of our infirmities. Leuit. 16. 6.

m And cannot without blasphemie be said to be offered againe, or else by any creature: for none could offer him, but himselfe.

n Not that it was first made after the Lawe was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternall othe was then reuealed to the world.

CHAP. VIII.

He proueth the abolishing of all of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the old Couenant by the spirituall and euerlasting Priesthode of Christ, 8 And by the new couenant.

and of the true [b] Tabernacle, which the Lord pight, and not [c] man.

3 For [d] euery hie Priest is ordeyned to offer both giftes and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man shoulde haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For yee were not a Priest, if hee were on the earth, seeing there are Priestes that according to the Law offer giftes,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne and shadowe of heauenly things, as Moses was warned by God, when hee was about to finish the Tabernacle. *See, sayd hee, that thou make all things according to the [e] paterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our hie Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, in as much as hee is the Mediatour of a better ‖ Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bin faultlesse, no place should haue bene sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them hee sayeth, *Behold, the dayes will [f] come, sayeth the Lorde, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a newe Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they [h] continued not in my testament, and I regarded them not, sayeth the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel, After those dayes, sayeth the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I will bee their God, and they shall be my people, 11 And they shall not [i] teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Knowe the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will bee mercifull to their vnrighteousnesse, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that hee sayeth a new Testament, he hath abrogate the olde: now that which is disanulled and waxed olde: is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Lawe are abolished. 11 by the eternitie and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

THen the first ‖ Testament had also [a] ordinances of religion, and a worldly Sanctuarie.

2 For the first [b] Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlesticke, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holy places.

3 And after the [c] second vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlaid round about with golde, wherein the golden potte which had Manna, was, and * Aarons rod that had budded, and the * Tables of the Testament.

5 * And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the ‖ Mercie seate: of which things wee will not nowe speake particularly.

6 Nowe when these things were thus ordeyned, the Priestes went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the seconde went the * high Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which hee offered for himselfe, and for the ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signifies, that the [c] way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make ‖ holy, concerning the conscience, [d] him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stoode in meates and drinkes, and diuers washings, and * carnall rites, vntill the time of [f] reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect [g] Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred hee in once vnto the [h] holy place, [i] and obteyned eternall redemption for vs.

13 * For if the [k] blood of bulles and of goates, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the [l] flesh,

14 How much more shall the * blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirite offred himselfe without spotte to God, purge your conscience from [m] dead workes, [n] to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is hee the Mediatour of the newe Testament, that through * death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the [o] former Testament, they which were called, might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must bee the death of him that made the Testament.

17 * For the [p] Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is aliue.

p Without the death of beasts that were sacrificed, which signified that Christ would pacifie his Fathers wrath with his blood.

19 For

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to the people, according to the Law, hee tooke the blood of calues and of goats, with water and purple woull and hyssope, and sprinkled both the booke, and all the people.

Exod.24.8.

20 * Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, hee sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heauenly things should be purified with such things: but the heauenly things themselues are purified with better q sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with hands, which are ‖ similitudes of the true Sanctuarie: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs,

25 Not that hee should offer himselfe * often, as the High Priest entred into the holy place euery yeere with other blood, 26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the world) but nowe in the t ende of the world hath hee appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shall once die, and after that commeth the iudgement, 28 So * Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of * many, and vnto them that looke for him, shall hee appeare the second time u without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 The olde Lawe had no power to cleanse away sinne, 10 but Christ did it with offering of his body once for all. 22 An exhortation to receiue the goodnesse of God thankfully with patience and stedfast faith.

FOr the * Lawe hauing the a shadowe of good things to b come, and not the very ‖ image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually, ‖ sanctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere.

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of bulles and goats should * take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when he c commeth into the world, hee sayth, * Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not: but a d body hast thou prepared me.

6 In burnt offerings, and braue offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I sayd, Lo, I come (In the beginning of the e booke it is written of me,) to obey thee, which both tend to one purpose.

8 Aboue when hee sayd, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings, thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law)

9 Then sayd he, Lo, I come to doe thy will, O God, he taketh away f the first, that he may establish the g second.

10 By the which will wee are sanctified, euen by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once made.

11 And euery Priest appeareth dayly ministring, and oft times offereth one maner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God, 13 And from henceforth tarieth * till his enemies be made his footestoole.

14 For with one offering hath h he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had sayd before,

16 * This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After those dayes, sayth the Lord, I wil put my lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them, 17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where i remission of these things is, there is no more k offering for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Jesus we l may be bold to enter into the holy place,

20 By the new, and m liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

21 And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God, 22 Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, n sprinkled in our hearts from an euill conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs keepe o profession of our hope, without wauering (for hee is faithfull that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes, 25 Not forsaking the fellowship that wee haue among our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because ye see that the p day draweth neere.

26 * For if we sinne willingly after that wee haue receiued the knowledge of the trueth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes,

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, & a commendation of the same. 6 Without faith we cannot please God, 16 The stedfast beleefe of the fathers in old time.

NOw faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, & the euidence of things which are not seene.

2 For by it our Elders were well * reported of.

3 * Through faith wee vnderstand that the worlde was ordained by the worde of God, so that the things which wee see, are not made of things, which b did appeare.

4 By faith Abel * offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, c by * the which he obtained witnes that he was d righteous: God testifying of his giftes: by the which faith also, he being dead, yet e speaketh.

5 By faith was * f Enoch taken away, that he should not see death: neither was he found: for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reported of, that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is vnpossible to please him: for hee that commeth to God, must beleeue that God is, and that he is a g rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 By faith * Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the saueing of his houshold, through the which Arke hee condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteousnesse, which is by faith.

8 By faith * Abraham, when hee was called, obeyed God, to goe out into a place, which he should afterwarde receiue for inheritance, and hee went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith hee abode in the land of promise, as in a strange countrey, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob heires with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city hauing a * foundation, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith * Sarra also receiued strength to conceiue seede, and was deliuered of a childe when shee was past age, because shee iudged him faithfull which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one, euen of one which was i dead, so many as * the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of the sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these died in faith, and * receiued not the promises, but sawe them l afarre off, and beleeued them, and receiued them thankfully, and confessed that they were m straungers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainely that they seeke a countrey.

15 And if they had bene mindful of * that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is, an heauenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for hee hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith * Abraham offred vp Isaac, when hee o was tried, and hee that had receiued the promises, offered vp his only begotten sonne.

18 (To whome it was sayd, * In Isaac shall thy seede be called.)

19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him also after a sort.

20 By faith * Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith, * Jacob when he was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, and * ‖ leaning on the ende of his staffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith * Joseph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, & gaue commandement of his bones.

23 * By faith Moses when he was borne, was hidde three moneths of his parents, because they sawe hee was a proper childe, neither feared they the Kings * commaundement.

24 By faith * Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter,

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the p pleasures

7 If ye endure chastening, God offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whome the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore yee be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are yee bastards, and not c sonnes.

9 Moreouer we haue had the fathers of our * bodies which corrected vs, and wee gaue them reuerence: should wee not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of * spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but hee chasteneth vs for our profite, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to bee ioyous, but grieuous: but afterwarde, it bringeth the quiet fruite of righteousnesse, vnto them which are therby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your handes which hang downe, and your weake knees, 13 And make streight steppes vnto your feete, lest d that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 * Follow peace with all men, and holinesse, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heede, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no b roote of bitternesse spring vp and trouble you, least thereby many be defiled.

19 Let there bee no fornicator, or prophane person as * Esau, which for a pottion of meate solde his birthright.

17 * For yee knowe howe that afterward also when hee woulde haue inherited the blessing, hee was reiected: for hee found no place to f repentance, though hee sought the blessing with teares.

18 For ye are not come vnto the * mount that b might bee touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blackenesse and darkenesse, and tempest, 19 Neither vnto the sounde of a trumpet, and the voyce of wordes, which they that heard it, excused themselues, that the worde should not be spoken to them any more.

20 (For they were not able to abide that which was commanded, * Yea, though a beast touch the mountaine, it shall be stoned, or thrust thorowe with a dart:

22 But yee are come vnto the mount [l] Sion, and to the city of the liuing God, the [m] celestiall Ierusalem, and to the company of innumerable [n] Angels,

23 And to the congregation of the first borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the iudge of all, and to the spirites of iust and perfect men, 24 And to Iesus the Mediatour of the new Testament, and to the blood of sprinckling that speaketh better things then that of * Abel.

25 See that ye despise not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not which refused him that spake on [o] earth: much more shall we not escape, if wee turne away from him, that speaketh from heauen.

26 Whose voyce then shooke the earth, and now hath declared, saying, * Yet once more will I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen.

27 And this worde, Yet once more signifieth the removing of those things which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things which are not shaken, may remaine.

28 Wherefore seeing wee receiue a kingdome, which cannot bee shaken, let vs haue grace, whereby we may so serue God, that we may please him with reuerence & feare.

29 For * euen our God is a [p] consuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He exhorteth vs vnto loue, 2 To hospitalitie, 3 To thinke vpon such as bee in aduersitie, 4 To maintaine wedlocke, 5 To auoyde couetousnesse, 7 To make much of them that preach Gods word, 9 To beware of strange learning, 13 To be content to suffer rebuke with Christ, 15 To be thankefull vnto God, 17 And obedient vnto our gouernours.

LEt * brotherly loue continue.

2 Be not forgetful to lodge strangers: for thereby some haue * receiued Angels into their houses vnwares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as though yee were bounde with them: and them that are in affliction, as if yee were also afflicted in the body.

4 * Marriage is honourable among all, and the [q] bed vndefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will iudge.

5 Let your conuersation bee without couetousnesse, & bee content with those things that yee haue: for [b] he hath sayd, * I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee:

6 So that we may boldly say, * The Lord is mine helper, neyther will I feare what man can doe vnto me.

7 Remember them which haue the ouersight of you, which haue declared vnto you the worde of God: whose faith follow, considering what hath bene the ende of their conuersation.

8 Iesus Christ [c] yesterday, and to day, the same also is for euer.

9 Bee not caried about with diuers and strange [d] doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be stablished with grace, and not with [e] meates, which haue not profited them that haue bene occupied therein.

10 We haue an altar, whereof they haue no authoritie to [f] eate, which serue in the tabernacle.

11 * For the bodies of those beastes whose blood is brought into the Holy place by the hie Priest for sinne, are burnt without the campe.

12 Therefore euen Iesus, that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let vs goe forth therefore out of the campe, bearing his reproch.

14 * For here haue wee no continuing citie: but we seeke one to come.

15 Let vs therefore by him offer the sacrifice of praise alwayes to God, that is, the * fruite of the lippes, which confesse his Name.

16 [h] To do good, and to distribute, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for our soules, as they that must giue accoumpts, that they may doe it with ioy, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 Pray for vs: for wee are assured that wee haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I desire you somewhat the more earnestly, that ye so doe, that I may bee restored to you more quickely.

20 The God of peace that brought againe from the dead our Lorde Iesus, the great [i] shepheard of the sheepe through the blood of the euerlasting Couenant, 21 Make you perfect in all good workes, to doe his will, working in you that which is pleasant in his sight, through Iesus Christ, to whom be praise for euer and euer, Amen.

22 I beseech you also, brethren, suffer the wordes of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in fewe words.

23 Knowe that our brother Timothens is deliuered, with whom (if he come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouersight of you, and all the Saints. They of Italie salute you.

THE ARGVMENT.

IAmes the Apostle and sonne of Alpheus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were conuerted to Christ, but dispersed thorowout diuers countreys, and therefore hee exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not bee partiall, neyther to boast of an idle faith, faith, but to declare a true faith by lively fruites, to auoide ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to vtter their faultes when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

a He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, 6 To be feruent in prayer with stedfast beliefe, 17 To looke for all good things from aboue, 21 To forsake all vice, and thankefully to receiue the word of God, 22 Not onely hearing it, and speaking of it, but to do thereafter in deede. 27 What true religion is.

IAmes a seruant of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelue Tribes which are scattered abroad, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when yee fall into diuers ‖ tentations,

3 *Knowing that the ᵃ trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her ᵇ perfect worke, that yee may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke ᶜ wisdome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reproacheth no man, and it shalbe giuen him.

6 *But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and carried away.

7 Neither let that man thinke that hee shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A ᵈ ‖ wauering minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is ᵉ exalted:

10 Againe hee that is rich, in that he is made ᵉ lowe: for as the flower of the grasse shall he * vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beautie of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shal the rich man fade away in all his ‖ wayes.

12 *Blessed is the man, that endureth tentation: for when he is tried, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is ‖ tempted, I am tempted of God: for God can not be tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But euery man is tempted, when hee is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is entised.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

17 Euery good ʰ giuing, & euery perfect gift is from aboue, & commeth downe from the Father of lights, with whome is no variablenes, neither ⁱ shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begate hee vs with the word of trueth, that wee should be as the first fruites of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, * let euery man be ᵏ swift to heare, slow to speake, and ˡ slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish ᵐ the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthines, and superfluitie of malitiousnesse, and receiue with meekenesse the worde that is ⁿ grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 * And be ye doers of the worde, & not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the worde, and doe it not, hee is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his naturall face in a ᵒ glasse.

24 For when hee hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediatly what maner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Lawe of libertie, and continueth therein, he not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed ᵖ in his deede.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion and vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherlesse, and widowes in their aduersitie, & to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, 5 But to regard the poore as well as the rich, 8 To be louing and mercifull, 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deedes are: 17 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ ᵃ in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a golde ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit thou here vnder my footstoole,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill ᵇ thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not ᶜ God chosen the poore of this world, that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which hee promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the rich oppresse you by tyrannie, and do not they drawe you before the iudgement seates?

7 Doe not they blaspheme the ᵈ worthy Name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfill the ᵉ royall Law according to the Scripture, which saith, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 * But if ye regard the persons, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Lawe, as transgressours.

12 So speake ye, and so doe, as they that shall be iudged by the [f] Lawe of libertie.

13 For there shall be iudgement merciles to him that sheweth no mercy, and mercie reioyceth against iudgement.

14 What auaileth it, my brethren, though a man saith he hath [h] faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be * naked and destitute of dayly foode.

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee giue them not those things which are needefull to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shewe me thy faith out of thy [k] workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith [l] wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made [m] perfite.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saieth, * Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that of workes a man is [n] iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * [p] Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when shee had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

Iames reasoneth against them, which vtterly condemne workes: therefore Paul sheweth the causes of our iustification, and Iames the effects: there it is declared howe wee are iustified: here howe wee are knowen to be iustified: there works are excluded as not the cause of our iustification: here they are approued as effectes proceeding thereof: there they are denied to goe before them that shall be iustified: and here they are sayd to followe them that are iustified.

Luke 3.11. 2. Esdr. 3.17.

i In thine owne opinion.

Or, without workes.

k Here deedes are considered as ioyned with true faith.

l So that faith was not idle.

m The more his faith was declared by his obedience and good workes, the more was it knowen to man to be perfect, as the goodnes of a tree is knowen by her good fruite, otherwise no man can haue perfection in this world: for euery man must pray for remission of his sinnes, and increase of faith. Gen.15.6. rom.4.3. gal.3.6.

n Is so knowen and declared to man.

o Of that barren & dead faith whereof ye boast. Iosh.2.1.

p Meaning hereby all them that were not Iewes, & were receiued to grace.

q Wherefore we are iustified onely by that liuely faith, which doeth apprehend the mercy of God toward vs in Iesus Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honour about our brethren. 3 He describeth the properties of the tongue, 15. 16 And what difference there is betwixt the wisedome of God, and the wisedome of the world.

MY brethren, bee not [a] many masters, knowing that we shall receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things wee [b] sinne all. * If any man sinne not in [c] worde, hee is a perfite man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Beholde, wee put bits into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and wee turne about all their body.

4 Beholde also the ships, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whithersoeuer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: beholde, how great a [‖] thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a [d] world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and [e] setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birds, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruly euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God euen the Father, and therewith curse wee men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send foorth at one place [f] sweete water and bitter?

12 Can the figtree, my brethren, bring foorth olives, either a vine figs? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in meekenesse of wisedome.

14 But if yee haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither be liars against the trueth.

15 This wisedome descendeth not from aboue, but is earthly, sensuall, and diuelish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all maner of euill workes.

17 But the wisedome that is from aboue, is first [g] pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be intreated, full of mercie and good fruites, without [s] iudging, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the [h] fruite of righteousnesse is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

a Vsurpe not through ambition authoritie ouer your brethren.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hauing shewed the cause of all wrong, and wickednesse, and also of all graces and goodnesse, 4 He exhorteth them to loue God, 7 And submit themselues to him, 11 Not speaking euill of their neighbours, 13 But patiently to depend on Gods prouidence.

FRom whence are warres and contentions among you? are they not hence, euen of your lustes, that [a] fight in your members?

2 Ye lust, and haue not: ye enuy, and haue indignation, and cannot obtaine: yet fight and a For the Lawe of the members continually fighteth against the Lawe of the minde.

and warre, and get nothing, because yee aske not.

3 Yee aske and receiue not, because yee aske amisse, that yee might consume it on your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and [b] adulteresses, know yee not that the amitie of the worlde is the enimitie of God? * Whosoeuer therefore will be a friend of the worlde, maketh himselfe the enemie of God.

5 Do ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The [c] spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, * God resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

7 * Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleanse your hands, yee sinners, and purge your hearts, yee wauering minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and [d] sorowe yee, and weepe: let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your ioy into heauinesse.

10 * Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

11 Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or hee that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Lawe, and [e] condemneth the Law: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an obseruer of the Law, but a iudge.

12 There is one [f] Lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy. * Who art thou that iudgest another man?

13 Goe to now yee that say, [g] To day or to morow wee will goe into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gaine,

14 (And yet yee cannot tell what shall be to morow. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and afterward vanisheth away)

15 For that ye ought to say, * If the Lord will, and, If wee liue, wee will doe this or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 Therefore, [h] to him that knoweth how to doe well, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

2 He threatneth the wicked rich men, 7 Exhorteth vnto patience, 12 To beware of swearing, 16 One to knowledge his faultes to another, 20 And one to labour to bring another to the trueth.

GO to now, yee rich men: weepe, and [a] howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

2 Your riches are corrupt: and your garments are motheaten.

3 Your golde and siluer is cankred, and the rust of them shall be a [b] witnesse against you, and shall eate your flesh as it were fire. * Yee haue heaped vp treasure for the [c] last dayes.

4 Beholde, the hire of the labourers, which haue reaped your fields (which is of you kept backe by fraude) cryeth, and the cryes of them which haue reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of hostes.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse. Yee haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of [d] slaughter.

6 Yee haue condemned and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Bee patient therefore, brethren, vnto the comming of the Lorde. Beholde, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruite of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill hee receiue the [e] former and the latter raine.

8 Be ye also patient therefore, and settle your hearts: for the comming of the Lorde draweth neere.

9 [f] Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: beholde, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, and of long patience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lord.

11 Beholde, we count them blessed which endure. Yee haue heard of the patience of Iob, and haue knowen what ende the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But before all things, my brethren, * sweare not, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your [g] yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest yee fall into [h] condemnation.

14 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the [i] Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoynt him with * oyle in the [k] Name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall saue the sicke, and the Lord shall rayse him vp: and if hee haue committed sinne, it shalbe forgiuen him.

16 Acknowledge [l] your faults one to an other, and pray one for another, that yee may bee healed: for the prayer of a righteous man auayleth much, if it bee feruent.

17 * Helias was a man subiect to like passions as we are, and hee prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for three yeeres and sixe moneths.

18 And hee prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought foorth her fruite.

19 Brethren, if any of you haue erred from the trueth, and some man hath conuerted him, 20 Let him knowe that hee which hath conuerted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

THE

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

HE exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselues, and to contemne the worlde, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily atteine to the heauenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reuciled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent this faith should not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole worlde, hee declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forwarde, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular poyntes, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselues. And because it is appoynted for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, hee sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all, hee teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselues, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God wee are elect and regenarate to actiuely hope, 7 And how faith must bee tried, 10 That the saluation of Christ is no newes, but a thing prophecied of olde. 13 Hee exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, foresmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

PETER an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to [a] the strangers that dwell here and there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the [b] foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirite, ‖through [c] obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 *Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten vs againe vnto a [d] liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in [e] heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the [f] last time:

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though now for a season (if need require) yee are in heauinesse, through manifold temptations,

7 That the tryall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it bee tryed with fire) might bee found vnto your prayse, and honour, and glorie, at the [h] appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom yee haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whom now, though yet see him not, yet doe you beleeue, and reioyce with ioy vnspeakable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the ‖ende of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophecied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirite which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reuealed, that [i] not vnto themselues, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which * haue preached vnto you the Gospell by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to beholde.

13 Wherefore, [k] gird vp the * loynes of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the [l] reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former [m] lustes of your ignorance:

15 But as hee which hath called you, is holy, so be yee holy in * all maner of conuersation, 16 Because it is written, * Bee ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if yee call him Father, which without * respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans [o] worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that yee were not redeemed with corruptible things, as siluer and golde, from your vaine conuersation, receiued by the traditions of the [p] fathers,

19 * But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lambe vndefiled, and without spot,

20 Which was * ordeined before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the [p] last times for your sakes,

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them to lay aside all vice, 4 Shewing that Chriſt is the foundation whereupon they builde. 9 The excellent eſtate of the Chriſtiani, 11 Exhorting them to abſteine from fleſhly luſtes. 13 And obey the rulers. 18 Howe ſeruants muſt behaue themſelues toward their maſters. 21 Chriſt ſuffereth to ſuffer after the enſample of him.

WHerefore, *laying aſide all malicious[a] and all guile, and diſſimulation, and enuies, and all euill ſpeaking,

2 As newe borne babes deſire the ‖ ſyncere milke of the worde, that yee may growe thereby,

3 If ſo be that ye haue taſted how bountifull the Lord is.

4 To whome yee come as vnto a liuing ſtone, diſallowed of men, but choſen of God and precious.

5 Yee as liuely ſtones, bee made a ſpirituall houſe, and holy * Prieſthoode to offer vp ſpirituall ſacrifices acceptable to God by Iheſus Chriſt.

6 Wherefore it is conteined in the Scripture, *Beholde, I put in[b] Sion a chiefe corner ſtone, elect and precious: and he that beleeueth therein, ſhall not be aſhamed.

7 Vnto you therefore which beleeue, it is precious: but vnto them which bee diſobedient, the * ſtone which the[c] builders diſallowed, the ſame is made the head of the corner,

8 And a *ſtone to ſtumble at, and a rocke of offence, euen to them which ſtumble at the word being diſobedient, vnto the which thing they were euen ordeined,

9 But ye are a choſen generation, a[d] royall * Prieſthood, an holy nation, a ‖ peculiar people, that yee ſhould ſhew forth the vertues of him that hath called you out of darkneſſe into his marueilous light,

10 *Which in time paſt were not a people, yet are nowe the people of God, which in time paſt were not vnder mercie, but now haue obteined mercy.

11 Dearely beloued, I beſeech you as ſtrangers and pilgrims, * abſteine from fleſhly luſtes, which fight againſt the ſoule, 12 * And haue your conuerſation honeſt among the Gentiles, that they which ſpeake euill of you as of euill doers, may by your *good workes which they ſhall ſee, glorifie God in the day of[e] the viſitation.

13 *Submit your ſelues vnto all ‖ manner ordinance of man for the Lordes ſake, whether it be vnto the King, as vnto the ſuperiour, 14 Or vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are ſent of him, for the puniſhment of euill doers, and for the prayſe of them that doe well.

15 For ſo is the will of God, that by well doing yee may put to ſilence the ignorance of the foolish men, 16 As free, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloke of malicioufneſſe, but as the ſeruants of God.

17 Honour all men: *loue[f] brotherly fellowſhip: feare God: honour the King.

18 *Seruants, be ſubiect to your maſters with all feare, not onely to the good and courteous, but alſo to the ſ froward.

19 *For this is thanke worthy, if a man for[h] conſcience toward God endure griefe ſuffring wrongfully.

20 For what prayſe is it, if when yee be buffeted for your faults, ye take it patiently? but and if when ye doe well, ye ſuffer wrong, and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For hereunto ye are called: for Chriſt alſo ſuffered for vs, leauing vs an enſample that ye ſhould follow his ſteps.

22 *Who did no ſinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

*23 Who when hee was reuiled, reuiled not againe: when he ſuffered, hee threatned not, but committed it to him that iudgeth righteouſly.

24 *Who his owne ſelfe bare our ſinnes in his body on the tree, that wee being deliuered from ſinne, ſhould liue in righteouſneſſe: by whoſe ſtripes yee were healed.

25 For yee were as ſheepe going aſtray: but are now returned vnto the shepheard and biſhop of your ſoules.

CHAP. III.

1 How wiues ought to order themſelues toward their husbands, 3 And in their apparell. 7 The duetie of man toward their wiues. 8 He exhorteth all men to vnitie and loue, 14 And patiently to ſuffer trouble by the example and benefite of Chriſt.

LIkewiſe *let the wiues be ſubiect to their husbands, that euen they which obey not the word, may without the worde be wonne by the conuerſation of the wiues,

2 While they beholde your pure converſation, which is with feare.

3 *Whoſe apparelling let it not be outward, as with broyded haire, and golde put about, or in putting on of apparell.

4 But let the hid man of the heart bee vncorrupt, with a meeke and quiet ſpirite, which is before God a thing much let by.

8 Finally, bee yee all of one minde: one suffer with another: loue as brethren: bee pitifull: be courteous, 9 Not rendring euill for euill, neyther rebuke for rebuke: but contrariwise blesse, knowing that yee are thereunto called, that ye should be f heires of blessing.

10 For if any man long after life, and to see good dayes, let him refraine his tongue from euill, and his lippes that they speake not guile.

11 Let him eschew euill and doe good: let him seeke peace, and follow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: and the face of the Lord is vpon them that doe euill.

13 And who is it that will harme you, if ye followe that which is good?

14 Notwithstanding blessed are yee, if ye suffer for righteousnesse sake. Dea, h feare not their feare, neither be troubled.

15 But i sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts: and bee ready alwayes to giue an answere to euery man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you,

16 And that with meekenesse and reuerence, hauing a good conscience, that when they speake euil of you as of euill doers, they may be ashamed, which blame your good conuersation in Christ.

17 For it is better (if the will of God bee so) that yee suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffred for sinnes, the iust for the vniust, that hee might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the k spirite.

19 By the which l he also went, and preached vnto the spirits that are in prison,

21 To the which also the figures that now saueth vs, euen Baptisme agreeth (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but in that a good conscience maketh request to God) by the resurrection of Iesus Christ, 22 Which is at the right hand of God, gone into heauen, to whome the Angels, and powers, and might are subiect.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee exhorteth men to ceasse from sinne, 2 To spend no more time in vice, 7 To be sober and apt to pray, 8 To loue eche other, 13 To bee patient in trouble. 15 To beware that no man suffer as an euill doer. 16 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

FOrasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same a minde, which is that her which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne,

2 That he thenceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lustes of men, but after the will of God.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospel preached also vnto the b dead, that they might bee condemned according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand. Bee yee therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboue all things haue feruent [illegible] among you: for c loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 Bee yee harborous one to another, without grudging.

10 As euery man as hee hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifolde grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the wordes of God. If any man minister, let him doe it as of the ability which God ministreth, that God in all things may bee glorified through Iesus Christ, to whome is prayse and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery triall, which is among you to proue you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as yee are partakers of Christes sufferings, that when his glory shall appeare, yee may be glad and reioyce.

14 If yee be railed vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glorie, and of God resteth vpon you: which on their d part is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murtherer, or as a thiefe, or an euill doer, or as a busie body in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

THE ARGVMENT.

THE effect of the Apostle heere, is to exhort them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men, moueth them to holines of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, & in increasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, hee being now almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approue their vocation, not setting their affection on worldly things (as he had writen vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heauen, as they be taught by y Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnesse, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed frō heauen to be the Sonn of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And lest they should promise to themselues quietnesse by professing the Gospel, hee warneth them both of troubles which they should susteine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners and trade hee liuely setteth forth as in a table: aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his comming, and to preserue themselues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

3 Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen the all things perteining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lustes, 10 To make their calling sure with good workes, and fruites of faith. 14 Hee maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God as he himselfe had seene vpon the mount.

SIMON Peter a seruant and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obteined like precious faith with vs by the a righteousnesse of our God and Sauiour Iesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lorde,

3 According as his b godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that perteine vnto c life and godlinesse, d through the knowledge of him that hath called vs ‖ vnto glory and vertue.

4 Whereby most great and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them yee should bee partakers of the e godly nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer f vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

b He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Sauiour.

c That is, saluation.

d The summe of our saluation and religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.

‖Or, through his glory.

e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that we flee the corruption of the world: or as Paul writeth, are dead to sinne, and are not in the flesh.

f Godly maners.

6 And

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlinesse:
7 And with godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse: and with brotherly kindenesse, loue.
8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that yee neither shall be idle, nor vnfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 For hee that hath not these things, is blinde, and g cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde sinnes.
10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election h sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer i fall.
11 For by this meanes an entring shall be ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord and Sauiour Jesus Christ.
12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present truth.
13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this k tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance, 14 Seeing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lorde Jesus Christ hath * shewed me.
15 I will endeuour therefore alwayes, that yee also may bee able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.
16 For wee followed not * [d]eceiuable fables, when wee opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lorde Jesus Christ, but with our eyes we sawe his maiestie:
17 For hee receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voyce to him from ‖ excellent glory, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.
18 And this voyce wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the l holy mount.
19 We haue also a most sure m word of the Prophets, to the which ye doe well that yee take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the n day dawne, and the o day starre arise in your hearts.
20 * So that yee first knowe this, that no prophesie in the scripture is of p any priuate ‖ motion.
21 For the prophesie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were ‖ moued by the holy Ghost.

g The Greeke worde signifieth him that naturally cannot see, except he holdeth neere his eyes. So Peter calleth such as cannot see heauenly things which are farre off, purblinde, or sandblinde.
h Albeit it be sure in it selfe, forasmuch as God can not change: yet we must confirme it in our selues by the fruites of the Spirit, knowing that the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth and iustifieth vs.
i For God will ouer vpholde you.

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained wordes make q marchandise of you, whose iudgement long agone is not farre off, and their damnation sleepeth not.
4 For if God spared not the * Angels, that had sinned, but cast them downe into hel and deliuered them into chaines of darknesse, to be kept vnto damnation:

21 For it had bene better for them, not to haue knowen the way of righteousnesse, then after they haue knowen it, to turne from the holy commandement giuen vnto them.

22 But it is come vnto them, according to the true prouerbe, * The dogge is returned to his owne vomit: and, The sow that was washed, to the wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

1 Heestoweth the impiety of them which mocke at Gods promise. 7 After what sort the end of the world shalbe. 8 That they prepare themselues thereunto. 16 Vvho they are which abuse the writings of S. Paul and the rest of the Scriptures, 18 Concluding with a earnest thankes to Christ Iesus.

THis second Epistle I nowe write vnto you, beloued, wherewith * I stirre vp, and warne your pure mindes,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes, which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the commaundement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour.

3 * This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lustes,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his comming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they [b] willingly knowe not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherefore the [c] world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are nowe are kept by the same word in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of iudgement, and of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloued, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slacknesse) but is patient towards vs, and * [d] would haue no man to perish, but would all men come to repentance.

10 * But the day of the Lord wil come as a theefe in the night, in the which [e] heauens shal passe away with a noyse, & the elements shall melt with heate, and the earth with the workes that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therfore [f] all these things must be dissolued, what maner persons ought yee to be in holy conuersation and godlines, 12 Looking for, & hasting vnto the comming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire, shalbe dissolued, and the elements shall melt with heate?

13 But we looke for * newe heauens, and a newe earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that yee looke for such things, be diligent that yee may be found of him in * peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisedome giuen vnto him wrote to [f] you,

16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are [g] hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable ‖ peruers, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing yee know these things before, beware least yee be also plucked away with the errour of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnes.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euermore. Amen.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFter that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, how that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, least that any man should thereby take a boldnesse to sinne, hee sheweth that no man can beleeue in Christ, vnlesse he doeth endeuour himselfe to keepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom hee calleth Antichrists, and to trie the spirits. Last of all, he doeth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

1 True witnesse of the euerlasting worde of God. 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne.

THat which was [a] from the beginning, which wee haue [b] heard, which wee haue seene with our eyes, which wee haue looked vpon, and our handes haue handled of the worde [c] of life.

2 (For the life appeared, and wee haue seene it, and beare witnesse, and shew vnto you the eternall life, which was [d] with the Father, and appeared vnto vs)

3 That, I say, which wee haue seene and heard, declare wee vnto you, that yee may also [e] haue fellowshippe with vs, and that our fellowshippe may be ioyned together in Christ by faith, should bee the sonnes of God,

[a] That is, Christ, God eternall.

[b] That is, Christ being man.

[c] Which giueth life and had it in himselfe, Iohn 1. 4.

[d] Before all beginning.

[e] The effect of the Gospel is, that all vse being ioyned our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write wee vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God [e] is light, and in him is no darkenesse.

6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in [k] darkenesse, wee lie, and doe not truely:

7 But if we walke in the light as hee is in the light, wee haue fellowship [b] one with another, and the * blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 * If we say that we haue no sinne, wee deceiue our selues, and trueth is not in vs.

9 If we [i] acknowledge our sinnes, hee is faithfull and iust, to forgiue vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 If wee say wee haue not sinned, wee make him a liar, and his ‖ word is not in vs.

Iohn 8.12.

f The fruites of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being the very purity and light, will not haue fellowship with them which lie in sinne and darkenesse.

g In an euill conscience, and without the feare of God.

h That is, Christ with vs, and we with our selues. Hebr. 9.14. 1. pet. 1.19. reuel. 1.5.

i If we be not ashamed, earnestly and openly to acknowledge our selues before God to be sinners. ‖ Or, doctrine.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our aduocate. 10 Of true loue, and hatred is a friend. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an * Aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the Iust.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of [b] the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we [c] know him, if we keepe his commandements.

4 Hee that sayeth, I know him, and keepeth not his commandements, is a lyar, and the trueth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him is [d] the loue of God perfect in deede: hereby we know we that we are in him.

6 Hee that sayeth hee remayneth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no newe ‖ commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement which yee haue had from the * beginning: the [e] olde commandement is the worde, which yee haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a newe commaundement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that sayth that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenesse vntill this time.

10 * He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 * Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiuen you for [h] his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because yee haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you young men, because ye haue ouercome the ‖ wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because yee haue knowne the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because yee haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome the ‖ wicked.

15 Loue not [b] the world, neither the things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the * worlde, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the [l] flesh, the [l] lust of the eyes, and the [m] pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but hee that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as yee haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 * They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this commeth to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an * vnction from him, that is * holy, & ye haue knowen all things.

21 I * haue not written vnto you, because ye know not the trueth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the trueth.

22 Who is a lyar, but hee that denyeth that Iesus is * Christ? the same is the Antichrist that denyeth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoeuer denyeth the Sonne, the same [c] hath not the Father †.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which yee haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anoynting which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same * anoynting teacheth you of all things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide ‖ in him.

28 And now, * litle children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If yee knowe that hee is righteous, knowe ye that hee which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

a Christ is our onely aduocate and atonement: for the office of intercession and redemption are ioyned together.

b That is, of them which haue embraced the Gospel by faith in all ages degrees, and places: for there is no saluation without Christ.

c That is, by faith & so obey him: for knowledge cannot be without obedience.

d Whereby he loueth God: so that to loue God is to obey his word. ‖ Or, doctrine.

e When the Law was giuen.

f Loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, is the old commandement taught in the Lawe: but when Christ saith, So loue one another as I haue loued you, he giueth a newe commaundement onely as touching the forme, but not as touching the nature or substance of the precept. Chap. 3.14.

g He meaneth all the faithfull children, as hee being their spirituall Father, attributing to olde men knowledge of great things, to yong men strength, to children obedience and reuerence to their gouernours.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God toward vs, 7 And howe we againe ought to loue one another.

BEholde, what loue the Father hath shewed on vs, that we shoulde be [a] called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are wee the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shall bee: and we know that when [b] he shall appeare, we shall be [c] like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoeuer [d] committeth sinne, transgresseth also the lawe: for sinne is the transgression of the [e] law.

5 And ye know that hee appeared that he might [*] take away our sinne, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoeuer abideth in him sinneth not: whosoeuer sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath knowen him.

7 Litle children, Let no man deceiue you: he that doth righteousnesse, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that [] committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill sinneth from the [] beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that he might loose the works of the deuill.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for his [f] seede remayneth in him, neyther can hee [g] sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doeth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neither he that [h] loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the message, that ye heard from the begynning, that [*] wee shoulde loue one another.

12 Not as [*] Cain which was of the wicked, and slewe his brother: and wherefore slewe he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Maruele not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 Wee knowe that wee are translated from death vnto life, because wee [i] loue the brethren: [*] hee that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and yee knowe that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 [*] Hereby haue wee perceiued loue, that he laide downe his life for vs: therefore wee ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 [*] And whosoeuer hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, howe dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My litle children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in [k] deede and in trueth.

19 For thereby wee knowe that wee are of the trueth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our [l] heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 [*] And whatsoeuer wee aske, wee receiue of him, because wee keepe his commaundements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 [*] This is then his commaundement, That we beleeue in the Name of his sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commaundement.

24 [*] For hee that keepeth his commaundements, dwelleth in him, and hee in him: and hereby wee knowe that hee abideth in vs, euen by the spirite which he hath giuen vs.

1 Difference of spirites. 2 Howe the spirite of God may bee knowen from the spirite of errour. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbour.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirite, but trie the [a] spirites whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shal ye know the spirit of God, Euery spirite that confesseth that Iesus [b] Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirite which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirite of Antichrist, of whome yee haue heard, howe that he should come, and [c] nowe already hee is in the world.

4 Litle children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then [d] he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the worlde heareth them.

6 Wee are of God, [*] hee that knoweth God, [e] heareth vs: hee that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the spirite of trueth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 Hee that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 [*] In [f] this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his only begotten Sonne into the worlde, that wee might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that wee loued God, but that he loued vs, & sent his Sonne to be a [g] reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 [*] No man hath seene God at any time. If wee loue one another God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby knowe wee that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because hee hath giuen vs of his Spirite.

14 And wee haue seene and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to bee the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer [h] confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And wee haue knowen, and beleeued the loue that God hath [1] in vs. God is loue, and hee that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that wee shoulde haue boldenesse in the day of iudgement: for as hee is, euen so are wee in this world.

18 There is no [k] feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath paine: and hee that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, hee is a lyar: for [l] howe can hee that loueth not his brother whome hee hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

21 *And this commandement haue wee of him, that hee which loueth God, shoulde loue his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1.10. 13. Of the fruites of faith. 14.20. The office, authoritie, and diuinitie of Christ. 21 Against images.

WHosoeuer beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is [a] borne of God, and euery one that loueth him which begate, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this wee knowe that wee loue the children of God, when we loue [b] God, and keepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God, that wee keepe his commandements: and his * commandements are not [c] grieuous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercommeth the world: and this is the victory that ouercommeth the world, euen our faith.

5 *Who is it that ouercommeth the worlde, but hee which beleeueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by [d] water [e] and blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit, that beareth witnesse: for the Spirit is [g] trueth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare record in the earth, the spirite, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If wee receiue the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which hee testified of his Sonne.

10 *He that beleeueth in the Sonne of God, hath the witnesse [f] in himselfe: hee that beleeueth not God, hath made him a lyar, because hee beleeued not the record, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life: and hee that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you, that beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that yee may knowe that yee haue eternall life, and that ye may beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance, that wee haue in him, * that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

15 And if wee knowe that hee heareth vs, whatsoeuer wee aske, wee knowe that wee haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne, that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shall giue him life for them that sinne not [h] vnto death. *There is a sinne [i] vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 Wee knowe that whosoeuer is borne of God, * sinneth not: but hee that is begotten of God, [l] keepeth himselfe, and the [m] wicked [n] toucheth him not.

19 Wee knowe that we are of God, and the whole world [o] lieth in wickednesse.

20 But wee knowe that the Sonne of God is * come, and hath giuen vs a minde to knowe him, which is true: and wee are in him that is true, that is, in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is very [p] God, and eternall life.

2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace bee with you, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ the sonne of the Father, with [b] trueth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I founde of thy children walking [c] in trueth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the father.

5 And nowe beseech I thee Lady, (not as writing a newe commandement vnto thee, but that same which wee had from the beginning) that we * loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that wee shoulde walke after his commandements. This commandement is, that as yee haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the trueth.

7 Because that for his Names sake they went foorth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth.

9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them receiueth vs not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will reclare his deedes which hee doeth, prating against vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloued, follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: hee that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not ‖ seene God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea, and wee our selues beare record, and yee know that our record is true.

THE ARGVMENT.

SAint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which go about to draw away the hearts of the simple people, from the trueth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally he comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IVDE a seruaunt of Iesus Christ, and brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified [a] of GOD the Father, and [b] reserued to Iesus Christ:

2 Mercie vnto you, and peace, and loue be multiplied:

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needefull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that yee should earnestly [c] contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was once giuen vnto the Saints.

4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of olde [d] ordained to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and *denie God the onely Lorde, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuch as yee once knewe this, howe that the Lord, after that hee had deliuered the people out of Egypt, *destroyed them afterward which [e] beleeued not.

THE ARGVMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holy Ghost would as it were gather into this most excellent booke a summe of those prophesies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the comming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set foorth the diuinitie of Christ, & the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things hee reprooueth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrite, which sting like Scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them, which beare witnesse to the trueth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will raigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set foorth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limitted, and albeit that hee is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue prayse to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God will permit this Antichrist, and strumpet, vnder colour of faire speach and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherefore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoyde this harlots flatteries, and bragges, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, and with the heauenly companies sing continuall prayses: for the Lambe is married: the word of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that old time was vnted, is nowe cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrariwise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enioy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding thereof.

He exhorteth foure Churches 5 To repentance 10 To perſeuerance, patience and remembrement, 13. 14, 20 23. Aſwell by threatnings. 7. 10, 17, 26. As promiſes of reward.

VNto the [*] Angell of the Church of Epheſus write, theſe things ſaith hee that [b] holdeth the ſeuē ſtarres in his [c] right hand, and [d] walketh in the middes of the ſeuen golden candleſticks.

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and howe thou canſt not forbeare them which are euill, and haſt examined them which ſay they are Apoſtles, and are not, and haſt found them liars.

3 And thou haſt ſuffered, and haſt patience, and for my Names ſake haſt laboured, and haſt not fainted.

4 Neuertheleſſe, I haue somewhat againſt thee, becauſe thou haſt left thy firſt [e] loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, & do the firſt works: or [d] elſe I will come againſt thee ſhortly, and will remoue thy [f] candleſticke out of his place, except thou amend.

a To the Paſtour or miniſter which are called by this name, becauſe they are Gods meſſengers and haue their office common with Ieſus Chriſt, who alſo is called an Angel.
b Reade Chap. 1. 13.
c In his protection.
d According to his promiſe. Mat. 18. 20. he will be with them to the ende of the world.
e Thy firſt loue but thou haddeſt towarde God and thy neighbour at the firſt preaching of the Goſpell.
f The office of the Paſtor is compared to a candleſticke or lampe, ſo much as he ought to ſhine before men.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the workes of the [e] Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 Let him that hath an eare, heare, what the Spirite saith vnto the Churches, To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the tree of [h] life, which is in the middes of the Paradise of God.

8 And vnto the [i] Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These things sayeth he that is first, and last, which was dead, and is [k] aliue.

9 I knowe thy workes and [l] tribulation, and pouertie, (but thou art [m] rich) and I knowe the blasphemy of them, which say they are Iewes, and are [n] not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: beholde, it shall come to passe, that the [o] deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that yee may be [p] tryed, and yee shall haue tribulation [q] ten dayes: bee thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the [r] crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirite sayeth to the Churches. He that ouercommeth shall not bee hurt of the [s] second death.

12 And to the Angell of [t] Church which is at Pergamus write, Thus sayeth hee which hath the sharpe [u] sword with two edges, 13 I knowe thy workes and where thou dwellest, euen where Satans [x] throne is, and thou keepest my Name, and hast not denyed my faith, [y] euen in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a fewe things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintaine the [z] Doctrine of [a] Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 Euen so hast thou them, that maintaine the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent thy selfe, or else I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirite sayeth vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the Manna that is [b] hid, and will giue him a [c] white stone, and in the stone a [d] newe name written, which no man knoweth sauing he that receiueth it.

18 And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things sayeth the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like [e] fine brasse.

19 I knowe thy workes and thy loue, and [f] seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are more at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a fewe things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman [g] Iezabel, which calleth her selfe a Prophetesse, to teach and to deceiue my seruants, to make them [h] commit fornication, and to eate meates sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their works.

23 And I will kill her [i] children with death: and all the Churches shall knowe that I am hee which [k] search the reines and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your workes.

24 And vnto you, I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, As many as haue not this learning, neither haue knowen the [l] deepenesse of Satan (as they speake) I will put vpon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye haue already, hold fast till I come.

26 For hee that ouercommeth and keepeth my workes vnto the ende, to him will I giue power ouer nations, 27 [m] And hee shall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken.

28 Euen as I receiued of my Father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith to the Churches.

1 The vision of the Maiestie of God. 2 He seeth the throne and one sitting vpon it, 8 and 24. seate about it with 24. elders sitting vpon them, and foure beastes, praising God day and night.

After this I looked, and beholde, a a doore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with mee, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shewe thee thinges which must bee done hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was rauished in the spirit, and beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate vpon the throne.

3 And b hee that sate, was to looke vpon like vnto a Iasper stone, & a Sardine, and there was a rainebow round about the throne in sight like to an Emeraud.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe c foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white rayment, and had on their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne d proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, and voyces, and there were seuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirites of God.

6 And before the throne there was a e sea of glasse like vnto a christal: and in the f midst of the throne, and rounde about the throne were foure g beastes full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying egle.

8 And the foure beastes had eache one of them sixe wings about him: and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, h Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God Almightie, which was, and which is, and which is to come.

9 And when those beastes gaue glorie, and honour, and thankes to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

CHAP. V.

1 He seith the Lambe opening the booke, 8.14 And therefore the foure beastes, the 24. Elders, and the Angels prayse the Lambe, and doe him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefits.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne, a Booke written within, & on the backside, sealed with b seuen seales,

2 And I sawe a strong Angel, which preached with a loude voyce, Who is worthy to open the Booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders sayd vnto mee, Weepe not: beholde, the * Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteined to open the Booke, & to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beastes, & in the middes of the Elders, stood a c Lambe, as though hee had bene killed, which had d seuen hornes, and e seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came, and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beastes, and the foure and twentie Elders f fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the g prayers of the Saints.

9 And they sing a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast h redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our GOD * Kings and Priests, and we shall i reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, and there were * thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthy is the * Lambe that was killed, to receiue power, and riches, and wisedome, and strength, and honour, and glory, and prayse.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, & all that are in them, heard I, saying, Prayse, and honour, and glory, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts sayd, Amen, and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the fiue seales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that this conteineth a generall prophesie to the end of the world.

AFter, I beheld when the Lambe had opened one a of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the b noyse of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was a c white horse, and hee that d sate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering that hee might ouercome.

3 And when hee had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was e red, and power was giuen to him that f sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, a blacke horse, and he that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beastes say, A h measure of wheate for a i peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde, a k pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and ‖ Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, & with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when hee had opened the l fift seale, I sawe vnder the altar m the soules of them that were killed for the worde of God, and for the testimonie which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true! doest not thou iudge & auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was sayd vnto them, that they should rest for a little season vntill their fellow seruants, and their brethren that should be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when hee had opened the sixt seale, and loe, there was a great n earthquake, and the o sunne was as blacke as sackcloth of haire, and the p moone was like blood.

a The opening of the seale is the declaration of Gods will, and the executing of his iudgements.
b Signifying, that there were marueilous things to come.
c The white horse signifieth innocencie, victorie, and felicitie, which should come by the preaching of the Gospel.
d He that rideth on the white horse, is Christ.
e Signifying the cruell warres that ensued when the Gospel was refused.
f Who was Satan.
g This signifieth an extreme famine and want of all things.
h The Greeke word signifieth that measure which was ordinarily giuen to seruants for their portion or stint of meate for one day.
i Which amounted about foure pence halfepeny.
k Whereby is meant sicknesse, plagues, pestilence, and death of man & beast.
‖ Or, the graue.
l The continuall persecution of the Church noted by the fift seale.
m The soules of the Saints are vnder the altar, which is Christ, meaning that they are in his safe custodie in the heauens.
n Which signifieth the change of the true doctrine, which is the greatest cause of motions, and troubles that come to the world.
o That is, the brightnesse of the Gospel.
p The traditions of men.
q The Church miserably defaced with idolatrie, and afflicted by tyrants.

13 And

r Doctours and preachers that depart from the trueth.

13 And the r starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, as a figge tree casteth her greene figs, when it is shaken of a mighty winde.

14 And ſ heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and Ile were mooued out of their places.

ſ The kingdome of God is hid, and withdrawen from men, and appeareth not.

15 And the Kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaines, and the mightie men, and euery bond man, and euery free man, hid themselues in dennes, and among the rockes of the mountaines, t Realmes, kingdomes and persons, that did seeme to be as stable in the faith as mountaines. Isa.2.19. hose.10.8. luke 23.30.

16 And sayde to the t mountaines and rocks, u Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe.

u Such men afterward, of what estate soeuer they be, shall bee desperate, and not able to susteine the weight of Gods wrath, but shall continually feare his iudgements.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

CHAP. VII.

4. 9 Hee seeth the seruaunts of God sealed in their foreheades out of all nations and people, 15 VVhich though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaine of liuing water, 17 And God shal wipe away all teares from their eyes.

AND after that, I sawe foure Angels stand on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure a windes of the b earth, that the windes shoulde not blowe on the earth, neither on ẏ c sea, neither on anye tree.

a The Spirit is compared to winde, and the doctrine also: and though there be one spirite and one doctrine, yet foure are here named in respect of the diuersitie of the foure quarters of the earth where the Gospel is spred, and for the foure writers thereof, and the preachers of the same through the whole world.

b Meaning, the men of the earth.

c That is, the ylands.

2 And I sawe another ſ Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure Angels to whome power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea,

3 Saying, d Hurt yee not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till wee haue ſ sealed the seruaunts of our God in their foreheads.

d Signifying all men in generall, who can no more liue without this spirituall doctrine, then trees can blossome and beare, except the winde blowe vpon them. ſ Or, Christ.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, & there were sealed e an hundreth and foure and fourtie thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

e God preuenteth the dangers and euils, which otherwise would ouerwhelme the elect.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of h Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

h He omitteth Dan, and putteth Leui in, whereby he meaneth the twelue tribes.

8 Of the tribe of i Ioseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed twelue thousand.

i That is, the tribe of Ephraim, which was Iosephs sonne.

9 After these things I behelde, and loe, a great multitude, which no man coulde number of all nations, and kinreds, and people, and tongues, stoode before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with k white robes, and l palmes in their handes.

k In signe of puritie.

l In token of victorie and felicitie.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, m Saluation commeth of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

m All that are saued, attribute their saluation vnto God onely and to his Christ, and to none other thing.

11 And all the Angels stoode rounde about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beastes, and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, n There is no puritie nor cleannesse, but by the blood of Christ onely, which purgeth our sinnes, and so maketh vs white.

12 Saying, Amen. Praise and glory, and wisedome, and thankes, and honour, and power, and might be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

o That is, of the Maiestie of God the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto mee, What are these which are arayed in long white robes? & whence came they?

14 And I sayde vnto him, Lorde, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in n the blood of the Lambe.

p Meaning continually: for else in heauen there is no night. Isa.49.10.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of o God, and serue him day and p night in his Temple, and hee that sitteth on the throne, will dwel among them.

q For all infirmitie and miserie shalbe then taken away.

16 q They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shal the sunne light on them, neither any heate.

r They shall haue no more griefe and paine, but still ioy and consolation.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The seuenth seale u opened: there u silence in heauen. 6 The foure Angels blowe the trumpets, and great plagues follow vpon the earth.

AND when hee had opened the a seuenth seale, there was b silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

a Vnder the sixt seale hee touched in generall the corruption of the doctrine: but vnder the seuenth he sheweth the great danger thereof, and what troubles, sectes, and heresies haue bene and shalbe brought into the Church thereby.

b That the heart might be more attentiue.

2 And I sawe the seuen Angels, which stoode c before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

c He sheweth the onely remedy in our afflictions, to wit, to appeare before the face of God by the means of Iesus Christ, who is the Angel, the sacrifice, and the Priest which presenteth our prayers, which remaine yet in earth, before the altar, and diuine Maiestie of God.

3 Then another Angel came & stood before the altar hauing a golden censer, and much odours was giuen vnto him, that hee ſhould offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the ſmoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the cenſer, and filled it with [d] fire of the altar, and caſt it into the [e] earth, and [f] there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, & earthquake.

6 Then the ſeuen Angels, which had the ſeuen trumpets, prepared themſelues to blowe the trumpets.

7 So the firſt Angel [g] blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire, mingled with blood, and they were caſt into the earth, and the third part of [h] trees was burnt, and all greene [i] graſſe was burnt.

8 And the ſecond Angel blewe the trumpet, and as it were a great [k] mountaine, burning with fire, was caſt into the ſea, and the thirde part of the ſea became blood.

9 And the thirde part of the creatures, which were in the ſea, & had life, died, and the thirde part of [l] ſhips were deſtroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell [m] a great ſtarre from heauen burning like a toych, and it fell into the thirde part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the ſtarre is called Wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, & many men died of the [n] waters, becauſe they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the thirde part of the [o] Sunne was ſmitten, and the thirde part of the [p] moone, and the thirde part of the [q] ſtarres, ſo that the third part of them was [r] darkened: and the day was ſmitten, that the thirde part of it could not ſhine, and likewiſe the night.

13 And I beheelde, and heard one Angel flying thorowe the middes of heauen, ſaying with a [s] lowde voyce, [t] Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, becauſe of the [u] ſoundes to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

d He meaneth by fire the grace of God whereby we are purged and made cleane, Iſai. 6.6.

e He powreth the graces of the holy Ghoſt into the hearts of the faithfull.

f When this grace is declared, marueilous rebellions ariſe againſt it by reaſon of the wicked, which can neither abide to heare their ſinnes touched, nor mercy offered.

g That is, proclameth warre againſt the Church, and troubles by falſe doctrine, and ſo admoniſheth them to watch.

h That is, the moſt part of men were ſeduced.

i Euen the very elect were ſore tried & proued.

k Diuers ſects of heretikes were ſpred abroad in the world.

l Meaning, the ſhipmaſters, and ſo them that had any gouernment.

m That is, ſome excellent miniſter of the Church, which ſhall corrupt the Scriptures.

n Which here ſignifie falſe and corrupt doctrine.

o That is, of Chriſt who is the Sunne of iuſtice, meaning, that men by boaſting of their workes and merits, obſcure Chriſt, and treade his death vnder feete.

p That is, of the Church.

q Of the miniſters and teachers, which haue not taught as they ought to doe.

r Theſe are plagues for the contempt of the Goſpel.

s Horrible threatnings againſt the infidels and rebellious perſons.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fift and ſixt Angel blow their trumpets: the ſtarre falleth from heauen. 3 The locuſts come out of the ſmoke. 12 The firſt woe is paſt. 14 The foure Angels that were bound, are looſed. 18 And the third part of men is killed.

AND the fift Angel blewe the trumpet, and I ſawe a [a] ſtarre which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the [b] key of the bottomleſſe pitte.

2 And hee opened the bottomleſſe pit, and there aroſe the ſmoke of the pit, as the [c] ſmoke of a great fornace, and the Sunne, and the aire were darkened by the ſmoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the ſmoke [d] Locuſts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen [e] power, as the [f] ſcorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commaunded them, that they ſhould not hurt the [g] graſſe of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but onely thoſe [h] men which haue not the ſeale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commaunded that they ſhould not [i] kill them, but that they ſhoulde bee [k] vexed fiue moneths, and that their paine ſhould be as the paine that commeth of a [l] ſcorpion, when hee hath ſtung a man.

6 * Therefore in thoſe dayes ſhall men [m] ſeeke death, and ſhall not finde it, and ſhall deſire to die, and death ſhall flee from them.

7 * And the forme of the locuſts was like vnto [n] horſes prepared vnto battell, and on their heades were as it were [o] crowines like vnto golde, and their faces [p] were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the [q] haire of women, and their [r] teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had [s] habergions, like to habergions of yron: and the ſounde of their [t] wings was like the ſound of charets when many horſes runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tayles like vnto ſcorpions, and there were [u] ſtings in their tailes, and their power was to hurt men fiue moneths.

11 And they haue a king ouer them, which b This authoritie chiefly is committed to the Pope, in ſigne whereof he beareth the keyes in his armes.

c Abundance of hereſies and errours, which couer with darkeneſſe Chriſt and his Goſpel.

d Locuſts are falſe teachers, heretikes, and worldly ſubtile Prelates, with Monkes, Friers, Cardinals, Patriarkes, Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Doctours, Bachelers, and Maſters which forſake Chriſt, to maintaine falſe doctrine.

e Falſe and deceiuable doctrine, which is pleaſant to the fleſh.

f That is, ſecretly to perſecute and to ſting with their taile as Scorpions doe: ſuch is the faſhion of the hypocrites.

g For the falſe prophets can not deſtroy the elect, but ſuch as are ordeined to perdition.

h That is, the infidels, whom Satan bl ndeth with the efficacie of errour, 2. Theſſal. 2. 11.

i Though the elect be hurt, yet they cannot periſh.

k The elect for a certaine ſpace and at times are in troubles: for the graſſehoppers endure but from April to September, which is fiue moneths.

l For at the beginning the ſting of their conſcience ſeemeth as nothing, but except they ſoone ſeeke remedy, they periſh. Iſa. 2.19. hoſea 10.8. luke 23. 30. chap. 6.16.

m Such is the terrour of the vnbeleeuing conſcience, which hath no aſſurance of mercy, but feeleth the iudgement of God againſt it, when men embrace errour, and refuſe the true ſimplicitie of Gods word. Wiſd. 16.9.

n Which ſignifieth that the Popes cleargie ſhall be proude, ambitious, bolde, ſtoute, raſh, rebellious, ſtubburne, cruell, lecherous, and authours of warre and deſtruction of the ſimple children of God.

o They pretend a certaine title of honour, which in deede belongeth nothing vnto them, as the Prieſtes by their crownes and ſtrange apparell declare.

p That is, they pretend great gentleneſſe and loue: they are wiſe, politique, ſubtile, eloquent, and in worldly craftineſſe paſſe all in all their doings.

q That is, effeminate, delicate, idle, trimming themſelues to pleaſe their harlots.

r Signifying their oppreſſion of the poore, and crueltie againſt Gods children.

ſ Which ſignifieth their hardneſſe of heart, and obſtination in their errours, with their aſſurance vnder the protection of worldly princes.

t For as though they had wings, ſo are they lifted vp aboue the common ſort of men, and eſteemed moſt holy, and doe all things with rage and fiercenеſſe.

u To infect and kill with their venemous doctrine.

x Which is Antichriſt the Pope, king of hypocrites, & Satans Ambaſſadour.
y That is, deſtroier: for Antichriſt the ſonne of perdition deſtroieth mens ſoules with falſe doctrine, and the whole world with fire and ſword.
z Which was the voyce of Chriſt, ſitting on the right hand of the Father.
a Meaning, the enemies of the Eaſt countrey, which ſhould afflict the Church of God, as did the Arabians, Saracens, Turkes and Tartarians.

is the x Angel of the bottomleſſe pit, whoſe name in Hebrew, is y Abaddon, & in Greeke he is named Apollyon.
12 One woe is paſt, and behold, yet two woes come after this.
13 ¶ Then the ſixt Angel blew the trumpet, & I heard a z voice from the foure horns of the golden altar, which is before God,
14 Saying to the ſixt Angel, which had the trumpet, Looſe the foure a Angels which are bound in the great riuer Euphrates.
15 And the foure Angels were looſed, which were prepared at an b houre, at a day, at a moneth, & at a yere, to ſlay the third part of men,
16 And the number of horſemen of warre were twenty thouſand times ten thouſand: for I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I ſaw the horſes in a viſion, and them that ſate on them, hauing fiery habergions, and of Iacinth, and of brimſtone, and the heds of the horſes were as the heds of lions: & out of their mouthes went footh fire and ſmoke, and brimſtone.
18 Of theſe three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, & of the ſmoke, and of the brimſtone which came out of their mouthes.
19 For their power is in their c mouthes, and in their tailes: for their tailes were like vnto ſerpents, and had heads, wherewith they hurt.
20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by theſe plagues, d repented not of the workes of their handes that they ſhould not worſhip deuils, & idoles of gold and of ſiluer, and of braſſe, and of ſtone, and of wood, which neither can ſee, neither heare, nor goe.
21 Alſo they repented not of their murder, and of their ſorcerie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

1 The Angel hath the booke open. 6 He ſweareth there ſhall be no more time. 9 He giueth the booke vnto Iohn, which eateth it vp.

a Which was Ieſus Chriſt that came to comfort his Church againſt the furious aſſaults of Satan & Antichriſt: ſo that in all their troubles, the faithfull are ſure to find conſolation in him.
b Ieſus Chriſt beareth the teſtimonie of Gods loue towards vs. c It ouercame all the darkeneſſe of the Angel of the bottomleſſe pit, d Straight, ſtrong and pure from all corruptions. e Meaning the Goſpel of Chriſt, which Antichriſt cannot hide, ſeeing Chriſt bringeth it open in his hand. f Which declareth that in deſpite of Antichriſt the Goſpel ſhould be preached through all the world: ſo that the enemies ſhall be aſtonied. g The whole graces of Gods Spirit bent themſelues againſt Antichriſt. Dan. 12. 4. h Beleeue that thatis written: for there is no need to write more for the vnderſtanding of Gods children.

AND I ſawe another mightie a Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloud, and the b rainebow vpon his head, and his face was as the c ſunne, & his d feete as pillars of fire.
2 And he had in his hand a litle e booke open, and he put his right foot vpon the ſea, and his left on the earth,
3 And cried with a f loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, ſeuen g thunders vttred their voyces.
4 And when the ſeuen thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen, ſaying vnto me, * h Seale vp thoſe things which the ſeuen thunders haue ſpoken, and write them not.
5 And the Angel which I ſaw ſtand vpon the ſea, and vpon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,
6 And ſware i by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the ſea, & the things which therein are, that time ſhould be no more.
7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the ſeuenth Angel, when he ſhal begin to blowe the trumpet, euen the k myſterie of God ſhal be finiſhed, as he hath declared to his ſeruants the Prophets.
8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, ſpake vnto l me againe and ſayde, Goe and take the litle booke which is open in the hand of the m Angel, which ſtandeth vpon the ſea and vpon the earth.
9 So I went vnto the Angel, and ſayd to him, Giue me the litle n booke. And he ſaid vnto me, * Take it, and o eate it vp, and it ſhall make thy belly bitter, but it ſhall be in thy mouth as ſweete as honie.
10 Then I tooke the litle booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as p ſweete as honie: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.
11 And he ſaid vnto me, Thou muſt prophecie q againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many kings.

a Which declareth that Chriſt Ieſus will build his Church and not haue it deſtroyed: for he meaſureth out his ſpirituall Temple.
b The Iewiſh Temple was deuided into three parts: the body of the Temple which is called the court, whereinto euery man entred: the holy places where the Leuites were: and the holieſt of all, whereinto the high Prieſt once a yeere entred: in reſpect therefore of theſe two latter, the firſt is ſaid to be caſt out, becauſe as a thing prophane it is neglected when the Temple is meaſured, and yet the aduerſaries of Chriſt boaſt that they are in the Temple, and that none are of the Temple but they. c That is, the Church of God. d Meaning, a certaine time: for God hath limited the times of Antichriſts tyranny. e By two witneſſes he meaneth all the preachers that ſhould build vp Gods Church, alluding to Zerubbabel and Iehoſhua, which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and alſo to this ſaying, In the mouth of two witneſſes ſtandeth euery word.

i That is, by God with whom Chriſt by his diuinitie is equal.
k The faithful ſhal vnderſtand, and ſee this myſterie of the laſt iudgement, the damnation of Antichriſt and infidels, and alſo the glory of the iuſt at the reſurrection.

m Meaning Chriſt.
n That is, the holy Scriptures: which declareth that the Miniſter muſt receiue them at the hand of God, before he can preach them to others.

Ezek. 3. 1. o Which ſignifieth that the miniſters ought to receiue the word into their hearts, and to haue graue and deepe iudgement, and diligently to ſtudy it, and with zeale to vtter it. p Signifying that albeit that the miniſter haue conſolation by the worde of God, yet ſhal he haue ſore & grieuous enemies, which ſhal be troubleſome vnto him. q Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this booke after his death ſhould be as a preaching vnto all nations.

p Meaning, the whole iuriſdiction of the Pope which is compared to Sodome for their abominable ſinne, and to Egypt becauſe the true libertie to ſerue God is taken away from the faithfull, and Chriſt was condemned by Pilate, who repreſented the Romane power which ſhould bee enemie to the godly.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the ſunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the Dragon, which perſecuteth the woman. 11 The victorie is gotten, to the comfort of the faithfull.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heauen: [a] A woman clothed with the ſunne, and the [b] moone was vnder her feete, and vpon her head a [c] crowne of twelue ſtarres.

2 And ſhe was with childe, and [d] cried trauailing in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for behold, a great [e] red Dragon hauing [f] ſeuen heads, and ten hornes, and ſeuen crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his taile drewe the [g] third part of the ſtarres of heauen, and caſt them to the earth. And the Dragon ſtood before the woman, which was ready to bee deliuered, to deuoure her child when ſhe had brought it forth.

5 So ſhe brought forth a [h] man childe, which ſhould rule all nations with a * rod of iron: and her ſonne was taken vp vnto God and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into [i] wildernes, where ſhee hath a place prepared of God, that they ſhould feede her there a thouſand, two hundreth and threeſcore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, [k] Michael and his Angels fought againſt the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his Angels.

10 Then I heard a loude voyce, saying, Now is salvation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our b brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the word of their testimonie, and they ᵐ loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, yee heauens, and ye that dwel in them. Woe to the ⁿ inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that hee hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon sawe that hee was ᵒ cast vnto the earth, hee persecuted the woman which had brought foorth the man childe.

14 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great egle, that shee might flie into the wildernesse, into ᵖ her place where she is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that hee might cause her to bee carried away of the flood.

16 But the ᑫ earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swalowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the ʳ remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. XIII.

1. 8 The beast deceiueth the reprobate. 3. 4. 12 And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The priuiledge of the beastes marke.

AND I sawe a ˢ beast rise out of the sea, hauing ᵇ seuen heads, and ᶜ ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were tenne crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a ᵈ leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the ᵉ dragon gaue him his power, ᵗ his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his ᶠ heads as it were wounded to death, but his ᵍ deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they ʰ worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuē vnto him a mouth, that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to doe ⁱ two and fourtie moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to ᵏ ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery ˡ kinred and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore al that dwel vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose ᵐ names are not ᵏ written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine ᵐ from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, he shall goe ⁿ into captiuitie: if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beast comming vp out of the ᵖ earth, which had two ᑫ hornes like the Lambe, but hee ʳ spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first ˢ beast could doe before him, and hee caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first ˢ beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And ᵗ hee did great wonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the ᵘ sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the ᵛ image of the beast, which had the wound of a sworde, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a ʷ spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should ˣ speake, and should cause that as many as would not ʸ worship the image of the beast, should bee killed.

b Meaning them that are giuen to the world and fleshly lusts.

c And was ouercome of Christ, when he fought against his members.

d Which the Lord had appointed for her.

e God giueth meanes to his Church to escape the furie of Satan, making his creatures to serue to the support thereof.

f Satan was not able to destroy the head nor the body, and therefore sheweth his rage against the members.

g Here is the description of the Romane empire which standeth in crueltie and tyrannie.

h Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by seuen Kings or Emperours after Nero, and also is compassed about with seuen mountaines.

i Which signifie many prouinces.

k By these beastes are signified the Macedonians, Persians and Caldeans, whom the Romanes ouercame.

l That is, the deuil.

m This may be vnderstood of Nero, who mooued the first persecution against the Church, and after slew himselfe, so that the familie of the Cæsars ended in him.

n For the Empire was established againe by Vespasian.

o By receiuing the statutes, ordinances, decrees, ceremonies, and religion of the Romane empire.

i Antichristes time and power is limitted.

k In their bodies, not in soule.

l He meaneth that vniuersall departing whereof S. Paul speaketh to the Thessalonians.

m Antichrist hath not power ouer the elect, Chap. 3. 5.

n As God ordained from before all beginning, and all the sacrifices were as signes & sacraments of Christes death.

o They which led soules captiues goe themselues into captiuitie.

p As the kingdome of Christ is from heauen, and bringeth men thither: so the Popes kingdome is of the earth, & leadeth to perdition, and is begun and established by ambition, couetousnes, beastlinesse, craft, treason and tyrannie.

q Which signifie the Priesthood & the kingdome, and therefore he giueth in his armes two keies, and hath two swordes caried before him. So Boniface the eight which first ordeined the Iubile, shewed him selfe one day in apparell as a Pope, and the next day in harnesse as the Emperour, and the two hornes in the Bishops mitre are signes thereof.

r He spake deuilish doctrine, accused Gods worde of imperfection, set vp mans traditions, and spake things contrary to God and his worde.

s For the Pope in ambition, crueltie, idolatrie and blasphemie did followe and imitate the ancient Romanes.

t Brought them to idolatrie, and astonished them with the name of that holy Empire (as hee termeth it.)

u The man of sinne, according to the operation of Satan shall bee with all power, signes and miracles of lyes, 2. Thess. 2. 9, 10.

x Before the whole Empire which representeth the first beast, and is the image thereof.

y For the first Empire Romane was as the patterne, and this second Empire is but an image and shadow thereof.

z For except the Pope confirme the authoritie of the king of Romanes, hee is not esteemed worthy to be made Emperour.

a The same things which the Pope, or false prophets instruct him in.

b Receiue the ordinances and decrees of the seate of Rome, and to kisse the villains foote, if he were put thereunto.

c Whereby he renounceth Christ: for as faith, the word, and the Sacraments are the Christians markes: so this Antichrist will accept none but such as will approue his doctrine: so that it is not inough to confesse Christ, and to beleeue the Scriptures, but a man must subscribe to the Popes doctrine: moreouer their christnynges, greasings, vowes, othes, and shauings are signes of this marke, in so much as no nation was accepted that had not many of these marked beastes.

d He that is not sealed with Antichrists marke, cannot be suffered to liue among men.

e Such as may be vnderstood by mans reason: for about 666. yeeres after this reuelation, the Pope or Antichrist began to be manifest in the worlde: for these characters χξϛ signifie 666: and this number is gathered of the small number, λατεινος, which in the whole make 666. and signifieth Lacrnus, or Latin, which noteth the Pope or Antichrist, who vseth in all things the Latin tongue, and in respect thereof he contemneth the Hebrewe and Greeke, wherein the worde of God was first and best written: and because Italie in olde time was called Latinum, the Italians are called Latini, so that hereby hee noteth of what countrey chiefly hee should come.

a * marke in their right hand or in their foreheads.

17 And *that no man might buy or sell, saue hee that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisedome. Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his number is sixe hundreth threescore and sixe.

CHAP. XIIII.

The notable companie of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel, 8 Another the fall of Babylon, 9 And the third warneth to flee from the beast. 13 Of their blessednesse which die in the Lord. 18 Of the Lords harueste.

a Iesus Christ vseth in his Church to defend and comfort it, though beastage neuer so much: and seeing Christ is present euer with his Church, there can be no vicar: for where there is a vicar, there is no Church.

b Meaning a great and ample Church.

c Which was the marke of their election, to wit, their faith.

d Signifying, that the number of the Church should be great, & that they should speake boldly, & aloud, and so glorifie the Lord.

e None can praise God, but the elect whom he hath bought.

f By whole clemency and vnder this vice hee comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly meant of idolatrie, which is the spirituall whoredome.

g For their whole delight is in the Lambe Iesus, and they loue none but him.

h Which declareth that the faithfull ought to liue iustly and holily, that they may be the iust frutes, and an excellent offring of the Lord.

i Forasmuch as their sinnes are pardoned, and they are clad with the iustice of Christ.

k By this Angel are meant the true ministers of Christ which preach the Gospel faithfully.

l The Gospel teacheth vs to feare God and honour him, which is the beginning of heauenly wisdome. Act.14.15. Isa.22.9. 2 Esd.5.2.8. chap.18.2.

m Signifying Rome: for as much as the vices which were in Babylon are found in Rome in great abundance, as perfection of holynesse, Christ of God, oppression and slauery, with destruction of the people of God, confusion, superstition, idolatrie, impietie and as Babylon the first Monarchie was destroyed, so shall this wicked kingdome of Antichrist haue a miserable ruine, though it bee great and seemeth to extend throughout all Europe.

n By the which fornication God is prouoked to wrath: so that he suffereth many to walke in the way of the Romish doctrine to their destruction.

o That is, of his terrible iudgement.

p The faithfull are exhorted to patience.

q For they are

1 Whereby the Church, & the elect are ioyned with God. Or, for the Lords cause.

r Which are ingrafted in Christ by faith, which rest and stay only on him, and reioyce to be with him for immediatly after their death they are receiued into ioy.

s Signifying that Christ shall come to iudgement in a cloude, euen as he was seene to goe vp. Iosel 3.12. mat.13.39.

t The ouerthrow of the people is compared to an harueste, Isa.19.5. also to a vintage, Isa.63.

u This is spoken familiarly for our capacitie, alluding vnto an husbandman who suffreth himselfe to be aduertised by his seruants when his harueste is ripe, and not that Christ hath neede to bee tolde when hee should come to iudgement for the comfort of his Church, and destruction of his enemies.

x This was Christ who is also the almighty, the Priest, and sacrifice.

1 And I looked, and lo, a Lambe stoode on mount Sion, and with him an bhundreth, fourtie and foure thousand, hauing his fathers * Name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the sound of many dwaters, & as the sound of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes,

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne and before the foure beasts, and the Elders, and no man could learne that song, but the hundreth fourtie and foure thousand, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they which are not defiled with women: for they are virgins: these followe the Lambe e whithersoeuer he goeth: these are bought from men, being the f first fruites vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without g spot before the throne of God.

6 ¶ Then I saw another h Angel flie in the middes of heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospell, to preach vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 * Saying with a loude voyce, i Feare God, and giue glory to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made * heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angell, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, * Babylon the great citie: for shee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the * wrath of her fornication.

9 ¶ And the third Angel followed them, saying with a loude voyce, l If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the * pure wine, which is powred into the cup of his wrath, and hee shalbe tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, whitby worship the beast and his image, and whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of n Saints: here are they that keepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, q blessed are the dead, which hereafter die in the Lorde. Euen so saith the spirit: for they rest from their labours, & their workes follow them.

14 ¶ And I looked, and behold, a white r cloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angell came out of the Temple, crying with a loude voyce to him that sate on the cloude, * Thrust in thy sickle, & reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harueste of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloude, * thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angell came out of the Temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the * altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loude crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, and sayd, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, and cut downe the vines of the vineyarde of the earth, and cast them into the great wine presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the a wine presse was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the wine presse, euen the bridles by the space of a thousande and fyue hundred furlongs.

a That is, a certaine place appointed, and not the heauen. By this similitude he declareth the horrible confusion of the tyrants and infidels, which delight in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and effusion of blood.

CHAP. XV.

1 Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The sing of them that ouercome the beast. 7 The seuen vials full of Gods wrath.

AND I sawe another a signe in heauen, great and marueilous, b seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a c glasse sea, mingled with fire, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glasse sea, hauing the harpes of God,

3 And they sung the song of Moses the d seruant of God, & the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and marueilous are thy workes, Lorde God almighty: iust and true are thy d wayes, King of Saints.

4 e Who shal not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name? for thou onely art holy, and all nations shall come & worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the temple of the tabernacle of testimony was open in heauen.

6 And the seuen Angels came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and f bright linnen, and hauing their g breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the f foure beastes gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God, and of his power, and no man was able to h enter into the Temple, till the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled.

a This was like the sixt plague of Egypt, which was sores and boiles, or pockes: and this reigneth commonly among Canons, Monkes, Friers, Nunnes, Priestes, and such filthy vermine which beare the marke of the beast.

b This is like to the first plague of Egypt, which signifieth all kindes of pestilences and contagious diseases.

c That is, corrupt and infect.

d The first plague of Egypt was like vnto this.

e He bringeth forth these two Angels: the one which is gouernour of the waters, and the other from vnder the altar, as witnesses and commenders of Gods iust iudgements.

f For as much as thou destroyest the rebels, and preseruest thine.

g Signifying famine, drought, and hote diseases, which proceede thereof.

h The wicked were hard hearted, and stubborne when God punished them.

i This answereth to the ninth plagne of Egypt, which signifieth that the Popes doctrine is an horrible plague of God, which keepeth men still in darke ignorance and errours.

a That is, the fourth vision, which conteineth the doctrine of Gods iudgements for the destruction of the wicked and comfort of the godly.

b Meaning an infinite number of Gods ministers, which had infinite maners and sorts of punishments.

c Signifying this brittle & inconstant world mixt with fire, that is, troubles and afflictions, but the Saints of God ouercome them all, and sing diuine songs vnto God, by whose power they get the victorie. Exod. 15.1. Psal. 145.17. Ier. 10.7.

d Which is to declare that Gods iudgments are cleere, iust and without spot.

e As ready to execute the vengeance of God.

f By the foure beasts are meant all the creatures of God, which willingly serue him for the punishment of y infidels.

g God giueth vs full entry into his Church by destroying his enemies: for the Saints cannot clearely knowe all Gods iudgements before the full end of all things.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Angels powre out their vials ful of wrath. 6 And what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heed and watch.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seuen Angels, Goe your wayes, and powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went, and powred out his vial vpon the earth: and there fell a noysome and a grieuous a sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angell powred out his vial vpon the sea, and it became as the b blood of a c dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the sea.

4 And the third Angell powred out his vial vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they became d blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the e waters say, Lorde, thou art iust, (Which art, and (Which wast, and Holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthie.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuarie say, Euen so, Lorde God almighty, f true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial on the Sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with g heate of fire.

9 And men boyled in great heate, and h blasphemed the name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glory.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his vial vpon the throne of the i beast, and his kingdome waxed darke, and they k gnewe their tongues for sorow, 11 And blaspheme the God of heauen for their paynes, and for their sores, and repented not of their workes.

12 And the sixt Angell powred out his vial vpon the great riuer l Euphrates, and the water thereof dryed vp, that the way of the Kings of the East should bee prepared.

13 And I saw three m vncleane spirites like frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirites of a deuils, working miracles, to goe vnto the o Kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God almighty.

15 (p Behold, I come as a thiefe. Blessed h hee that watcheth, and keepeth his p garments, lest he walke naked, and men see his filthinesse) k They shall shewe their furie, rage and blasphemie against God, when the light of his Gospel shall shine.

l By Euphrates which was the strength of Babylon is meant the riches, strength, pleasures and commodities of Rome the second Babylon, which the faithfull which are the true Kings and Priestes in Christ, haue taken away by disclosing their wicked deceite.

m That is, a strong number of this great deuill the Popes ambassadours which are euer crying and croking like frogges, and come out of Antichrists mouth, because they should speake nothing but lyes, and vse all maner of craftie deceite to maintaine their rich Euphrates against the true Christians.

s Meaning, the whole number of them that shall call themselues Christians, whereof some are so in deede, some are Papists, and vnder pretence of Christ, serue Antichrist, and some are Neuters, which are neither on the one side nor of the other.

place called in Hebrew Armaged-don.

17 ¶ And the seuenth Angel powred out his viall into the ayre: and there came a loude voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mightie an earthquake.

19 And the great q citie was deuided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God * to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fledde away, and the mountaines were not found.

21 And there fell great hayle, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blaspheamed God, because of the plague of the hayle: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her sinnes & punishment. 14 The victory of the Lambe.

THen there came a one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials, & talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I wil shew thee the damnation of the great b whore that sitteth vpon many c waters,

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are dronken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wildernesse in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured d beast, full of names of e blasphemy, which had seuen heads, and ten hornes.

4 And the f woman was arayed in purple and scarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of golde in her hand, full of g abominations, and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, h A mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman dronken with the blood of Saints, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I sawe her, I wondred with great maruaile.

7 Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore maruellest thou? I will shew thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and ten hornes.

8 The i beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the minde that hath wisedome. The seuen heads are k seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also l seuen Kings.

10 Fiue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when hee commeth, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the m eight, and is one of the seuen, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shall receiue power as Kings at one houre with the beast.

13 n These haue one minde, and shal giue their power and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shal fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall o ouercome them: * for hee is Lord of Lords, and King of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And he sayd vnto mee, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the p tenne hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shal hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath q put in their hearts to fulfill his wil, and to doe with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

b Which was Christ Iesus, who will take vengeance on this Romish harlot.

b Antichrist is compared to an harlot, because he seduceth the world with vaine wordes, doctrines of lies, and outward appearance.

c Meaning diuers nations and countreys.

d The beast signifieth the ancient Rome: the woman that sitteth thereon, the new Rome which is the Papistrie, whose crueltie and bloodshedding is declared by scarlet.

e Full of idolatrie, superstition and contempt of the true God.

f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole body of his filthy creatures, as is expounded, Verse 18. whose beautie onely standeth in outward pompe and impudencie, and craft like a strumpet.

g Of false doctrines and blasphemies.

h Which none can know to auoyde, but the elect.

i This is the Romane empire, which being fallen into decay, the whore of Rome vsurpad authoritie, and proceeded from the deuill: and thither shall returne.

k Which are about Rome.

l For after that the empire was decayed in Nero, Galba, Otho, Vitellius, Vespasian & Titus died in lesse then fourteene yeers, and reigned as Kings: Domitian then reigned, and after him Coccius Nerua which was the seuenth.

m He meaneth Traiane the Emperour, who was a Spaniard and adopted by Nerua, but because hee perfecuted the faithfull, he goeth also to perdition.

n He signifieth the horrible persecutions which haue bene vnder the empire of Rome, and in all other realmes subiect to the same.

o And brake them to shiuers as a potters pot. 1. Tim. 6. 15. chap. 19. 16.

p Diuers nations, as the Gothes, Vandals, Hunnes and other nations which were once subiect to Rome, shall rise against it, and destroy it.

q That in steade of doing homage to Christ Iesus, they should be cast into a reprobate sense to serue Antichrist, and to dedicate themselues and theirs wholy vnto him.

CHAP. XVIII.

3. 9 The losers of the world are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God to flee out of her dominion. 20 But they that bee of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

AND after these things, I saw another Angell come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightned with his glory.

2 And he cryed out mightily with a loud voyce, saying, * a It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie, and is become the habitation of b deuils, and the holde of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vncleane and hatefull bird.

Isa. 21. 9. sere. 51. 8. chap. 14. 8.

a This description of the ouerthrowe of the great whore, is like to ỹ where-by the Prophets vse to declare the destruction of Babylon.

b He describeth Rome to be the sinke of all abomination and deuilishnesse, and a kinde of hell.

e The greatest part of the world hath bene abused and seduced by this spirituall whoredome.

3 For c all nations haue dronken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

d When God threateneth the wicked, he euer conforteth and counselleth his what they ought to doe, that is, that they doe not communicate with the sinnes of the wicked.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, d Goe out of her, my people, that yee be not partakers in her sinnes, and that yee receiue not of her plagues.

e The Greeke word is, that her sinnes so follow one another, and so rise one after another, that they grow to such an heape, that at length they touch the very heauen.

5 For her sinnes are e come vp vnto heauen, & God hath remembred her iniquities.

f Blessed is hee that can repay to the whore the like, as is written, Psal. 137.8,9. Isa. 47.8.

6 f Reward her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: and in the cup that she hath filled to you, fill her the double.

g The glorious boasting of the strumpet.

7 In asmuch as she glorified her selfe, and liued in pleasure, so much giue yee to her torment and sorowe: for she sayth in her heart, * I sit being a Queene, and am no b widow, and shall see no mourning.

h But ful of people and mightie.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and shee shalbe burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemne her.

i Both they that temporally haue had profit by the strumpet, & also the spiritual marchants shall for sorow and want of their gaine, cry out and despaire.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewayle her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, k Which is very odoriferous and precious.

10 And shall stand afarre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

l Such as the wantons vse at Rome.

11 And the i merchants of the earth shall weepe and waile ouer her: for no man buyeth their ware any more.

m This is the vilest ware that these marchants sel, & best cheape, which soules notwithstanding the Sonne of Godredeemed with his precious blood, 1 Pet. 1.19.

12 The ware of golde and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silke, and of skarlet, and of all maner of Thyne k wood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, and of yron, and of marble, n That is, the things which thou louedst best.

13 And of cynamom, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyle, and fine floure, and wheate, and beasts, and sheepe, and horses, and l charets, and seruants, and m soules of men.

o And so shew signes of great sorowe.

14 (And the n apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more)

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand afarre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wayling,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and skarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupie ships, and shipmen, and whosoeuer traualle on the sea, shall stand afarre off, 18 And cry, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shall cast o dust on their heads, and cry weeping and wayling, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made rich all that had ships on the sea by her ‖ costlinesse: for in one houre shee is made desolate.

‖ Or, noble estate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and yee holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath p giuen your iudgement on her.

p And hath reuenged your cause in punishing her.

21 Then a mightie Angell tooke vp a stone like a great millstone, * and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great citie Babylon bee cast, and shall bee q found no more.

Iere. 51.63.

q It shal not be like to other cities which may be builded againe, but it shall be destroyed without mercy.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpetters shall be heard no more in thee, and no crafts man, of whatsoeuer craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee.

r The Romish prelates and merchants of soules are as kings and princes: so that their couetousnesse and pride must be punished: secondly their crafties and deceits: and thirdly their crueltie.

23 And the light of a candle shal shine no more in thee: and the voyce of the bridegroome and of the bride shalbe heard no more in thee: for thy r merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantments were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

1 Prayses are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for auenging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angell will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

AND after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, a Hallelu-iah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

a That is, prayse ye God, because the Antichrist and all wickednesse is taken out of the world.

2 For b true and righteous are his iudgements: for hee hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

b So that all the S ints are confirmed & ought nothing to doubt of the saluation of the faithfull.

3 And againe they sayd, Hellelu-iah: and her c smoke rose vp for euermore.

c The wicked shalbe burned in continuall fire, that neuer shalbe extinguished.

4 And the foure and twentie Elders, and the foure d beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on the throne, saying, e Amen, Hallelu-iah.

d By the foure beasts are meant all creatures.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Prayse our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

e Signifying that his iudgements are true and iust, & that we ought to prayse him euermore for the destruction of the Pope.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thunderings, saying, Hallelu-iah: for our Lord God almighty hath reigned.

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and hee shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon him, that hee should deceiue the people no more, till the d thousand yeeres were fulfilled: for after that hee must be loosed for a litle season.

8 And shall goe out to deceiue the people, which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euen n Gog & Magog, to gather them together to battell, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went vp into the playne of the earth, which compassed the tents of the Saints about, and the beloued citie: but fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

10 And the deuill that deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet shall bee tormented euen day and night for euermore.

BRISTOL MUSEUM and REFERENCE LIBRARY

THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two Alphabets ensuing.

GOOD Christian Reader, because thou mayest enioy and reape the profite of these two Alphabets of directions vnto Common places hereafter following, which I haue in maner of a briefe Concordance, or large & ample Index, collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy cõmoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, vse, and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it knowen vnto thee, that in the first of the said Alphabets, I haue together placed by themselues in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to bee found here and there throughout the whole Bible, remayning written in the Hebrewe, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages: to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto so much of the interpretation, History, Common places, and knowledge of them, and euery of them, as I trust thou shalt thinke needefull. And for that in diuers translations these strange names & words are written diuersly, I haue, in respect thereof, only in this Alphabet, followed the Geneua translation, as most allowed in that behalfe, and yet haue placed in the Margent thereof how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the end not only such corruptions as are found for want of ỹ true Orthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skilful in those languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already) but also the vnskilful Readers be not defrauded of such commodity as might grow vnto them thereby, especially if they should haue occasion to looke for any word in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read it in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the said Alphabets, I haue likewise by themselues placed all, and as many proper and vsual English words, as are conteined in the same Bible, conducing to the finding out of the most fittest sentences, and best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian faith & religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessary instruction: so as if thou wouldest vnderstand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God, or his power, his wisdome, or his loue, his mercie, or his trueth, his iustice, his promises, his plagues, or his punishments, &c. either else cõcerning Christ, or the holy Ghost, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Law, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vnbeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, Iustification, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c. or to be briefe, if thou wouldest vnderstand what is necessarily to bee learned in the same Scriptures, touching the estate, authoritie, office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Iudges or Magistrates, Bishops & Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subiects, and Parishioners, Husbands & Wiues, Children and seruants, and how euery one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession soeuer, he, she, or they be of, ought to behaue themselues towards God, and one towards another, and what is to be spoken and not spoken, and what is to be done and left vndone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods word: thou art not voyd of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, any thing whereof I haue before made mention, thou art to resort Alphabetically vnto the first of them, with the name of any Man, Woman, Countrey, Citie, Place, Riuer, Idole, &c. in the same conteined: and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or cõmon place therin mentioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or desirest to be satisfied of: and by that meanes in euery of them shalt thou by Gods grace, without faile be conducted, and to thy great ease directed, and as it were, ledde by the hand, euen to the Booke, Chapter and Verse, where the same, (or so much thereof, as for a godly, Christian, and necessary knowledge shall bee thought requisite) is to bee found out most readily: alwayes remembring, that whatsoeuer conuenient knowledge wanteth in these Alphabets, as touching the text whereunto it directeth thee, is there supplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreouer, good Christian Reader, thou hast also to obserue how that the first Figure, or Figures, which follow next after any Booke whereunto thou shalt be guided, signifieth or signifie the Chapter, and the other the verse or verses of the same Chapter, where any of the foresaid things is to be sought for. Againe, whereas thou shalt after a Chapter, and otherwhiles after some verse or verses of a Chapter, finde this marke or Starre * quoted, thou art to vnderstand, how that the whole Chapter, or from the verse of that Chapter where the same Starre is placed forward vnto the end thereof, entreateth, or in some good respects chiefly belongeth, and may be applied to the same Historie, matter, or common place thou seekest for, except there be any verses following the same *, for then the common place is to be vnderstoode, not to exceede those verses. Finally, whereas I haue sometimes in these Alphabets partly set downe the sense, and that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very words themselues, and otherwhiles repeated one thing in diuers places, but yet to diuers ends: I trust that will not offend thee, sith I haue so done for the vnlearneds sake, because the same could not, ne can be made too plaine for them, and therefore haue vsed not so great a curiositie and abbreuiation in that behalfe, as perhaps some other would haue had me: & yet considering to what a great quantitie these two Alphabets are growen vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I haue bene forced to leaue out somewhat, that otherwise I would haue added vnto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will supply: thus much touching the principall contents, commodity, & vse of the aforesaid Alphabets, which with such other doubts as may trouble thee, I mistrust not, but by well perusing of the same, and practise (with the diuersitie of letter, which is vsed in them) will soone appeare very easie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee, albeit I particularly touch not euery of them. Now therefore to conclude, if my simple trauaile and paines taken herein shalbe well accepted of thee, I meane, of the more skilfull and learned Readers to be polished and amended of them (if they shall so deeme necessary and conuenient) to the better edification of the Church of God, whereof they are or ought to be ioint members, helpers, and furtherers, so farre forth as their Talents will stretch vnto, and that in the spirit of meekenesse, sobrietie, and charitie: and of the lesse learned or vnlearned Reader (vnto whom I confesse my selfe the greatest debtor) as an aid and helpe to their godly studies, and honest trade of life, and withall Christianly to be construed of all men, as a meanes and furtherance, and not an hinderance vnto any, I shall for my part thinke my selfe well requited, and more then sufficiently rewarded, in that I shall enioy my desire, and that which I longed for. And so beseeching Almightie God to giue vs his grace to be studious of vnitie, and bringing forth such fruites, as may declare our vndoubted election in Christ Iesus, I take my leaue of thee, this xxij of December.

Anno Domini.
